

The WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY EVENTS, CLUB AND CHURCH NEWS OF INTEREST..... TELEPHONE 74 OR 258

Century Club Meets With Mrs. McMillan

On Tuesday afternoon members of the Century club met at the home of Mrs. L. S. McMillan.

Mrs. H. E. Sturgeon, who was program leader, read a descriptive paper on "Gardens of The Gulf States."

Sunday School Classes Enjoy Picnic Outing

On Tuesday evening several young people's Sunday school classes of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic at Copeland's cabin.

About fifty of the college and high school young ladies and men gathered for a hay ride to the George A. Copeland place and cabin where a picnic supper was served.

Joint Hostesses Entertain Friends

Anne Pitts, Barbara Workman and Martha Dailey entertained about twenty-five of their classmates on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. James Pitts with a weiner roast.

Weiners were roasted over an open fire and served with hot rolls and picnic dainties. After supper a number of amusing games were enjoyed by the young folk.

Thornwell Auxiliary In Regular Meet

The Thornwell Memorial church Auxiliary met Sunday afternoon in the Nellie Scott library with the president, Miss Clyde Smith, presiding.

The devotional was given by Miss Leta McIntyre. A program on "Christian Education" was presented by Mrs. Jennie Newkirk and Miss Julia Potter.

Presbyterian Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The inspiration meeting, the first meeting of the new church year, of the First Presbyterian church Auxiliary was held on Monday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. L. S. McMillan presented three ministerial students, Robert Schwanebeck, Thomas Warren and Dick Johnson, of Presbyterian college, who gave an interesting program on the topic, "Christian Education."

Jones-Raynal Announcement

Dr. and Mrs. Dudley Jones announce the engagement of their daughter, Laetitia Hay, and Rev. Charles Edward Raynal, Jr., of Statesville, North Carolina, and Gloucester, Virginia. The wedding will take place on Saturday, April twenty-fifth, at the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Miss Jones is a graduate of Presbyterian college and for the past year has taught English in the Alben high school.

Mr. Raynal is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Raynal of Statesville. He is a graduate of Davidson college and Union Theological seminary of Richmond, Va. He served as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gloucester before recently receiving his commission as a chaplain in the navy.

Long Branch Club Holds April Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Long Branch Home Demonstration club was held at the school house Monday afternoon.

After the devotion and a business session Miss Jennie Coleman, county home demonstration agent, gave a helpful lecture on nutrition.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John Holtzclaw and Mrs. Sam Compton.

Local Church Women Attend Presbyterian

The forty-third annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of South Carolina Presbytery was held Tuesday at the First Presbyterian church of Abbeville.

The sessions were attended by the following ladies from the First Presbyterian and Thornwell Memorial churches: Mrs. John W. Little, Mrs. R. S. Owens, Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, Mrs. D. S. Templeton, Mrs. John Spratt, Mrs. J. A. Bailey, Mrs. George W. Taylor, Mrs. H. G. Chandler, Mrs. Zee McLees, Mrs. L. Ross Lynn and Miss Clyde Smith.

Christian Endeavor Presents Program

The Senior Christian Endeavor Society of Thornwell Memorial church, which is led by Miss Leta McIntyre, had charge of the program at a meeting of the group at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday evening.

The following inspiring program was rendered with the president, Frank DuBose, presiding:

"The Power of God"—Mr. DuBose.

"The Nazarene"—A picture slide was shown and explained by Shirley Grube.

Poem, "The Nazarene"—Myde Rogers.

"The Pictured Christ"—Devotional message, Fred Harp.

"O God of Love," "Now The Day Is Over," and "Benediction"—The Thornwell quartet.

"My Prayer"—Solo, Richard de-Montmolin.

Baptist Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The Woman's Missionary society Auxiliary of the First Baptist church met on Monday afternoon at the church.

During a business session plans were made to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the organization with a picnic at the church and a special collection for Camp Rawls.

