Miss Elizabeth Brooks Wed To Kohn Barnes

The wedding ceremony of Miss Elizabeth Brooks and Kohn Barnes of this city, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks, Sr., in Washington, Ga.

The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Waymon Reese. Nuptial music before and during the ceremony was presented at the piano by Mrs. Henry C. Standard with her solo, vox. The wedding altar was formed of ferns, smilax and white gladioli. Streamers of white satin ribbon with valley lilies and maiden hair fern extending from the chandelier to the altar formed a canopy for the bridal party.

The candles were lighted by Augustus Partee of Decatur, Ga., cousin of the bride. Miss Edythe Brooks, only sister of the bride was maid of honor and her only attendant. She wore a blue model with fitted coat and pink tulle cap with short veil and she carried a bouquet of exquisite pink rosebuds tied with pink satin ribbon.

Eric Barnes of this city, father of the groom, was best man. The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage.

The piquant brunette beauty of the bride was enhanced by the lovely bridal gown of ivory faille taffeta, trimmed in lace on bracelet length sleeves, and at the elongated waist line. Her cap was an off-the-face model of lace with short veil of tulle. She wore a breast pin belonging to her maternal great-great-grandmother, and her necklace was of beads made from the roses of the bridal bouquet belonging to her aunt. Her bride's bouquet was of bouvardia surrounding a purple orchid, tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Brooks, mother of the bride, wore blue chiffon and a corsage of purple orchids. Mrs. Barnes, mother of the bridegroom, wore black crepe and a corsage of purple orchids.

Following the double ring ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception, assembling the two families, the wedding party out-of-town and intimate friends. The dining room was lovely in white gladioli, smilax, maiden hair fern, and lighted tapers. The bride's table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake embossed with white roses and lilies. Beautiful white japonicas and maiden hair fern garlanded the lace table cloth, and silver compotes filled with decorated mints were placed on each side. Punch was served by Mrs. John C. Burdette and Miss Ophelia Hardy, and Miss Kate Norman assisted in serving decorated individual cakes and white ice cream with green bells.

Shortly afterwards, the couple left for a wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in Greenville. The bride wore a smart going away suit of blue crepe with black accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Washington high school and attended Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville, of which she is a graduate. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. For three years she taught in the Clinton schools, and the past year in Athens, Ga.

Mr. Barnes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Barnes of this city, and a graduate of Clinton high school. He attended Presbyterian college where he was a member of Alpha Kappa Pi fraternity.

The young couple will make their home in Greenville where Mr. Barnes holds a position with Carpenter Bros., druggists.

Clinton friends and relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Barnes, Miss Elizabeth Barnes, Jack Barnes, Miss Nancy Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Monts and daughter, Julia.

AROUND THE TOWN

Incidents, Unusual and Ordinary, Gathered On Our Rounds.

MASTER HARRY ROBERT LEAGUE, JR., of this city, is runner-up in Spartanburg county's 1942 stork derby. He arrived at 12:15 on New Year's day at Workman Memorial hospital in Woodruff, eleven minutes after the first 1942 baby for the county. The Spartanburg Journal carried a picture of Mrs. League, her son and the nurse, Miss Ann Walters. SANDRA RUTH DAVIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, at 9:10 New Year's morning, was the first arrival at the local hospital.

New Year's day wouldn't be complete without the annual visit of the venerable "Uncle Tommy," T. R. OWENS, for the prompt renewal of his subscription of long standing to "our favorite newspaper."

Friends here of CHALMERS DANIEL of Columbia, better known as "Sam," will be interested in the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel of the birth of a daughter, Laurie Aull, on December 29. Mr. Daniel, one of the state's outstanding tennis players, is a nephew of Mrs. Myrtle Hunter of this city, and attended school here.

On a recent trip to Charleston, MR. and MRS. J. W. COLEMAN were delighted with the gentlemanly conduct of a fine-loking young soldier who removed his heavy overcoat to place over the knees of Mr. Coleman when the bus began leaking. A furtherance of the acquaintance revealed that he was John Pitts Rumph, of this city and Fort Bragg, N. C., son of friends of the Colemans and fellow church members, which goes to prove that chivalry isn't dead yet in the younger generation and it really is a small world after all.

One of the happiest family gatherings of the holidays was that of the D. W. MASON family. Mrs. Mason had with her Christmas her children and grandchildren—totaling 17.

JAMES F. KING, of Washington, D. C., who is assistant administrator of the wage and hour division, has been selected as executive officer of Byron Price's new censorship division. He was one of the original wage-hour officials and served under its two administrators. Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. King, the former Miss Janet Leake, daughter of Mrs. J. Will Leake, will learn with interest of his new position.

New Clinton residents include MR. and MRS. JOHN H. BAXTER, who moved from Newberry to the Hays Centennial apartments Thursday. Mr. Baxter has held a position with the State Employment service for some months past. Others are MR. and MRS. OLIN MOORE, formerly of Rocky Mount, N. C., who have taken an apartment in the residence of Mrs. John T. Little. Mr. Moore is employed as linotype operator at Jacobs Press. Also C. O. BAKER, an employe of Jacobs Press, MRS. BAKER and small daughter, TOMMY LEE. The Bakers also came here from Rocky Mount.

Friends here will learn with interest of the following local boys who are now in military service: J. B. JOHNSON son of Mrs. J. B. Johnson, who formerly held a position in Washington, D. C., is attached to the Fourth Corps headquarters at Fort McPherson, Atlanta. EDWIN STEWART, son of Mrs. Lila C. Stewart, has been transferred to the 7th Coast Artillery, Fort Hancock, N. J. CHARLES TRAMMELL, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Trammell, is one of the ten young men from South Carolina who were transferred last week to navy trade schools following completion of recruit training at the naval training station in Norfolk, Va. Mr. Trammell is in the aviation machinist service at the Naval Reserve Training school, Chicago.

The unusual and happy experience of observing a fiftieth wedding anniversary does not come to many couples. It was the happy experience last week of DR. and MRS. A. E. SPENCER.

This distinction now comes to another beloved couple, MR. and MRS. JOHN T. BLAKELY of this city, who will celebrate their 52nd wedding anniversary on Friday, the 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Blakely were united in marriage near Simpsonville on January 9, 1890, by the Rev. D. A. Todd. The bride before her marriage was Miss Ella Bennett of that community. Mr. and Mrs. Blakely are loved for their many admirable traits of character and have a host of friends who unite in wishing for them many, many happy returns.
