The WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY EVENTS, CLUB AND CHURCH NEWS OF INTEREST..... TELEPHONE 74 OR 258

THE SCOUT OATH AND LAW

"On my honor I will do my best—
To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout law.
To help other people at all times.
To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

Century Club Meets With Mrs. Baker

The Century club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth N. Baker.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Jean Axtell, who read a paper on "Texas Today."

A. R. P. Missionary Group Holds February Meeting

The missionary society of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church met on Monday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. C. Bynum Betts conducted the Bible study. Mrs. E. B. Shaw had arranged a program on "Home and Foreign Missions." Several members gave articles from the mission book.

Mission Speaker At Presbyterian Church

The Rev. H. H. Muller, missionary to the Belgian Congo, Africa, will speak at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, February 11, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Muller will also show a moving picture, taken by experts, of the African mission. This picture has been described by those who have seen it as an outstanding picture of its kind.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting. A charge basket and a free will offering for missions will be taken.

High School Seniors Have Party At Club

On Friday evening a delightful party was given at Lakeside country club for members of the senior class of Clinton high school who had secured their caps and gowns for graduation for the class final.

Welcome Lounsbury served over a fire in the large indoor fireplace and served cocoa, hot rolls and drinks. Dancing, featuring the conga chain and square dances, was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Mrs. Hudgens Hostess To Ella Riddell Circle

Mrs. J. M. Hudgens was hostess on Monday afternoon to members of the Ella Riddell circle of Methodist memorial church.

Prayer was given by Mrs. Jennie Newkirk, the circle chairman. Mrs. W. M. Sloan conducted a devotional on "Hindrances to Prayer," after which a business session was held. Mrs. Newkirk discussed the topic, "Stewardship and World Missions."

At the conclusion of the program the hostess was assisted by her daughter, Laura Frances Hudgens, in serving a congealed salad course and hot tea.

Joint Hostesses For Sunday School Class

Mrs. Billy McMillan and Mrs. Roy Gaspe jointly entertained members of the "Fidelis" Sunday school class of Broad Street Methodist church, of which Mrs. J. B. Gentry, Jr., is teacher, on last Wednesday evening at the McMillan home.

Arrangements of red carnations were used in the living room and the bright berries combined with greens adorned the dining room. Sixteen members of the class enjoyed a series of bingo games in which the winners were presented attractive prizes. During the evening the hostesses served Russian tea, sandwiches and salted nuts.

Methodist Circles To Meet Monday

Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist church will meet Monday, February 9, at 3:30, as follows:

Circle No. 1—Mrs. J. R. Dailey, chairman; Mrs. Billy McMillan, hostess.

Circle No. 2—Mrs. G. W. Hollingsworth, chairman; Mrs. B. H. Henry, hostess.

Circle No. 3—Mrs. B. J. Pitts, chairman; Mrs. Julia Griffin hostess.

The Sara Glenn circle will meet at 7:30 in the evening with Mrs. Louie Thornley.

Baptist Circles To Meet Monday

Circles of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet Monday afternoon, February 9, at 3:30 as follows:

Circle No. 1—Mrs. Ben Baldwin with Mrs. W. B. Driggers.

Bostic with Mrs. Russell Cooper.

Franks with Mrs. S. B. Lotts.

Langston with Mrs. Minnie Timmons.

Patterson with Mrs. T. L. Cooper.

Miss Nelson Hostess To Y. W. A. Group

The February meeting of the Young Woman's Association of the First Baptist church was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Gladys Nelson with 11 members attending. Miss Mary Lou Creighton arranged a program on "The Test of Monday." The following articles were given: "Be Honest with Yourself." Miss Mary Lou Smith; "Get Set With Others," Miss Clara Poole; "Be Unlikely With God," Mrs. Ben Whitehurst. The program closed with prayer by Mrs. C. C. Brannon.

During the social hour the hostess served her guests sandwiches, cookies and punch.

Books-Tedder Rites Of Interest Here

Of interest to friends here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Emma Books, of Kingsport, to Joel Tedder, which was solemnized on January 11, 1943, in the parsonage of Rev. Mr. Duncan of Bristol, Tenn., the ring ceremony being used.

The bride is a graduate of Milligan college with blank accessories and a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mollie B. Books of this city and the late Charles F. Books. She is a graduate of the Ware Shoals high school, and is connected with the Kingsport Eastman corporation of Kingsport, Tenn.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Campbellsville, Kentucky, high school and is connected with the Tennessee Eastman corporation.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tedder left for a short wedding trip. They are now at 402 Dale street, Kingsport, Tenn., where they have taken an apartment.

