Miss Mattie Lucille Sims Weds L. L. Copeland, Jr.

Of cordial interest to relatives and friends is the following announcement: Mrs. Thomas M. Sims, of Union, announces the marriage of her daughter Mattie Lucille, to Leisel Lawrence Copeland, Jr. of this city, on February 9.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. H. C. Ritter pastor of Central Methodist church, Newberry. The bride was smartly attired in a tailored two-piece suit of rust flannel, with hat and other accessories to match. Her corsage was of pink carnations and blue lily petals.

Mrs. Copeland is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mattie Thomas Sims and the late T. M. Sims, and a graduate of Union high school. She is a popular member of the younger set in her home town.

The groom is the only son of L. L. Copeland, Sr., and is a graduate of Clinton high school. The young couple are making their home here where the groom is engaged in business.

Leanna Young Gives Birthday Tea Party

Leanna Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leland Young, celebrated her fifth birthday February 3, by having several little playmates in for a tea party.

Games were enjoyed and later refreshments served. A prettily decorated birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream, and Valentine baskets of candies were also given the little folk. Those enjoying the party were Rose Moore Nettles, Virginia Payne, Margie Ann Mills, Lillian Hart and Maudie Young.

Mrs. Copeland Hostess To 'Friendly Dozen' Club

Mrs. A. M. Copeland beautifully entertained members of the "Friendly Dozen" club at her home Thursday afternoon.

Adorning the receiving rooms were bouquets of jonquils and snowdrops. Late in the afternoon guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. Centering the table prettily appointed with lace mats, was an arrangement of flowering quince and breath-of-spring in a low crystal bowl. Fruit cocktail, a salad and sweet course was served with coffee.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary met on Tuesday afternoon at the Red Cross sewing room where members had charge of the work for the afternoon.

At five o'clock the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. B. O. Whitten, for a business session. After the regular ritual, members voted to buy a flag for the quarantine center near Goldville. Reports of officers were given and it was reported that the organization now has sixty-two members. The president made a request for books and phonograph records to be collected for men in service.

Bill Roberts Celebrates Birthday

On Friday afternoon Bill Roberts, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Roberts, invited a number of school friends to his home for a party in observance of his seventh birthday.

A patriotic motif, using the traditional colors, red, white and blue, was carried out in the decorations which featured flags. A handsome birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream. Several friends assisted Mrs. Roberts in entertaining the little folk with novel games. Bill was remembered by the guests with attractive gifts.

Lt. Mildred Young Weds O. E. Stoudemire

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Young, of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lt. Mildred Young, A.N.C., to Oscar E. Stoudemire of Holly Hill. The rites were performed in the post chapel at Fort Dix, N. J., on January 14. Lt. Col. Leon M. Hall, post chaplain, officiated.

Mrs. Stoudemire is the only child of her parents. She graduated from Clinton high school, attended Presbyterian college and is a graduate of Columbia hospital school of nursing.
