Miss Frances Black
Bride of Angus Martin

In a ceremony characterized by beauty and simplicity taking place Sunday afternoon in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church Miss Frances Black of this city, became the bride of W. Angus Martin of Fountain Inn. The bride's pastor, Rev. J. K. Roberts, officiated.

The chapel was beautifully decorated for the rites with palms, gladioli, and snapdragons.

A lovely program of nuptial music was given preceding the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Edwards, of this city and Trenton, pianist, rendered an instrumental solo, "Because" (D'Harlot). Miss Frances Edwards, Winthrop college student, sang "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs Bond), and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" (R. M. Stults).

Mrs. Cecil B. Lawter, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and her only attendant. She wore pink-crepe with islet trim and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride entered the chapel on the arm of her father, G. A. Black, by whom she was given in marriage, to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March." The bride was becomingly attired in a navy crepe suit with navy accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. During the ceremony McDowell's "To A Wild Rose," was softly played. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as a recessional.

Immediately following the wedding the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Black, entertained with a reception at their home.

The bride, an attractive young woman of pleasing personality, is a graduate of Winthrop college. Since graduation she has taught in the Thornwell orphanage, Fountain Inn and Whitmire schools.

The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. McQ. Martin of Fountain Inn, attended the University of South Carolina. He is an agriculturist at Fountain Inn where they will make their home after a wedding trip.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Black of Columbia, Mrs. G. A. Black, Jr., of Greenville, J. J. Black of Jonesville, Miss Dorothy Edwards of Trenton, Miss Frances Ruth Edwards of Winthrop college, Mr. and A. McQ. Martin, Miss Helen Martin, Miss Lily Harrison of Fountain Inn, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Martin, Harrison Martin, Jr., Miss Betty Martin of Hartsville, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lynch, and Raymond Lynch, Jr., of Easley.

In Memoriam

MRS. L. D. MCCRARY

This, the last meeting of our church year, is very fittingly set aside for memorials of our departed ones. It is my privilege to write something of the esteem of our loved member and co-worker, Mrs. Janie Little McCrary, wife of Lloyd D. McCrary, born January 26, 1882, and died November 3, 1942.

To my mind, she was one of the loveliest Christian spirits I ever knew. She was kind and true and always had a cheery word and smile. She was never too busy to help her church or a friend who called on her. As a mother, wife, and daughter-in-law, she could not be excelled and seldom equalled. She led a very busy life, but never too busy to give of her time and money for her church.

"Father, whate'er of earthly bliss Thy sov'reign will denies Accepted at Thy throne of grace Let this petition rise.

Give me a calm, a thankful heart, From every murmur free; The blessings of Thy grace impart And let me live to Thee.

Let the sweet hope that Thou art mine, My path of life attend, Thy presence through my journey shine And crown my journey's end."

This lovely hymn is a description of her life, for this is just what she asked of her Father and I believe the crown is hers.

12,000 MEN TO
BE CALLED DAILY
FOR ARMED SERVICE

Washington, Feb. 13.—With cold, hard figures, the top manpower officials told the American people tonight that 12,000 men a day must go into the armed forces this year and that no man 18 to 38 can be deferred, regardless of dependents, unless his work is essential and he is irreplaceable.

Paul V. McNutt chairman of the War Manpower commission, and Major General Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, disclosed the actual rate of inductions in outlining the draft outlook in a joint broadcast over the Blue network. Heretofore, this rate has been a closely-guarded secret but in the telling there was no comfort for the Axis.

Emphasizing the tremendous size of this mobilization, McNutt said: "In a week's time, we are putting into uniform seven full divisions; in a month, 28 divisions. This year alone, the number of men inducted will approach in size the entire American army in the first World war." In depicting the inductions in terms of divisions he referred to draftees for the navy, marine corps and coast guard as well as the army.

Hershey summed this up as meaning "the great majority of the physically fit, except the farmers, between 18 and 38 years of age must go into the armed forces this year. It is most important that those who have jobs in our war industries be left until they can be replaced in order to maintain production. . . . The majority of men this year must come from those with dependents."

Statistically, the picture presented by these and past pronouncements was this: A total of about 22,154,000 men 18 to 38 with 14,000,000 to 15,000,000 able to pass military physical requirements. About 2,500,000 deferred for vital farm work and other highly important war jobs. About 11,200,000 in the armed services by the end of this year.

"The need for men has now reached a place," Hershey declared, "where we must be sure that no registrant is deferred if he is engaged in work which can be suspended or which can be done by an over-aged man, one physically less fit, or by a woman."

McNutt said he was presenting the facts "clearly and frankly" because he believed the American people wanted the truth and they had shown "they can take it."

He acknowledged it would mean readjustments and hardships all down the line, shifts of workers to new jobs, further belt-tightening by the civilian population, and cessation of some businesses.

POINT RATIONING
MAY FORCE MANY STORES TO CLOSE

Washington, Feb. 14.—A warning that the forthcoming point rationing program may force tens of thousands of food stores out of business was coupled by the house committee on small business today with an attack on "bureaucratic buck-passing."

Without mentioning names, the committee said it had found "almost traitorous activities on the part of certain interests to protect their companies at the expense of the war effort."

The committee, which has been studying the war's impact on smaller business men, reported that "practically nothing has been done with regard to using small business more effectively in the production of essential civilian supplies."

Asserting it was concerned at the possible effect of point rationing on retail grocers, the committee expressed fear "the inauguration of any such system may prove to be the proverbial last straw and that the proprietors of tens of thousands of food stores may yield to despair and close their doors."
