

Brother Writes Brother

Eugene C. King, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. King of this city, is included in the group of volunteer reserve students at Presbyterian college called to report for army duty on April 27th.

Eugene received the following fine letter yesterday from his brother, Lt. William G. King, Jr., now stationed at Miami Beach, Fla., as a training officer for candidates in the army air corps.

Dear Gene:

Mother has informed me that you have received notice to report for duty April 27th. Too bad you couldn't have finished this school year out, but such is fate.

Gene, you're about to become a member of a great organization, an organization which isn't comparable with any other. You will represent the people of a great nation, a people of Christian belief and democratic ideas. You will be a member of the greatest army in the history of the world. So be proud to serve with your fellow countrymen for a common cause; that cause being peace and safety for our loved ones. Have courage and faith in God, respect your superiors whether commissioned or non-commissioned officers, and always do your job to the best of your ability. Your duties will be hard and your hours will be long, but always remember that there is a reason behind every order. So carry them out with a smile on your face, remembering that this war can't last forever and soon we'll all be back home with our loved ones; to live, speak and worship God as we want to.

Now that our country is involved in such a conflict be proud that you can serve, be proud that you are physically fit to serve your country in such a great cause that you're also mentally fit to serve in any capacity in which you may be placed. Remember that our enemies are smart and very powerful, therefore avoid making any mistakes.

Buddy, you're leaving the 27th, just as I left two years ago. You'll have good days and bad ones, but never let it get you down. Keep your chin up, always knowing that soon we'll have the Axis and those sneaking Japs licked down to the last man. You may find yourself near home or stationed in any part of the United States and it's quite possible that you'll serve on foreign soil. No matter where it is, always do your part and never fail. You're a man now, so grit your teeth and get in there and give this great army your best. When you get discouraged, as we all do at times, remember that you aren't by yourself, that millions of others are in the same boat. Never let anything lick you no matter how hard your task may be. Don't forget that we're sacrificing now so those who follow may live in a free land.

So, Gene, let me welcome you into our great army and may God be with you wherever you may go. Remember faith, courage and honor makes our army what it is.

Sorry I won't be able to see you before you leave, but I'll be with you in thought wherever you may go. Write me as soon as you get your assignment letting me know where you are. I may get to see you on my honeymoon. I regret that you won't be able to be in my wedding and know Gloria will regret same for we have always counted on you being in it. But weddings and everything else are secondary now, for duty must always come first—remember that.

I must close now, for have some work that must be in soon. Hope that Daddy is still improving and will soon be well. Give my love to Sis and Mother. Let me hear from you soon.

Your Big Brother,
—BILL.

An Easter Thought

The Living Christ

"I am with you always."

Read Matthew 28:1-20

Early one Easter Sunday morning the great Congregational divine, the Rev. R. W. Dale, was preparing his Easter message. Suddenly the truth flashed upon him, Jesus Christ is living. He is in this room. He will be with me in church and with the congregation. It came to him with such startling force that it gave tremendous power to his message. It made him one of the greatest evangelical forces of the nineteenth century. It was Dr. Dale who said, "Jesus Christ came not so much to preach the gospel but that by His death and resurrection there might be a gospel to preach." This is the glorious message of Easter.

Lord, Thou dost turn the shadow of death into morning light. We bless Thee for the gospel which hath brought life and immortality to light. Evermore reveal Thy presence to us. Amen.

Tax Paying Time Expires May 1st

Notice is given in today's paper by County Treasurer T. Lane Monroe that tax books for 1942 will close on May first.

On this final date a 7 per cent penalty will be added to all unpaid taxes and a charge of $2.00 levied on all unpaid receipts turned over to the delinquent tax collector for collection.

CALLED FOR ARMY DUTY

Lawrence Ferguson, student at North Carolina State college, Raleigh, was called Wednesday as a member of the Enlisted Reserve corps for army duty. He was inducted at Fort Jackson, Columbia. Lawrence is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ferguson of this city.

AROUND THE TOWN
Incidents, Unusual and Ordinary, Gathered On Our Rounds.

