We have seen the young bride blooming, as it were, as the bird of paradise and the fair flower of hop the pride of her father and the joy of her mother, her cheek flushed with anticipation, and her eye beaming with the soft expression of love-the gay dreams of life dancing on her fancy with the rich and variegated tints of the rainbow promise. We have seen all this changed ay, the wedding garment for a shroud, and the bridal chamber for the sepulcher of the dead; and all this from neglecting a common cold. Now, before it is too Dr. Rogers's Liverwort and Tar, which gives immediate relief, as thousands of our most intelligent families now admit of its most extraordinary cures. The gay, the beautiful, and the young speak forth its praise, and will, so long as it makes positive cures, and cheers the despairing family fireside.
