Picnic Enjoyed By Sunday School

On last Wednesday afternoon the Sunday school of Broad Street Methodist church enjoyed a picnic at Horse Shoe falls, near here. Parents and children attended and a generous picnic supper was served.

Church Circle Meets With Mrs. Johnson

The Franks circle of the First Baptist church met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Clark Johnson.

Mrs. S. B. Loftis led the devotional and the hostess was in charge of the program.

After the meeting, light refreshments were served.

Miss Marion Smith Entertains Friends

On Friday evening Miss Marion Smith entertained a number of friends at her home near here. During the evening dancing was enjoyed. Later, lemonade, sandwiches and cookies were served the following guests who enjoyed the occasion: Misses Dorothy Stutts, Elizabeth Patton, Ann Whitman, Mildred Holland and Helen Smith, Messrs. Ed Watkins, Toon Britt, Bill Burley, Marco McGooogan and Buddy McLaughlin.

Methodist Women Hold Meeting

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the church.

The circles met separately, then together for the Auxiliary meeting. Mrs. J. V. Edwards presided and Mrs. John D. Yarbrough gave the devotional and used as a theme, "Time of Preparation." Mrs. W. G. Coker gave a talk on the suggestions of the different committees and Mrs. Sidney Rumph spoke on "What Some Societies Are Doing."

In conclusion, Mrs. J. H. Kohler spoke on "Christian Stewardship." The closing prayer was made by Mrs. S. C. Dunlap and the group dismissed by Mrs. John G. Barden.

Howard-Holcomb Rites Solemnized

Miss Hazel Howard and Pvt. Gary Holcomb were quietly united in marriage on Saturday evening in Laurens by Probate Judge J. Hewlett Wasson.

The bride, an attractive brunette, was becomingly attired in a navy dress trimmed in white, with navy accessories.

Mrs. Howard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Howard of Campbell. She is a graduate of the Palmetto Beauty school in Spartanburg, and holds a position with Page's Beauty shoppe of this city.

Mr. Holcomb is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Holcomb of Union, and was formerly connected with Jacobs Press of this city. At present he is stationed at Camp Gordon, Augusta, Ga.

Clinton Boy Weds Indigna Girl

Simplicity and beauty marked the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Head, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Head, of Plymouth, Ind., and Captain Henry Arthur Copeland, of the 760th Tank Battalion at Fort Benning, Columbus, Ga., formerly of this city. The wedding took place at the First Presbyterian church in Auburn, Ala., on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Hey, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony in the presence of Colonel and Mrs. George M. Davis and members of the battalion and their wives.

The bride and groom had no attendants. She was beautiful wearing an ensemble of soft green with accessories. She wore a corsage of white gardenias.

Following the wedding Captain Copeland and his bride were met at a gate of Fort Benning and then made the traditional tank ride to the quarters of Colonel and Mrs. Davis.

Later in the evening Colonel and Mrs. Davis honored them at a battalion dinner in the ladies' lounge of the Officers' club. The long tables were decorated with low crystal bowls holding artistic arrangements of pastel gladioli. White tapers burned in low crystal holders.

Mrs. Davis received her guests wearing white pique and Mrs. Copeland wore flowered jersey with a gardenia corsage.

During the evening Captain Copeland and his bride left for a wedding trip and upon their return will make their home in Wynnton, near Columbus.

Captain Copeland is a native of this city, a son of the late H. Arthur Copeland and Mrs. Rose Moore Copeland. He is a graduate of Presbyterian college and was engaged in business here before he entered army service more than a year ago.

Copeland-Gilland Wedding In Columbia Of Interest Here

A lovely nuptial event of interest to Clinton friends and relatives occurred in Columbia last Wednesday evening when Miss Sarah Linda Copeland and Lieut. Louis William Gilland of Columbia and Camp Perry, Ohio, were united in marriage. The wedding took place in the Shandon Presbyterian church with the pastor, Rev. F. Ray Riddle, D.D., officiating in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

Palms, white gladioli and oleanders, and white lighted candles effectively decorated the church for the occasion.

