

MAYBANK AND JOHNSTON ARE ELECTED

Martin, Milam, Sullivan To House; Monroe, Culbertson, Anderson and Power Win

VOTE INCOMPLETE SENATE RACE IS CLOSE CONTEST;

On the basis of unofficial, incomplete returns yesterday afternoon, Senator Burnet R. Maybank won over his opponent, Eugene S. Blease, in Tuesday's primary by a lead of approximately 4,000 votes. A bulletin gave the vote:

Maybank 102,286
Blease 97,820

The same report indicated that former governor Olin D. Johnson had a lead of approximately 11,000 votes over his opponent, Wyndham M. Manning. The count stood:

Johnson 100,878
Manning 89,060

Lieutenant Governor
For lieutenant governor, a second race between Senator George K. Laney of Chesterfield, and Ransome J. Williams of Mullins, was indicated.

Comptroller General
A second race was also indicated for comptroller general.

E. C. Rhodes, deputy comptroller for many years, headed the ticket with 34,225 votes on the returns from 930 precincts. D. A. Smith, of Columbia, was second with 30,629. Quince E. Britt of Rock Hill, had 17,877, and Lott Lawson of Columbia, 18,277.

Congressional Races
The vote in the congressional races (incomplete) was:

Third: Representative Butler B. Hare, 16,126, former Representative John C. Taylor of Anderson, 9,133.

Fifth: Representative J. P. Richards, 7,075, and Grover F. Patton of Winnsboro, 2,975.

Sixth: Representative John L. McMillan, 14,244; C. T. McDonald, Florence, 5,303; Fred W. Willis, Florence, 1,259.

Other representatives and state officers had no opposition and, therefore were renominated automatically.

YEGGMEN ENTER GOLDVILLE P. O.

Up to yesterday no clue had been established as to the identity of yeggmens who blew open the safe at the Goldville post office early last Thursday morning.

The robbers escaped with $330 in cash, $106 in stamps and government bonds and papers. The robbery was discovered early Thursday morning by Mrs. R. G. Carr, the postmistress, when she opened the office, entrance to the building being made through a back door. The robbers carried away the loot in a leather mail pouch.

Sheriff C. W. Wier and Postal Inspector Garland McGregor of Greenville, were immediately notified and an investigation begun which has failed thus far to reveal any identity as to the thieves.

30 More Negroes Called For Army

The local draft board sent 30 Negroes yesterday to Fort Jackson for examinations and possible induction into the army under the selective service system.

The board has received an additional call for 30 Negroes for September 26, and it was stated at the office yesterday that the list is not yet ready to be released.

Summer Holidays Ended Yesterday

The summer half holiday on Wednesday by local merchants and business firms came to a close yesterday.

The closing observance has been in effect for the months of May, June, July and August, following a custom of the past several years.

The teaching staff appeared in The Chronicle last week.

RUN-OVER RACES FOR SUPERVISOR AND GAME WARDEN

Second Races Between
Stoddard and Teague,
Cannon and Moore.
Light Vote Cast.

Unofficial returns gathered by The Chronicle in Tuesday's primary from 40 boxes, revealed two run-over races to be decided on September 8. Efforts to secure the missing Brewerton box were unsuccessful when the paper went to press.

Supervisor

In the contest for supervisor, Lander B. Stoddard and R. L. Teague, incumbent will enter the second race. Stoddard headed the ticket with 2,258 votes, Teague was second with 1,898, Blakely third with 1,095, and Wharton fourth with 896 votes.

Monroe Re-elected

The closest race in the county was that of treasurer, T. Lane Monroe, incumbent, being opposed by Sam L. Leaman. Mr. Monroe was re-elected by a margin of 122, the count standing: Monroe 3,151, Leaman 3,029. The count did not include the missing Brewerton box.

Game Warden

M. A. Cannon, incumbent, stood head in this race, followed by Moore in second place, the vote being: Cannon 1,707, Moore 1,916, Burts third with 1,442, and Jacks fourth with 1,126 votes.

House Delegation Elected

In the house race, Milam, Martin and Sullivan were elected on the first ballot, with Brooks trailing as fourth man. The vote stood: Brooks 3,635, Martin 4,968, Milam 5,021, Sullivan 4,410. To Representative Milam went the distinction of polling the largest vote in the county in any race.

Miss Culbertson Wins

Miss Jennie V. Culbertson, making her debut in politics in the auditor's race, won by a decisive margin over her opponent, Robert C. Wasson. The vote stood: Culbertson 4,500, Wasson 1,632.

Without Opposition

J. Hewlette Wasson, judge of probate and J. Leroy Burns, superintendent of education, were re-elected for four-year terms without opposition.

County Commissioner

Commissioners E. Frank Anderson and J. Herman Power were re-elected in this race with Anderson heading the ticket. The vote stood: Anderson 4,438, Guthrie 3,580, Power 3,937.

Absentee Votes

The total includes about 200 absentee votes tabulated by a special committee appointed from the county executive committee.

Light Vote Cast

A light vote was cast in the county, a total of 6,180 from an enrollment of 10,996.

Mrs. Johnson Resigns Position At College

Mrs. Melda Von Hollen Johnson, acting librarian at Presbyterian college for the past year and a half, has resigned effective September first to join her husband, First Lieut. Eugene Johnson of the U. S. army, stationed at Fort Jackson, Columbia.

Mrs. Johnson has held the position since the librarian, Capt. Willard L. Jones, entered the armed services in the early part of 1940 as an officer of the local National Guard unit.

As already announced, James Isaac Copeland will become acting librarian at the college succeeding Mrs. Johnson. He recently resigned the position of librarian at Furman university which he has held the past six years, and will enter upon his new work here September first.

Mountville School To Open August 31

The Mountville high school will begin its 1942-43 session on Monday, August 31, at 9 a.m.

Teachers for the new session include the following: Mrs. J. S. Winebrenner, Mountville; Miss Mary Boyd, Mountville; Miss Louise Babb, Gray Court; Mrs. C. D. Nance, Jr., Mountville; Miss Grace Nickles, Donalds; Miss Luella Allen, Goldville; Miss Irene Hawthorne, Donalds; E. M. Alewine, superintendent, Mountville. Mr. Alewine succeeds A. D. Abercrombie, resigned, to accept the principalship of the Clover high school.
