the subject of northern aggression. We do not say that she is more patriotic, or more alive to Southern rights than her southern sisters, but simply state the fact, for fact it is. And yet amid all the apparent contempt so freely lavished upon her, South Carolina-perse cuted, slaudered, contemned South Carolina has commanded, still commands, and ever will command the respect and admiration of the civilized world and the fear and dread of her unnatural and soulless persecutors.

In view then of all things of the past, the present and the future, in view of her honor, her safety, her existence, aye! her salvation, she should sever, and sever at once, every cord which holds her in alliance so unholy and unnatural, and which binds her to a people who taunt and despise her, and to a Government she has only felt and known by its oppressions. When we say "sever at once," we of course will Le understood to refer to the time of the · m eting of the Convention. If, when that Convention assembles, there shall be found one or more of our southern sisters who are willing to east in their lot with us, we shall gladly and joyfully receive them; but if, as we expect it will prove, there be found none, an not one, to accompany her, let her single handed and alone, unfurl her banner to the breeze, and trusting in the justice of her cause, leave the consequences, whatever they may be-in the hands of that God, who never forsakes the virtuous and the brave. Better for us, aye, far better, had this been done twenty years ago. Again, we believe that the destiny of South Carolina and of the entire South, will hang upon the decision of the approaching Convention. If that Convention does nothing, our doom throughout all time is sealed, irrevocably sealed. Should this be the issue-which we cannol, will not believe, as a Carolinian, and the son of a Carolinian, we humbly pray and hope, that we will forever, hereafter close our mouths in silence, and quietly at least submit to our degradation. · In consideration of the importance of Union among ourselves, we cannot but view as unfortunate and rumous, every thing which at this time tends to produce discord and distraction. We believe the people of South Carolina are prepared, fully prepared for separate State action, and we look upon all efforts, come from what quarter they may-to frighten them from their purpose, by apparitions of "Charleston being shut out from the world"-"sevenfold increase of taxes" &c &c, as insulting in the extreme to an enlightened and wronged people. It cannot be disguised that the alternative presented to us, is on the one hand submission, with disgrace and infamy - on the other, resist. annee, with at least honor preserved and unt mished. Between the two, who can hesitate? For our part-(and we expect we perhaps have as much at stake as the most of our fellow citizens) we say, give us the latter! though all the evils-and a hundred fold more, which exist in the imagination of the most timid and fearful should befall us. "Aye! Let South Carolina be struck from the page of history !-let her be annihilated, utterly, totally annihilated! Let citizens wander, poverty strickened exiles, in a foreign land, BUT LET her not by submission SURVIVE HER HOSER!! Submit!—"the word BOXES Smoked Halibut received and for sale by SHAW & AUSTIN. curdles the blood in my veins."

"WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.-A mong all the Panaceas advertised for the cure of human ailments there is none in which we have more confidence than Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.' We regard it as than 'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.' We regard it as one of Nature's own preparations—simple. safe, pleasant to take, and almost certain to cure all billious and pulmonary affections. We have witnessed its wonderful effects, in cases that were regarded as hopelessly desperate, and we can concientiously recommend it as one of the best medicines in the world."
