TAKE STOCK OF YOUR FLOUR AND BE READY

Dr. L. H. Trotti, county administrator, returned Tuesday from Columbia, where he went to confer with the State Food Administrator about the matter of enforcing the Federal regulations concerning the sale and use of flour.

It was decided, says Dr. Trotti, to instruct all residents of the county to take a complete inventory of the stock of flour on hand and report the same either to the county food administrator or one of his school district representatives.

Mr. Tyler Watson has been appointed local administrator for Orange Hill school district; Mr. H. A. McLeod, Cheraw; Mr. A. B. Smith, Wexford. Others have been asked to serve but have not yet accepted the appointment.

It is not yet decided how much flour will have to be returned or when, but all who have a supply on hand should play safe and notify one of these officers.

of these officers just how much he has, since the government has announced that only a thirty-days supply will be allowed.

WE ARE READY

Washington, Feb. 5.—The United States will furnish more men and money for the war in a "far shorter time than has been the fondest hope of our own people or the nations with which we are associated," Chairman Flood of the foreign affairs committee declared in the house today in presenting the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. The chairman's assertion was made in outlining the state department's war activities. As the result of the work of the House missions to Great Britain and France, Mr. Flood said: "A complete understanding exists of precisely what the allied need from this country and exactly what this country can furnish and when and how." The appropriation bill carries $8,206,087 for the next fiscal year, $3,000,000 more than the current appropriation.

DON'T WASTE SEED

William Elliott, Food Administrator, has issued the following statement:

"Reports have reached this office that farmers in certain sections of the State are feeding seed to cattle, and in some instances using seed for fertilizers. Such a policy on the part of any producer is short-sighted when the prevailing price for cotton seed is obtainable and results in an economic loss as well as destroying valuable food for man and beast.

"The Food Administration would like to see this wasteful practice eliminated. Rule 4 of the Special Rules of the United States Food Administration prohibits the use of cotton seed for feed or fertilizers without the written consent of the State Food Administrator. It is probable that few farmers who are practicing this wasteful method realize the loss both to themselves and to their fellow man resulting in the utilization of cotton seed in this manner.

"America is the greatest food store-house in the world today and there must be no waste of essential food products. The oil which is extracted from the cotton seed is a food product."

SOLDIER INSURANCE

Millions of dollars of Government Insurance are being bought by the soldiers at Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C.

Realizing that February 12th, 1918 is the last day, soldiers are buying insurance at an unprecedented rate—$24,403,000.00 has been applied for in one week, and the total amount sold up to January 26th 1918 is $104,501,000.00.

Lieut. David H. Fuller, Division Insurance Officer reports that the campaign to insure every man at Camp Jackson is well under way and that over 70 per cent of the entire division is insured and that every effort is being put forth by every officer in the command to reach the remaining 30 per cent. before the last day arrives.

The proposition put to the soldiers is so fair, so reasonable and so American that relatives and friends of every soldier in this camp should see to it that the man in service is fully insured to the maximum amount, $10,000.00. This can be done easily, for if a soldier finds that he is unable to pay the premiums, any parent, relative or friend can pay the premiums for him by sending a check each month or each year to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C. Should there be any doubt about the payments of these premiums, information may be had by writing to the Insurance Officer, 81st Division, Camp Jackson, S. C.

Talks at the different Y.M.C.A. are made almost every night in the interest of Government Insurance. But nothing helps like a letter from the folks back home telling the boy that they believe in this insurance. Every day letters are being received from soldier's mothers and fathers asking if their boy has taken out this insurance. These men invariably take out insurance. A "100 per cent. Division" is the slogan of the insurance officers and almost every day several companies cross the safety line and place their outfit in the 100 per cent. column with every man insured. The number of companies being added to the "honor roll" is increasing and will increase each day as February 12th draws nearer.

Quick action is necessary on the part of the home folks if they are to insure the soldier.

UNDER FIRE AGAIN OUR BOYS ARE SAFE

With the American Army in France, Monday, Feb. 4.—German plans to raid the American trenches were frustrated early this morning. The American artillery put down a heavy barrage in front of and on the German lines which are believed to have been filled with men and officers awaiting the signal to attack.

It was discovered at a certain hour that the Germans intended to carry out a "silent" raid. Fifteen minutes before the time set all the American guns concentrated their fire where the enemy was massed. It is believed heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans.

Saturday's Fighting.
Fuller reports from the first line show that great courage was exhibited by the troops during the heavy German bombardment of Saturday.

HEATLESS HOLIDAYS

Washington, Feb. 5.—It was practically certain today after a conference between Fuel Administrator Garfield and Director General McAdoo that the heatless Mondays could not be immediately abandoned, as had been hoped, because the intense cold had so cut down movement of fuel supplies. There was every indication that unless the transportation and fuel situations improved very much it would be necessary to go through with the whole series of heatless Mondays, which according to program, ends March 15.
