Bull's bay in the night and the cargo and ne-groes be lost among the breakers, or let one of those small steamboats which ply the Pedee, lose in that bay, her freight and passengers, and the insurers or the jury of inqust may call it a loss or death by the act of God, but the honorable Senators will know and feel too, that it was death from the carelessness, indifference or prejudice of man?

CAMDEN,

TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 16, 1851.

THO. J. WARREN, Editor.

Our Market.

There is no change to notice in the quotations for cotton since our last. The market has been brisk at 6 to 8 cents

Our advertising customers whose favors do not appear will please bear with us. They shall appear on Friday and regularly thereafter

To-day's Paper.

We are necessarily compelled, in consequence Of the late fire in our office, (by which we were knocked into pi,) to use in the publication of our paper to-day, some of our old type, which we had put by. Our new materials have been ordered, and we hope by the first of the year to be able to make our appearance in a new suit. In the interim we shall be prepared and pleased to execute all Job Work with which we may be favored, on the most accommodating terms. We are exceedingly obliged to our friends for their liberal patronage, and shall be glad to execute their further commands.

Our Weekly subscribers to-day will receive the Semi-Weekly paper, which, however will contain nearly as much reading for them, as they ordinarily receive in the Weekly. We shall be able, we hope, by next week to go on regular ly with our publications.

Lewisville Female Seminary.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the advertisement of this institution in to-day's paper. Mrs. A. S. Wylie is well and favorably known as a lady of superior ability, and quite competent for the duties she has assumed as the principal of this institution. She will be sustained by assistants of experience and ample qualifications for the proper instruction of pupils committed to their care.

There are superior advantages afforded to pupils here; for in addition to their mental wants being supplied, in cases of sickness the best medical aid and attention is promised, free of charge, which is certainly a very impor ant consideration. In many boarding schools, pupils when taken sick, are allowed the privilege of getting well the best way they can. A personal acquaintance with the Principal, enables us confidently to recommend the School to the patronage of the public. The location is represented as a very desirable and pleasant one, in the midst a moral, religious and intelligent community, and in a healthy region of country.

Rev. Whitefoord Smith. D. D.

We had the pleasure on Sunday 7th inst., to hear a Sermon from this emineut and popular divine. His sermon was intended as a missionary appeal, preached with great power from these words: "Go ye into all the world and preach my gospel to every creature." We do not recollect ever to have heard a better se:mon; perhaps however, if we were to hear him again, we might arrive at the same conclusion in regard to the last effort. Dr. Smith combines to an eminent degree, the characteristics of pulpit oratory. His voice is music itself. His reasoning is clear and convincing. The great power of his preaching lies in his persuasive eloquence, and splendid imagination; his extraordinary fluency-never at a loss for a moment, to express precisely what he means.-Whitefoord Smith answers our idea of a finished speaker, and perfect orator. Perhaps we are extravagant-be it so, we acknowledge there are few men, whose claims to clerical distinction in the way of preaching, are superior, if equal to his. We would gladly see him honored, but would at the same time, regret to lose his valuable services in the itenerancy-even though he were elevated to the highest position in the South Carolina College-his alma-mater, upon which few graduates have reflected equal honor. Such being our notions, we have volunteered to give him a passing

South Carolina Hats.

We have been shown by Mr. Thorn of the firm of Thorn & Eriedeberg, specimens of Hats of their own manufacture, made in Columbia, which, for elegance and finish were, in our judg. ment, quite superior to any which we have seen manufactured at the North and sold here. Certainly our people will have no objection to encourage such a spirit at home, when they can buy a better article at a cheaper price.

Powers' Statues.

We have had the pleasure recently of viewing these splendid specimens of art. They were exhibited in Columbia, and have attracted much admiration. The Greek Slave belongs to Mr. Powers, and is seen with the statue of Eve, which latter was executed for Col. John S. Preston, but through his liberality, has been allowed to be exhibited for the benefit of Mr. Powers. We profess not to be a connoisseur in statuary art, but conclude after this that Powers has nothing more to do, to acquire an immortality of worldly fame, enviable indeed. We remarked when we saw the Hon. Wns. C. Preston viewing these statues, here is the wreck as well as exhibition of genius.

