GOOD INTENTIONS Better Bargains: Best System!! FOR 1852.

CASH, QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

THE beginning of a new year is generally admitted to be a good season to for Good INTENTIONS. I intend therefore, on the first day of January, 1852, to close the books so far as crediting is concerned, finding by experi-

"A LITTLE credit is a dangerous thing." I am aware that there are many—very many, with whom yearly accounts might be made with perfect safety, and much profit but a Cash Business, properly conducted, admits of no exception, on the principle that when Goods are sold at cash prices, the twelve months credit of a John Jacob Astor is not as good as the cash in hand of the poorest citizen. Such may not be the doctrine usually preached in the streets of Camden, but it is orthodox, nevertheless, and make years found current on change.

'change.

In view of this arrangement, I have re-marked the whole of my stock, reducing the profits to the lowest possible scale, and established the profits to the lowest possible scale, and established a UNIFORM PRICE to all.

I have now "declared my intentions," and appeal to the public for a liberal support in carrying there out, in return for which. I promise you turn for which, I promise you BETTER BARGAINS than ever have been afforded in Camen—a strong assetion, but one I willy FULLY SUBSTANTIATE.

The above is beyond all doubt, the BEST system, on bining every advantage to the buyer with every security to the reller, and wherever it has been fairly and hones ly carried out, it has invariably succeeded and proved hig ly popular.

ly popular.
To those who have so liberally encouraged me heretofore, I again return most hearty thanks, and with the ertra inducements now offored, I hope confidently, for extra favors, as only Cash and Quick Sales can support Small Profits.
