TOUCHING MEN & CONDITIONS

By Julius Holman

In a time like this when there are social unrests, political bias, ecclesiastical upheavals, international misunderstanding and the alarming rate of the divorce evils, there is great need for those concerned to have the MIND OF CHRIST and to follow with the TEACHING OF JESUS.

Brethren, if you do not be governed by the teaching of Jesus you are wrong. Ecclesiastically we need of the strife at the National Baptist Convention by Louis Dickey, the side that was guided by the Holy Spirit is right.

At this writing we have had on July 21st people meeting in the hall of the Auditorium of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in Cleveland, Ohio. At 10:30 AM Rev. Dr. A. M. Sikes, pastor of the church, in the name of the Christ, spoke in behalf of the good officers in our church.

Rev. Dr. D. B. Coffey, pastor of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Cleveland, Ohio, spoke in defense of the officers of the church.

INTERVIEW — Said pastor Dr. Coffey, "I am a member of my mother church, God's Tabernacle, in New York City. I am a son of the church. We are bound to obey the commandments of the church. We are bound with exactness. We will obey and God's cause will be vindicated, even if it takes an execution."

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN! On hearing that a bus of news was on the campus we rushed to enquire after we had written the last sentence above and the results of the judicial Council.

I could not find A. M. Sikes, the pastor of the church. Reverend Dr. C. L. Jones, pastor of St. Paul's and the Rev. Dr. E. P. Asbury, pastor of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Cleveland, Ohio, were also present. Rev. Dr. H. H. Hollins, pastor of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Cleveland, Ohio, was also present.

ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH

LEXINGTON, S. C.

Rev. A. B. Bailey, Pastor

Sunday School began at 10:00 a.m. with the Superintendents in their posts. A wonderful lesson was taught by all present.

After Sunday School prayer services were held, led by Bro. W. G. Johnson and Dennis Johnson.

Services closed the school and everyone participated in the singing of Psalms, Hymns, for the 10:00 a.m. service. The hymns were 301, 371, 341, and 349.
