Perry Business School Branch To Open Here

The Perry Business Schools, of Brunswick, Ga., largest operators of term business schools in the United states will open a branch of their school here in Clinton. The opening date and location will be announced later.

The opening of this school affords the young people of Clinton and surrounding area an unusual opportunity to get standard business training without the additional expense and loss of time in going away from home.

Certainly at no time in the past 25 years that the Perry schools have been in operation, has there been so great a demand for clerical help, according to a representative of the schools. This demand, it was said, is increasing daily because of the vast program being put into operation by the government to meet changing world conditions. The emphasis is on intensive training and quick preparation such as offered by the Perry schools.

An authorized representative of the schools has been here for several days, and reports a good enrollment inu prospect for both day and night classes.

The Government needs stenographers for National defense. One is prone to think of National defense in terms of soldiers, sailors and marines. But there are many types of defense work behind the lines. A large army of civilian personnel is now on duty as stenographers in the Government service to take the dictation of the thousands of executives and administrative officers, and transcribe it into typewritten documents. Some of this material is of lasting importance. Some of it will set into motion Government events of historical consequence.

It is estimated that the Government has approximately 85,000 stenographers, typists and secretaries on the payroll. Many young men and women are responding to the call. Thousands more are needed.

Aside from the present emergency, the opportunities for stenographers in the Government service are favorable. Good stenographers are always in demand. The positions pay $1,440 a year to start, with a good chance for advancement to positions of greater responsibility, such as secreterial positions, in the case of those who have the ability.

The examination announced by the Civil Service Commission for stenographers is open until further notice, the Perry school states.

Non-College Course Offered In Aviation

A new non-college course in aviation will begin at the Laurens airport in the near future Coordinator C. C. Giles, of this city, announced yesterday.

Anyone with a high school education who can pass the required physical examination is eligible to enroll in the class according to Mr. Giles. The enrollees will be given a gratis training at an estimated value of $350.00 with incidental expenses of only about $15. Interested parties are asked to communicate with Mr. Giles at once.

Red Cross Appeals For Sewing Helpers

The Red Cross sewing room in the Jacobs building is now open daily except Saturday from 9 a. m. to 12, and from 2 to 5:30 p. m., the Chairman Mrs. J. B. Townsend, stated yesterday. The services of a number of ladies who will help in sewing is needed Mrs. Townsend states, and all who will volunteer to help are asked to call at the headquarters.

Resolutions 'Silly,' Psychiatrist Says

New Year's resolutions are just a bit silly in the opinion of Dr. Francis J. Gerty, professor of psychiatry at Loyola university. He believes that a person who makes resolutions is something of an exhibitionist in addition to being quite childish. "And moreover," he adds, "he probably won't carry it out anyway."

Dr. Gerty asserts that New Year's resolutions have little value. "I don't think resolutions are the best methods of curbing our little difficulties and correcting ourselves. The best method is giving some thought to what causes our troubles and trying to correct them rationally.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

In this day of conflict between Christ and chaos and between truth and modernistic error, this Church stands four square for Christ and the Holy Bible as the inspired Word of God. As a faithful remnant, we undertake to preserve the spiritual fundamentals of the Soul-redeeming Gospel of our Lord to purify the leadership from anti-Christian modernism, and to protect the organization from undue ecclesiasticism.

Under our "Provisional Plan of Organization" and pending the outcome of legal actions, in which we are defendants, we have no presiding elders, pastoral assignments are made in consultation with ministers and members, conference officials are simply servants of the church, and church properties are owned and controlled by local membership.