Alexander-Todd Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paul Alexander of Laurens, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Walter Blakely Todd, of this city and Camp Gordon, Augusta, Ga. The wedding will take place in March.

Miss Alexander is a graduate of the Woman's college of Furman university, majoring in music, and has taught for two years in Batesburg-Leesville school.

Mr. Todd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed Todd, is a graduate of Presbyterian college, where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He was a member of Company D, 3rd Regiment, 1st Battalion, before going into army service. He holds the rank of first lieutenant.

Local Girl Married In Pickens Saturday

Mrs. Arthur Nathan Richardson of this city announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary Ellen, to Ernest J. Chapman, of Pickens, on Saturday, January 31, 1942.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. H. A. Newton in Pickens.

The bride, a native of Laurens, has made her home here for several years past, where she has many friends who will be interested in the announcement of her marriage. She is a graduate of Laurens high school and at the time of her marriage was a member of the nursing staff of St. Francis hospital in Greenville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chapman of Pickens and holds a position with the Poinsett Lumber company of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are at home at 409 Cedar Rock Street, Pickens.

Presbyterian Circles To Meet Monday

Circles of the First Presbyterian church will meet Monday, February 9, as follows:

No. 1, Mrs. Zee McLees, chairman; Mrs. Grady Chandler, hostess, at 7:30 Monday evening.

All other circles will meet at 4 o'clock in the afternoon as follows:

No. 2, Mrs. W. M. Walker, chairman; Mrs. J. C. Horner, hostess.

No. 3, Mrs. J. W. Copeland, chairman; Mrs. Esther Love, hostess.

No. 4, Mrs. Edward Henry, chairman; Mrs. Frank Sellers, hostess.

No. 5, Mrs. Frank Miller, chairman; Mrs. Grady Chandler, hostess.

No. 6, Mrs. Heath Copeland, chairman; Mrs. Carmel M. Spencer hostess.

No. 7, Mrs. Julia Griffin, chairman; Mrs. L. S. Hendrixon, hostess.

Circle Gives Shower For Mrs. Ansel Smith

Tuesday afternoon Misses Frances Leonard and Margaret Hazel, assisting hostesses, Mrs. Ansel Smith and Miss Leta McIntyre, entertained the Ruth Bryan Owen circle at the Lesh infirmary.

Mrs. Newkirk, the circle chairman, presided. "Christian Ambassadors" was the theme of the evening's program, with Mrs. Ansel Smith in charge. Others taking part were Mrs. Sara Jacobs, Misses Eleanor Powell, and Margaret Hazel. Mrs. Ansel Smith led the devotional.

Later a social hour was enjoyed and during this event Mrs. Smith received from Mrs. Smith, a second bride.

The dining room was attractively carried out in the selection of the St. Valentine motif. A two course was served. Afterwards the guests were given Valentines and the one given Mrs. Smith caused her to look in a certain room. There she found a collection of lovely gifts from the guests.

Joint Hostesses Honor Bride-elect With Party

Miss Mary Hartsell, whose marriage to J. D. McAfee, Jr., takes place Saturday in Johnston, was honored recently with a luncheon and matinee party at the State Training School with a social party.

The recreation room was prettily decked in a color scheme of soft yellow and white, and flowers were chrysanthemums in the colored shades. Bingo was enjoyed with the prize being presented in turn to the honor guest.

Later in the evening the hostesses served a plate lunch to the bride-elect who given as a remembrance of the occasion a lovely silver bowl.

Winthrop Daughters Meet With Mrs. Little

The local chapter of Winthrop Daughters met on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. John W. Little with several additional members serving as assistant hostesses.

A varied program of music was presented by the quartet of Broad Street Methodist choir, including Dr. John G. Barden, W. G. Cohen, John B. Gentry, Jr., and Fred Boukright. The group was accompanied by Miss Boyd Burdette who also rendered piano solos. Miss Ella Lynn McMillan, pianist, gave items of interest about Winthrop college, conducting in the nove manner of a "did you know" program.

During a social hour refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held in May, the date to be announced later.

Farrell-Ratteree Rites At Fort Bragg Thursday

In a wedding ceremony of quiet beauty Miss Frances Erminie Farrell and Lt. Milburn Kneece Ratteree were married Thursday, January 29, at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in the regimental chapel of the 39th Infantry at Fort Bragg, N. C.

The chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Zeter, officated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Ansel B. Godfrey of this city.

The groom was attended by Lt. J. C. Coleman of the 4th Infantry, Fort Bragg, as best man.

