SHOES For Every Member Of the Family

Man and His Feet.--Did you ever give it a thought that the average man and woman spend two-thirds of their time with shoes on their feet?

And do you realize the importance of having those feet properly cared for by wearing shoes that do not injure them? If you realize these important facts, then be sure to wear only such shoes as are proper for

Your feet. Time and experience have helped us to solve this question, of which we have made a study. We find that are made in strict accordance with the anatomy of the human foot.

Ralston and Craddock Shoes

Try a pair and you will realize the truth of this statement. We have them in the new leathers and styles.

HATS--The Latest Models

Our new Fall Hats have arrived. They are in the latest models--
