may be a species of millet. The land of Egypt | New Family Grocery & Provision Store -the granary of ancient times - must, of course, have been cultivated with grain, which, for that climate and soil, was very productive and nutritious. It was hardly worth the while of the priestess to have taken with her these two small emblems of the resurection, unless they were valued grains.

"A bulb was once taken from the hand of a mummy and planted, and grew up a beautiful dahlia. In another instance a few grains of wheat were found, which is now cultivated in England, and called wheat I shall call mine mummy millet until I find some more appropriate name."

The Man of Wealth .- "Fearful are his responsibilities. He has committed to his care by the Almighty a trust which requires all of human wisdom to manage wisely and discreetly. He is looked upon by his fellows as one who has been highly favored; but I cannot view him in that light alone,-I remember his cares, his responsibilities, and his duties Fellow mortals, -I would counsel you not to look upon great wealth as a panacea for your earthly woes. Let your language be, like him of old, 'Give me neither poverty nor riches;'-this is what you should aim at. The possession of wealth brings with it other things than the luxuries of the world-Dr. Chalmers.

NOT MUCH TROUBLE TO TRY IT .- To raise an orchard of grafted fruit without grafting! How can it be done? Select the kind of fruit you desire, then take a linen string and tie it as near the top as many be. Let it , remain one year then you have above the string one year's growth the stsing will form a bulb; cut off just below and set in the ground, and from the bulb will start out roots and soon trees of a dwarfish size will be seen growing under a burden of fruit .- Exchange.

A MOTHERS PRAYERS .- Forty years ago, on the mountains of western Massachusetts, a mother with eight children, five of them under the age of fourteen , was left to trust to the widow's God and the Father of the fatherless. She called them around her regularly, and led them in family worship; and often at the dead of night her low voice was calling on her heavenly Father to have mercy upon them. Before the youngest had reached the age of twenty. one all except one son had hope in Christ. That son early in life left the family to learn a trade; but on becoming of age, he found himself amid the outpouring of the Spirit; the sound of his mother's voice at midnight, when he slept in the chamber with her, reached his heart. He, too, found peace in Christ, and has long been a pillar in the church, and superintendent in the Sabbathe school in a new settlement. The mother still lives in peace and quiet, waiting till her change come; her children are supposed to be all yet living, handing down her influence to the third generation, and willing to aid their m ther; but she has a competence of this world's goods. Such is the history of a praying widow and her children for forty years.
