

AROUND THE TOWN

Incidents, Unusual and Ordinary, Gathered On Our Rounds.

CARROLL ERIC BARNES, of this city and Kings Mountain, N. C., was commissioned a second lieutenant in the army January 23 upon completion of the officer candidate course at the Infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga. Lt. Barnes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Barnes, is a graduate of Clinton high school and attended Presbyterian college. He is spending a few days leave with Mrs. Barnes, the former Miss Barbara Summit, daughter of Mrs. H. E. Summett and the late Mr. Summett, and their two little girls, Laura Marie and Sara Elizabeth, in Kings Mountain, N. C. Lt. Barnes will arrive here Sunday for a short visit with his parents before going to Camp Croft, where he will be an instructor.

EUGENE SLOAN, son of Mrs. E. B. Sloan, will be a member of the graduating class at Erskine college on Monday and will receive the bachelor of arts degree. Mr. Sloan has enlisted in the air corps and will report on Wednesday to Nashville, Tenn., for training. Mrs. Sloan's other two sons are also in service. James P. Sloan is attending a midshipman's school at Northwestern university, Chicago, and John Sloan is now completing an air corps training school in Nashville.

Friends of WILLIAM WADE will be interested to know he has completed a three months course at the air force officer candidate school at Miami Beach, Fla., and has received his commission as a second lieutenant. His duties will be to direct administrative and supply operation of the ground forces, relieving trained pilots for full-time flying duty. Lt. Wade, the son of Mrs. R. W. Wade and the late Mr. Wade, of this city, has been transferred to the replacement center, Salt Lake City, Utah.

MISS ELLA ADAIR, proprietor of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Shoppe, left Saturday for a ten days buying trip to New York. It has been her custom for many years to go for spring and fall buying and each time she brings back several interesting stories or accounts. At the end of one trip she told of an amusing conversation with a New Yorker. This particular man was also waiting for a train and asked her where she was from. When told, he asked "Does South Carolina produce any more like you?" "Yes," she replied, "I have six sisters and they are all larger than I."

ANDREW H. ELLIS, of this city, was one of seven Camp Bowie soldiers who received severe burns on their hands and faces last Tuesday when fluid used in cleaning a machine gun caught fire, it was reported. He was taken to the station hospital and will be out in 10 to 14 days.

MRS. A. H. CUMMINGS and children will leave at an early date to join Lt. Col. Cummings, who is stationed at Camp Roberts, Cal., for an indefinite stay. Col. Cummings has recently been made regimental commander of the 19th Infantry Training regiment. Since coming to Clinton, the Cummings have made many friends who regret that they will be away from the city for some time.

The local Girl Scout troop, under the leadership of Miss Irene Hipp, has undertaken the task of collecting old clothing for the Red Cross. The girls began this city work about a month ago and have already done a splendid job. They will continue their collection for some time and anyone having garments which they no longer need are asked to contact the Scouts, who will collect them for needy families.

Friends of LT. and MRS. F. B. PINSON and their small daughter, JULIANNE, will be interested to know that the former is being transferred to Fort Bragg, N. C. They have been in Paso Robles, Cal., since May. Mrs. Pinson is the former Miss Julia Bailey, daughter of Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey, and the late Dr. Bailey. They are expected arrive at Fort Bragg about the 30th and will probably be here for a short visit with relatives at an early date.

W. E. ADAIR, son of Mrs. Sallie Adair, of near Clinton, has been promoted to the rank of corporal. Cpl. Adair has been transferred from Camp Gordon, Augusta, Ga., to Camp Bowie, Texas. His friends and relatives here will be glad to learn of his promotion.

Birth Announcement

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Neilson announce the birth of a daughter, Jane Ellen, at Hays hospital, Saturday, January 23.

ERROR IN LYNN NAME

In a birth announcement in last week's paper it was stated that the young son of Rev. and Mrs. Matthew Lynn of Brownsville, Texas, born on January 11, had been named Roy Preston. This was an error, the son being named Ross Preston, the first name being that of his grandfather, Dr. L. Ross Lynn of this city.

MRS. STURGEON LOSES MOTHER

Friends of Mrs. H. E. Sturgeon will sympathize with her in the death of her mother, Mrs. E. C. Gilchrist, which occurred Saturday in Newton, Kansas.

FIVE-ACRE WINNER

E. M. DUNCAN

The South Carolina state five-acre cotton improvement contest, which has been conducted for 15 years by the Clemson College Extension service, brought forth in 1942 an all-time cotton production record. E. M. Duncan (above), farmer of the Six Mile community, Pickens county, produced 7,505 pounds of lint on five acres, winning first state prize of $750. The yield was 1,501 pounds, or three bales, of lint per acre. The variety was Coker 100 Wilt Resistant, which made a staple of 1 1/2-32 inches.

Business Women To Make Surgical Dressings

A night class for making surgical dressings for the local Red Cross will be held this evening from 7:30 until 9:30 at the Red Cross room in the city library building. Mrs. S. C. Hays is supervisor of the work and Mrs. Brewer Dixon will instruct the class to be composed of business women.

NEGROES SHOULD HEED WARNING

The heads of Negro homes will be warned of the possible food shortage which may stare us in the face next winter like a wild beast of the forest. In all probability, the nation will see the worst food shortage since the days of Captain John Smith who preached the gospel, "Ye who do not work shall not eat."

We realize it is hard for one to imagine that such a day may come in a land of plenty when we now can eat at will the amount desired and the choice wished. Lest we forget the army is increasing and their mouths must be filled. Producers number less than other years; population by birth is increasing; who will suffer? We are begging you to come out to Bell Street high school to hear the advice and comments of Mr. C. L. Vaughn, agricultural teacher at the Clinton high school; Mr. C. B. Cannon, Laurens County Farm Agent; Mr. J. E. Fagan, Assistant County Farm Agent; Mr. J. N. Moffitt, Supervisor of National Defense Projects under the Department of Agriculture for Greenville and Laurens counties; Miss Jennie Coleman, Home Demonstration agent, and Helen Walker, Home Economics teacher at Bell Street high school. Bell Street glee club under the direction of their instructor, Sara W. Morris, will render popular, religious and classical selections.

Pat H. Hobson, Supt., J. T. W. Mims, Principal