The Minority Report.

and false in policy as some maintain, let it be sub- life and animation to our town, and changing, mitted in due form to the people-the proportion and what, the more demonstrately day scene to shall it exist or not?-their decision will close the matter, and whether it be for or against it, it will have to be right. We don't like the Report of the Minority of the Committee appointed by the Legislature to examine into the affairs of the Branch at Camden. The proposition to discontinue this Branch, and establish an agency in its stead, is one of the latest ideas on record. The most prominent reason given by the minority is on the score of economy-saving the State "at least five thousand dollars a year," and at the same time "it will not narrow the accommodations of this section of the country seriously." We are not prepared to admit these propositions, and contend that, being entitled to the Branch, (and not an agency,) we hope and expect to retain it. We suppose that Camden is so far behind the age, in the wisdom of certain sagacious legislators, as to need their particular supervision and attention. When we need their services, we shall take pleasure in asking their advice; until such however, is the case, we beg of the minority of the committee of examination, to be allowed the exquisite privilege of pursuing the even tenor of our way, promising mutually that each shall mind his own business, and not get too smart all at once. Congress.

We have seen but little of consequence from this body as yet. The business which usually occupies the first few weeks of a session, (particularly the long session,) is not remarkably inter esting. The complete organization of the Houses-electing a Speaker and other officers-appointing committees-the presentation of memorials, etc., affords but inttle interest to us so far down South. We give a brief abstract to-day of such proceedings as seem most important.

Illustrated Family Friend.

The second number of this valuable paper has been received, and equals, if it does not exceed, the specimen first sent us. We supposed it would be difficult for the proprietors to keep up the same appearance in the paper with which they commenced. We are assured that no abatement in appearance and interest in the matter, will be allowed in its future numbers. Our people have each; the first to commence on the 5th of January now the opportunity to encourage Home talent and industry, and it this paper is not sustained, they deserve to be severely reproached. The best way is to judge for yourself-send two dollars and get it, for without the cash, no subscriber will be furnished-President Filimore would not be allowed time on his subscription. The cash plan is the only system worth a cent to newspaper publishers. Mr. Godman has a go ahead-ativeness about him, which we hardly thought belonged to a man in the South. If he does not succeed, the next man who thinks of trying, had better quit before he begins.

McMakin of the Model American (formerly Saturday) Courier, can boast of about 100,000 subscribers, how long will it be before Godman of the Friend, can do half as much?

Ans. Perhaps when he goes to the North, the people of the South would be able to discover new beauties rise," and give him that support which his merit deserves; unfortunately in these latter days, merit is too often overlooked, where presumption is honored.

Weekly Post.

This is the name of a new paper, published in Raleigh, N. C., Edited by Messrs. Calvin H. Wiley and William D. Cook. The first number has been sent us, and is illustrated by an engraving of the Pilot Mountain in Surry Co. N C., accompanied by a story called Redwood, the Regulator, or the Wizard of the Pilot, by C. H. Wiley, one of the Editors. The paper presents a handsome appearance, well printed, and filled we think, with good reading matter. The price is two dollars for a single copy, ten copies for fifteen dollars, or twenty copies for twenty dollars. It is intended as a Literary paper, for the family circle-neutral in Politics. We shall take pleasure in exchanging with our new friend.

Whitaker's Magazine.

An occasional number of this interesting monthly reaches us. We have now the pleasure of acknowledging the one for August. The leading article, entitled " Private Life of John C. Call oun. addressed to her brother, and communicated to the International Magazine," is by Miss Bates .-There is choice reading in this number, and we commend this worthy enterprise to the patronage of an intelligent and liberal public. We should be very glad to receive the numbers regu-

The Lady's Book.