The Langston circle, headed by Mrs. Frank Fowler, had charge of a program on "Think On These Things, Whatsoever Things Are Pure," with the following parts given:

Devotion—Mrs. George Speake.

Introduction—Mrs. Fowler.

"Whatsoever Things Are Pure"—Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey.

"Perils of Purity"—Rev. W. N. Long.

"Promoting Purity in Military Camps"—Mrs. Frank Cleveland.

Prayer—Mrs. Alex Henry.

Mrs. Whitten Hostess To Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. O. Whitten, with Mrs. Carroll D. Nance, Mrs. D. W. Mason, Mrs. H. L. Eichelberger and Mrs. R. C. Adair as assistant hostesses.

During a business session the group voted to make a contribution to the Woodrow Wilson home fund. A nominating committee composed of Mrs. E. M. Timmerman, chairman, Mrs. Sidney Rumph and Mrs. P. B. Adair, was appointed to nominate officers for the coming year.

A playlet, "Mistress Mary's Garden," was given by a group of sixth and seventh grade girls. Mrs. Clyde S. Lankford read an interesting paper on "Inside Latin America," and Miss Sybil Burdette played two Latin American musical composition, explaining their origin.

At the conclusion of the program the hostesses served ice cream and cookies.

University Group Talk At School

On Tuesday morning four students from the University of South Carolina, Columbia, accompanied by Miss Lora Gaines, assistant dean of women and head of student activities, spoke to the seniors at Clinton high school.

Included in the group and presiding was Miss Frances Simpson of this city, who told of the defense courses offered at the university and the credits given for engaging in defense work. Other students were Miss Marie Montague of Sumter, Bill Blake of Darlington, and Tommy Ingram of Cheraw, one of the four

OBSERVE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hamp Holland celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, April 14, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. P. M. Pitts of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland were married on April 14, 1892, at the old Henry Home near here. The officiating minister was Rev. W. A. Betts, now a resident of Bamberg.

Mrs. Holland before marriage was Miss Mattie Henry, daughter of B. M. Henry and Addie Blakely Henry. Mr. Holland's parents were Bluford R. and Margaret Adair Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland are highly regarded citizens of the Long Branch community. They have a host of friends who unite in wishing for them many happy returns.

blind students at the school.

At one o'clock Miss Simpson's mother, Mrs. W. H. Simpson, entertained the group with a buffet luncheon at her home. Mrs. James Sloan assisted the hostess in entertaining and serving.

Methodist Society Holds April Meeting

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist church met on Monday afternoon at the church.

A devotional on "Our Highest Joy Our Father's Work To Do" was given by Mrs. J. W. Coleman.

During a business session plans were made for a Mother's Day observance May 11, especially honoring mothers and older members of the society. A group of local women will attend the district meeting in Ninety-Six today and an invitation will be extended to the men to hold their district conference next year at Broad Street church.

Mrs. J. H. Kohler and Mrs. Sidney Rumph gave a report of the annual conference which met in Greenville in March, emphasizing that $8,000,000 had been used for worthy purposes by the United Methodist women.

Miss Jane Crawford Bride of Sgt. Breitingner

An event of wide social interest was the wedding of Miss Delilah Jane Crawford and Sergeant Carl Edward Breitingner of Fort Jackson, which took place at six o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Goldville Baptist church, with Rev. James Mitchell, pastor, officiating in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Baskets of bridal wreath, white gladioli with fern and white lighted candles in tall candelabra formed an effective setting for the wedding party. Miss Annette Moorhead, cousin of the bride, violinist, gave "The Rosary," "Evening Star" and "Trauerlied," accompanied at the piano by Miss Bobby Jean Carr. Miss Moorhead wore pink net with a corsage of pink carnations and delphinium, and Miss Carr wore pink chiffon with an identical corsage. A. B. Galloway, Jr., sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and Miss Jimmie White sang "I Love You Truly." Miss White was attired in peach chiffon and her flowers were sweetpeas. Miss Carr played the traditional wedding marches as processional and recessional. During the ceremony Schubert's "Serenade" was softly given.