David Parker, organist, and Miss Frances Riddle, vocalist, furnished the wedding music.

The ushers were "Shack" McCrady, Bobby Goggans, cousin of the bride, and Dan Henderson, all of Columbia, and William ("Coke") Lawrence of Camden.

Miss Eva Gary Copeland, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Marion W. Beacham the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lou Gilland, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Sarah Linda Goggans of Newberry, cousin of the bride. They all wore petal-pink organdy dresses with wide pink lace trim and very full tiered skirts, and picture hats to match. The maid of honor and matron of honor carried cascade bouquets of lavender asters showered with lavender ribbons, and the bridesmaids' flowers were asters in the shades of pink and lavender showered with pink ribbon.

The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father, John C. Copeland, was exquisite in her wedding gown of white duchess satin fashioned with long bodice, sweetheart neckline-shirring at the waist and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full graceful skirt extended into a lengthy train at the back. Her veil was of orange blossoms and bridal illusion, and her bouquet was white gladioli bells centered with an orchid. The bride wore a beautiful pearl brooch, which was a wedding gift to the bridegroom's maternal grandmother, the late, Jane Ann Adger Smyth Flinn, and which has been worn by all the brides in the bridegroom's family for the past three generations.

W. Flinn Gilland, brother of the bridegroom was the best man.

Mrs. J. C. Copeland, mother of the bride, wore sea-foam green marquisette and a corsage of orchids.

After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip and when they return will make their home at Camp Perry, Ohio. For traveling the bride wore a powder-blue suit with navy accessories.

Mrs. Gilland is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calhoun Copeland of Columbia, her mother being the former Eva Gary Goggans of Newberry. The bride's maternal grandmother was Sarah Linda Gary of Newberry, whose family, since before the Revolution, has been prominent in South Carolina. The bride's father comes from one of the old Scotch-Irish Presbyterian families of Clinton. Mrs. Gilland attended Converse college and was graduated from the University of South Carolina this spring. At the university she was president of Kappa Delta sorority, and a member of Damas and Non de Script, Alpha Kappa Gamma, honorary leadership sorority, and the Y cabinet. During her senior year she was in the beauty section of Garnet and Black, college annual. The bride was a member of the Spinster club and was recently elected president of Kappa Delta Alumnae association.

Lieutenant Gilland is the son of Mrs. Louis William Gilland (Nell Flinn) of Columbia and the late Mr. Gilland. He was graduated from the University of South Carolina where he was prominent in student activities. He is now stationed at Camp Perry, Ohio.

That Extra Something!

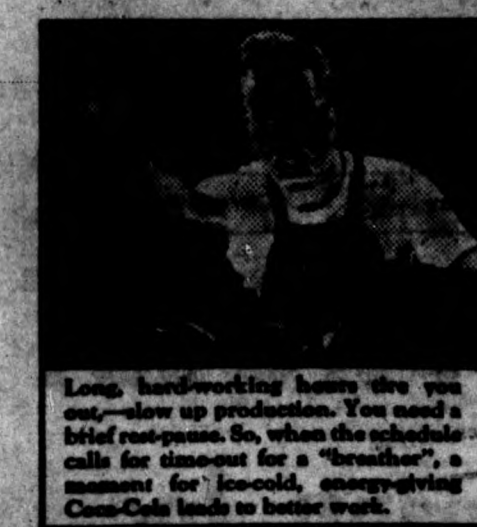

...You can spot it every time

SKILLED workers have "know-how". So have the makers of Coca-Cola. Coca-Cola has that extra something. Almost anybody can make a soft drink, but nobody else can make Coca-Cola.

There's a finished art in its making which gives Coca-Cola a special quality... its unique taste comes from a blend of pure, wholesome essences — refreshment that can't be copied.

No other drink gives this special plus... this unique taste and after-sense of refreshment.

Wartime limits the supply of Coca-Cola. Those times when you cannot get it, remember Coca-Cola, being fast choice, is the first to go. Ask for it each time. No matter how short the supply, the quality of Coca-Cola will not be changed in any respect.
