There is more sincerity, if there be less nicety, in the conduct of a really virtuous woman than there is in that of a pious, and some degree of freedom so far from being incompatible with the strictest virtue, is one of its principal privileges. If a lady is obliged to receive a company on dishabille, it is a sign of her good breeding if she appears perfectly at ease, and makes little or no apology for her appearance. A person who changes her manner with her garb must be innately vulgar.

THE FORREST CASE.—The New York Mirror, in alluding to the testimony of Mrs. N. P. Willis in this case, says:—"The testimony of Mrs. N. P. Willis in the Forrest divorce case, is clear and explicit. Throughout all these difficulties, the conduct of this lady has been a beautiful exemplification of true christian friendship. It disproves the complaint of the poet:—
"The friends who in our sunshine live,
When winter comes are flown;
And he who has but tears to give,
Must shed those tears alone."

Dr. A. Rogers's Syrup of Liverwort and Tar, has proved itself to be the most extraordinary medical aid in curing that usually fatal disease, Consumption. But, it should be remembered, this medicine is as efficacious and valuable in the incipient stages, such as Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, &c., before the lungs are so far gone that ulceration has taken place. It is seldom, if ever, known to fail in breaking up the most obstinate and distressing Cough or Cold, in a few hours time, if the directions are strictly followed. For sale at Thomas J. Workman's Drug Store. See advertisement in another column.