The usher-groomsman were Jack Tapp, Everett A. McNeill, Herbert A. Papendick and Stuart S. Fletcher of Fort Jackson.

Mrs. Jack H. Vaughn, matron-of-honor, wore a blue chiffon dress with fitted waist and full skirt and carried a bouquet of purple and white snapdragons.

Miss Margie Crawford, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress of blue sheer was princess style with lace trim. She carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons and blue delphinium.

Little Margaret Anne Bolick, flower girl, wore a drop shoulder dress of rose lace and carried a nosegay of sweetpeas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Thomas Sharp Crawford, was lovely in her wedding gown of white lace, princess style with long sleeves ending in a point over the wrists. Her full length veil of embroidered lace was caught to her head with a coronet of orange blossoms. Much sentiment was attached to the imported wedding veil since it was purchased in Brussels and used by a cousin, Mrs. Julian Bolick, of Georgetown, for her own from the bridal bouquet. Her accessories were in navy.

Mrs. Breitingner is the daughter of Mrs. Belle Moorhead Crawford of Goldville, and a graduate of Clinton high school. For several years she has held the position of librarian at Joanna club home, Goldville, where she is a popular member of the younger set.

Mr. Breitingner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Breitingner of Merchantville, N. J. He holds the rank of staff sergeant at Fort Jackson, where he is now stationed.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. C. C. Vaughn, Florence; Walter F. Vaughn, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Frank Vaughn, Greenville; Mrs. Eloise Howie, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lancaster and son, Mrs. Grover Vanderford, and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vanderford, Union; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vaughn, Miss Martha Irene Vaughn, Mrs. Herbert A. Papendick and Mrs. Stuart S. Fletcher, Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Howie and Miss Jerry Howie, Greenwood; Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Martin and daughter, Miss Grace Martin, Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Bolick, and Mrs. Etelle B. Dill, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Harold O'Dell, Union; Mrs. Frederick E. Joh, New York.

William P. Anderson, III Weds Miss Kline

Miss Betty Jane Kline of Bethesda, Md., became the bride of William Pinckney Anderson, third, of Greenville, in rites Saturday, April 18. The vows were said in Pilgrim Presbyterian church, Washington, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, with Dr. Andrew R. Bird officiating.

At the front of the church banked palms and sybantium ferns formed a background for quantities of white gladioli, snapdragon and stock. Placed among the greenery were branched candelabra holding lighted white tapers.

Warren Johnson at the organ presented a recital of music as the guests assembled. Mrs. William Dinning sang "Because" and "I Love You." Mr. Johnson played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as processional and recessional.

Miss Reid Anderson, Greenville, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Helen Heck of Reading, Pa., and Miss Blanche Hyde of Washington. They

(Continued on page seven)

W.C.T.U. TO MEET

The Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 with Mrs. T. J. Blalock.

SAY, "I SAW IT IN THE CHRONICLE" THANK YOU.

MOORE'S

I-2 PRICE SALE!

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY

— on —

Coats and Spring Dresses

No Approvals, No Charges, All Sales Cash and Final.

SPECIAL

PURE SILK HOSE, regular $1.65 $1.49

Moore's Dress Shoppe

Clinton, S. C. Phone 168

FOUNDER'S FEATURE

"40 YEARS AGO,"

women's dresses were much more elaborately constructed and trimmed than the ones of today!"

NOW... Our Charming GLEN ROW DRESSES

2.98

Dressy, casual and sport types. Novelty styles, new... including rags, ruffles, crests, ruffles and skirts.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

WEDDING STATIONERY

Invitations ♦ Announcements

Reception Cards ♦ Informals

Visiting Cards ♦ Note Paper

Whatever you need in Engraved Stationery we are prepared to serve you. It would be a pleasure indeed to take care of your requirements.

Samples gladly furnished. Booklet on Wedding Customs with etiquette of the wedding, presented free with each order.

Chronicle Publishing Co.

PUBLISHERS — PRINTERS — STATIONERS