The January Number of this charming Book for the Ladies, has been received in advance of the coming year, and as usual, bears its rich burthen of literary treats for the Christmas and New Year holidays. The Book gets better, as it gets older. This number is superbly illustrated with several Engravings, and filled with its usual variety of reading matter. Mr. Godey's motto for some time has been "more elevated," and he certainly has, if we are competent to judge, practically illustrated that motto, "Excelsior."

Democratic Review.

The number of this excellent Magazine, for December, is at hand. The interest is still kept up as heretofore in its pages, and we hope to be able in our next paper, to give it a more extended no-

Death of Hon J. R. Poinsett, We regret to announce the death of this gentleman, on Friday last, at the residence of Dr. W. Anderson, Stateburg, Sumter District. Mr. Poinsett's health has been very feeble for some time past, and he had been suffering from a pulmonary complaint for several years.

Mr. Poinsett is known to the whole nation, and at different periods occupied various responsible positions under the Government. If we mistake not, he represented Charleston district in 1823, and was prominent in the debate which took place on the intervention of our government in favor of Greece. He subsequently received an appointment as Minister to Mexico. and acquired much popularity from his intrepid ity in unfurling the American flag from a bal-cony, when his residence was beset by a furious mob, who were bent on its destruction, because persons obnoxious to them had found sanctuary there. His efforts were successful, and the mob dispersed. During the administration of General Jackson he was appointed Secretary of War, which he continued to hold during Mr. Van Buren's term of office, with which he retired to private life.

Mr. Poinsett was born in 1779, and was consequently in the 73d year of his age. South Carolinian of Monday.

In addition to instruction in the branches enumerated above, Courses of Lectures will be delivered to the pupils on Mental and Moral Philosophy and the Eridences of Christianity, by the Rev. L. McDonald; and on Chemistry. (with the aid of suitable apparatus,) by Drs. William and A. P. Wylie and W. W. Mobley.

This school will be a very desirable one, and recommends itself to parents and guardians as well by the very moderate rates of tuition as by the healthiness of its location and the competence of its in-tr-ctors.

Much more time and attention will be given to the healthful exercise of the pupils than is usual in similar institutions.

The best Books of reference will be kept at hand for the use of the School. In sickness the pupils will be attended tree of charge.

It is desirable that pupils should begin with the session, but they will only be charged from the time of entrance. No deduction will be made for occasional absence. In cases of protracted illness the proper discount will be allowed. All accounts must be paid at the end of each

Any person sending seven boarders to this Seminary, will be entitled to send one free of charge. Communications may be addressed to Mrs. Wylie, Lewisville Post Office, Chester district. References .- Ex-Gov. John P. Richardson,

GOOD INTENTIONS Better Bargains: Best System!! FOR 1852.

CASH, QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

THE beginning of a new year is generally admitted to be a good season to for Good INTENTIONS. I intend therefore, on the first day of Jannary, 1852, to close the books so far as crediting is concerned, finding by experience, that

"A LITTLE credit is a dangerous thing."

I am aware that there are many—very many, with whom yearly accounts might be made with perfect safety, and much profit but a Cash Business, properly conducted, admits of no exception, on the principle that when Goods are sold at cash prices, the twelve months credit of a John Jacob Astor is not as good as the cash in hand of the poorest citizen. Such may not be the doctrine usually preached in the streets of Camden, but it is orthodox, nevertheless, and has always been found current on 'change.

In view of this arrangement, I have re-marked the whole of my stock, reducing the profits to the lowest possible scale, and established a UNIFORM PRICE to all.

I have now "declared my intentions," and appeal to the public for a liberal support in carrying them out, in return for which, I promise you than ever have been afforded in Camden -a strong assertion, but one I willy FULLY SUBSTANTIATE.

The above is beyond all doubt, the BEST system, com-bining every advantage to the buyer with every security to the seller, and wherever it has been fairly and honesty carried out, it has invariably succeeded and proved highpopular.

To those who have so liberally encouraged me hereto.
