Proclamation.

By his Excellency JAMES L. ORR, Governor of the State of South Carolina. INFORMATION HAS BEEN COMMUNICATED to this Department, by the Hon. WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State, that the President of the United States has relieved the Hon. B. F. PERRY from the further discharge of his duties as Provisional Governor of the State, and has remitted the "care and condition of the proper affairs of the State to the constitutional authorities chosen by the people."
 This intelligence will be highly gratifying, as it is an important step in the early restoration of the people to the enjoyment of all their civil rights. It is the harbinger of the re-establishment of those friendly relations, in every section of the Union, which have been so long alienated and estranged.
 In entering upon the duties of Constitutional Governor, it is proper that I should declare the present status of the State to the Executive Department of the Federal Government, and to the military authorities acting under the instructions of the President; so that the people, knowing, may yield prompt obedience to all lawful authority.
 The order suspending the writ of Habeas Corpus, issued by the President has not been modified or revoked in this State, and the military authority is, therefore paramount in all such matters as they are instructed to take jurisdiction of, and as such will be respected by all orderly and law-abiding people.
 The military claim jurisdiction in all cases of disloyalty to the Government and infractions of its laws; to preserve order and discipline in and near their garrisons; to adjudge and determine all controversies in which freedmen or freedmen and whites are engaged, including violations of State laws by freedmen; in all cases of wrong or injury done to its officers and soldiers; and is an auxiliary in aiding all Treasury agents to recover United States property, and the freedmen's Bureau in supervising contracts of labor with freedmen. Whenever a person, therefore, is arrested by military authority on either of the above grounds, they have jurisdiction of the case, and are instructed not to obey any writ of Habeas Corpus for the relief of such person.
 I therefore advise and admonish the people of this State not to allow themselves to be inveigled or seduced by bad or misguided men into collisions with the military authorities. If the order of an officer is arbitrary, or the conduct of officer or private is illegal or oppressive, upon proper representations to the District commanders or to the distinguished commander of the Department, adequate and prompt redress will be afforded and the wrong done properly punished.
 In all controversies between citizens, arising out of wrongs or injuries done to person or property, and in all violations of the penal code by citizens, the laws are in full force, and the Courts will be opened henceforth on every circuit to administer law and punish crime. The vicious, the lawless and the desperate will speedily be overtaken by justice and the majesty of the law re-established and vindicated.
 The colored people of this State who have neither land nor capital, are earnestly admonished to make contracts at once for labor for the next year. They may be assured that the Government will not give them lands, stock or agricultural implements, nor will any food hereafter be furnished to those who are able to work. Those who will not work will very soon be immersed in vice, crime and disgrace. If the colored people really desire to elevate their race and make themselves respectable, it can only be attained by sobriety, industry, economy and honesty.
 It is the duty of the citizen, as it is a wise policy, to treat the freedmen with kindness, humanity and justice, and aid him to ameliorate and elevate his condition. Under such a policy, a majority of them will labor patiently and faithfully, and the eye will be greeted everywhere with blooming fields, fruitful harvest and well filled granaries.
 Given under my hand and the seal of the State, in the city of Columbia, this twenty fifth day of December 1863, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the ninety-first year of the independence of the United States of America.
