WANTS TO BURY THE HATCHET

To the democratic voters of Chesterfield County.

The State Primary election has come and gone and all questions as to State officers have been settled fairly and peaceably so far as our information goes, contrary to my wishes and judgment the March convention was called and a ticket suggested and without my knowledge I was placed on the campaign committee of the State for this county, while I would have greatly preferred not to have assumed that responsibility, I did so at the request of as patriotic citizens as South Carolina affords and have attempted to discharge the duties imposed upon me as fairly as possible and has been, as was said in the Advertiser some time since, my wish to elect Sheppard delegates, and have nothing to do with local county fights and in all my public utterances I have endeavored to avoid local politics. The people have spoken decidedly in favor of the present administration and it is fortunate that there was a decisive majority one way or the other in order to avail better contests. There being no longer any question of the choice of the white people for Governor it is the duty of all to co-orporate heartily in bringing about the election of the ticket for State officers and Presidential electors which will be nominated at the coming State Convention as well as the election of the candidates nominated for county judicial and congressional offices. I write therefore on behalf of the Conservative faction to pledge our co-operation to consummate that end and assure those of the opposite faction that so far as I am able to exert any influence our differences for this campaign shall remain burried in the ballot box where they were deposited on August 30th and the ticket as nominated shall receive our support regardless of those differences The pledges of the March Convention to abide by the result of this primary so far as I am able to bring it about shall be scrupulously observed. And let me conclude by hoping that the time for peace and harmony has arrived. W. F. Stevenson.
Member State Conservative Committe. Cheraw, S. C.

A CARD.

Just before the last Primary I gave Mr. W. P. Swinnie the money to have me some tickets printed. Without my knowledge or consent Mr. Swinnie had his name put on the ticket for Coroner. I have no idea that he intended to injure me or thought of the harm that would result to both from the appearance of a trade. I wish to assure my friends that there was no trade between us and I regret the occurrence the more so because some of my opponents are trying to make capital out of a blunder for which I am not responsible. Respt.
C. W. Horton.
Catarrh S. C. Sept. 1st 1892.

Cash's Depot.

Cotton picking has commenced.

Mr. R. H[illegible]own is quite sick with yellow Jaun[illegible].

Miss Bul[illegible]nes of McKay's is visiting relat[illegible]s at this place.

Died on the 2nd inst Mr. Thomas Gilchrist an [illegible]d and respected citizen of this pa[illegible].

Mr. John [illegible]Sandy who has been spending the summer with his parents at this place has gone back to Florida.

The Advertiser of last week failed to reach this place until Monday following, with the present management of the post offices we would be almost as well off with out them.

Mr. Matthew Freeman of this place who is probably the oldest man in the State was at the primary election at Bethel on the 30th ult. but could not vote on account of his name not being on the club roll, he did not want to vote for either Tillman or Sheppard. Mr. Freeman says he is 110 years old.

Mt. Croghan.

Our Fa[illegible]ers are beginning to gather their cotton.

Mr. Emmet Redfearn who has a position with the Richmond and Danvill R. R. Co. is on a visit to relatives and friends here.

Messrs Sebra Welsh and D. A. Redfearn are the two aspirates for the Trial Justice office, that will make the Second race in this township.

Mrs. Dr. J. F. Rodgers and three Misses Lowrys, daughters of Mr. Frank Lowry, all of Taxahaw S. C. were visiting in this vicenity the past week.

Two packages of those bogus State tickets were received at this office by W. H. Helton and J. H. Tucker, on Monday evening the 29th ultimo, the only legible Post mark, on them was Cheraw, the prevailing opinion in this section is that they were gotten up and sent out by the Antis for the purpose of in[illegible]ur those candidates whose na[illegible]ppeared on them and if possible to create dissentions among the reformers.

While s[illegible]e of our people did not get their choice in the nomination made in the recent primary election. Still they will like the true and loyal Democrats they have always been go to the polls at the general election and deposit their ballots for the nominees of the party. It is to be hoped that the turmoil and strife that has characterized the two great political contests through which our people have past in the last two years was forever buried in the primary election on the 30th ult.

Five Forks.

Cotton picking has begun in earnest and will soon be over as the crops is short not more than half.

Miss Willie Laney is teaching school at Five Forks, and is giving satisfaction to both patrons and pupils.

The matrimonial wave is felt in the land again. Mr. Thos. Whitaker and Miss Missie Jenkins were married this evening by Rev. Jas. Little officiating, ages of contracting parties not known but are away up in the sixties.

Everything is calm and serene in and around Five Forks since the Primary Election. Defeated candidates are holding up under the mighty pressure of defeat splendidly, are even rejoicing over the victory gained by the reformers. Surviving candidates for County Commissioners will have to change their tactics now, as that "Old Bonfi Hobby" ain't no good any more.

The only excuse we hear for voting against Prohibition is that "its votingaway a mans liberty to vote for it" and means as we see it, that if a man wants to get drunk and cut up the "Devil," there should be no barier in the way.

Church members and all lovers of good moral society how can you reconcile those two extremes. 1st Praying "God" to deliver your dear boys from a drunkard's grave, 2nd voting against Prohibition thereby putting the bottle to his lips. Consistency thou art a Jewel. But where art thou. X. Y. Z.