For her wedding the bride, a lovely brunette, wore a two-tone suit in harmonizing shades of green with dark green accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of white carnations.

The vows were spoken before the chapel altar which was effectively decorated with a silver cross many white lighted candles and white carnations interspersed with lacy fern.

Attending the rites were Colonel Schmidt, commanding officer of the 39th infantry, Mrs. Schmidt, Lt.-Col. Godfrey of this city, fellow officers and men of the 39th infantry.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Ratteree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley P. Farrell of Wilmerburg, Pa. She attended Wilson college in Chambersburg, Pa. She is a senior at Presbyterian college where she holds an outstanding record and is a popular member of the city's younger set.

Lt. Ratteree's native of Augusta, Ga., and attended Richmond Academy there. He is an alumnus of Presbyterian college, graduating in the class of 1941, and was a member of Blue Key, leadership fraternity. He holds the rank of second lieutenant and is stationed at Fort Bragg with the 39th infantry.

Hartsell-McKee Rites At Johnston

Johnston, Jan. 31.—A wedding of statewide interest to which much was characterized with great beauty and dignity was that of Miss Pauline Hartsell and James Duffie McKee which took place here in the Baptist church at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, January 31, and was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives of the two families.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Anna Maud Derrick, organist, and Bruce Hartsell, vocalist.

The ushers, George Christopher Young and Thomas Ramage, lighted the altar candles.

The officiating minister was the Rev. Paul Hartsell, church pastor and father of the bride.

Miss Caroline Hartsell, sister of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. The maid of honor was Miss Virginia Steadman of Inman and Westminster.

The bride was radiantly lovely as she entered on the arm of her brother, Harold Hartsell, who gave her in marriage. The bridegroom, with his best man, Charles Allen Sullivan, Jr., of Clinton, met the bride at the altar, where the ring ceremony was performed.

The bride's wedding gown was of glistening duchess satin fashioned on sweetheart lines. The full skirt formed a front panel and was shirred to the pointed bodice and extended into a full court train. The bridal veil fell full length from a dainty tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of exquisite white roses and valley lilies. Her only jewelry was a necklace of pearls worn by her mother at her wedding.

Mrs. Hartsell, mother of the bride, wore black crepe with a corsage of red carnations.

Mrs. McKee, mother of the groom, was attired in black crepe. Her flowers were a corsage of red roses.

The bride is the eldest daughter of the Rev. Mr. Hartsell and Mrs. Hartsell and is a lovely young woman, possessing a sweet disposition and friendliness of manner that endears her to many friends. After being graduated from high school in Brevard, N. C., she was graduated from Winthrop college with a B.A. degree. She was a member of the Alpha Psi Zeta, Psychology club, Social Service club, and Baptist Student Union council. For the past year she has taught at the State Training school in Clinton.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. D. McKee of Clinton, and the late J. D. McKee. He was graduated from Clinton high school and attended Erskine college.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride.

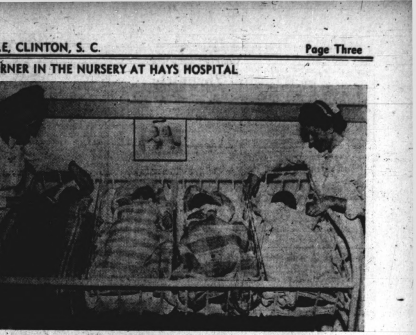
After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. McKee left for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside in Clinton, where the groom holds a position with Grey Funeral home.

For traveling, the bride donned a two-piece suit of palomina wool crepe with which she wore a contrasting top coat and matching accessories.

EASTERN STARS TO MEET

The local chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Friday night at 8:00 in the Masonic Temple.

A CORNER IN THE NURSERY AT HAYS HOSPITAL



Above is pictured an interesting scene at Hays Hospital made a few days ago, of four young Clintonians. Reading from left to right, the infants are: Jacob LeGrande Mayer, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. Mayer; Robert Dewitt Bailey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey; Kay Amelia Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas; Brenda Elaine Toney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Toney.

The attending nurses are Miss Celia Summer and Miss Anne Cole.

ENJOY BIZET'S IMMORTAL OPERA

CARMEN

Thursday, Feb. 12, 8:20 p.m.

Augusta Municipal Auditorium

MARTHA MATINEE 3 P. M. WEDNESDAY, FEB. 18

Cast Includes Nicolai Gedda, Opera and Radio Star; Dorothy Kirsten, Metropolitan Opera Star; Lucine Amara, Metropolitan Opera Star; Lucielle Browning, Metropolitan Opera Star; Lucielle Browning, Metropolitan Opera Star; Lucielle Browning