CHARLES A. SULLIVAN, technical corporal, left Tuesday for Camp Haan, Cal., after a few days visit with his parents. Cpl. Sullivan has completed army radio courses in Chicago and Camp Murphy, Fla., and visited here enroute to Camp Haan where he has been assigned. Upon arrival at his new post he will receive his rating as sergeant. His friends here will be glad to learn of his advancement since entering service.

At the annual state convention of the Young People's Christian union of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian churches in this state held in Greenville during the week-end MISS BETTY TRIBBLE was elected vice-president for the coming year. Miss Tribble, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tribble, is a member of the freshman class at Erskine college.

Friends of AVIATION CADET WILLIAM R. PITTS, JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Pitts, will be interested to know he has entered the army air forces technical school at Yale university, where he will undergo intensive training pointing toward his becoming a technical officer in communications with the rank of second lieutenant. After being commissioned, Cadet Pitts will command a crew of enlisted men who have been trained at other army air forces technical schools as specialists in radio communications. With his crew he will have charge of communications which play an important part in modern warfare.

The original "JOHNNY" of the Phillip Morris cigarette radio program paid Clinton a visit on Monday. Johnny, who was dressed in his regular bell-horn red jacket, is on an advertising tour with a salesman. While eating dinner at the Clinton Tea room a number of residents spoke to him and he obligingly gave the authentic "Call for Phillip Morris." There is some doubt as to Johnny's age, guesses ranging from 27 to 57, but all agree he is older than his size, that of about a twelve-year-old boy.

MRS. S. LEWIS BOND, the former Miss Ada Garrett, of Spartanburg, wife of Sgt. Bond of this city, has enlisted in the Woman's Army Auxiliary corps, and passed entrance examinations. She is spending some time in Spartanburg with relatives while waiting to be called.

MISS ROSA MAHAFFEY is the owner of two very old and interesting newspapers, important for their records of historical events. One is a copy of the New York Herald of April 15, 1865, the day after President Lincoln's assassination, and the other a copy of the Greenville Daily News, December 7, 1889, giving details of the death of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy. Both papers have heavy black column rules for mourning. An unusual bit of sentiment is attached to the relics, since they were handed down to Miss Mahaffey by her maternal grandfather, Thomas J. Wingo, of Spartanburg, who was a captain in the Confederate army.

John C. Dominick Is Laid To Rest

John Crayton Dominick, 56, died at his home on North Broad street late last Wednesday after a period of declining health covering several months.

The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. John's Lutheran church of which the deceased was a member. Interment followed at Rosemont cemetery with his pastor, Rev. LeGrande Mayer, in charge of the exercises at the church and grave. For the last rites a large concourse of friends from here and elsewhere assembled.

Mr. Dominick was a native of Newberry county, the son of the late James C. and Ellen Long Dominick. For the past ten years he had been a resident of this city during which time he was engaged in the grocery and produce business. He had made many friends here who will regret to learn of his passing.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lula Long Dominick; five daughters, Mrs. J. M. Holsonback, Mrs. J. W. Mills, Mrs. T. E. Caldwell, Mrs. J. Marvin McAbee and Mrs. V. C. Garner; a son, J. T. Dominick; two sisters, Mrs. J. D. Taylor and Mrs. H. N. Taylor; four brothers, E. W., I. G., F. L. and G. T. Dominick; and twelve grandchildren.

Piedmont Conference For Social Work

The Rev. A. C. Holler, of Laurens, director of the Piedmont Regional conference, has announced the 8th annual conference to be held Thursday, April 29, beginning at ten o'clock in the Anderson county court house. The program will emphasize services for the furthering of the war effort and the theme will be "The Impact of the War on Family Life." Speakers are qualified out-of-state leaders and South Carolinians. Luncheon will be served at the John C. Calhoun hotel and those attending are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Dexter Brown, chairman, 712 Boulevard, Anderson.

Red Cross Appeals For Knitters

The Clinton branch of the American Red Cross needs workers if all quotas are to be completed on time, Mrs. H. Earl Spencer, chairman of production, stated yesterday.

Quotas of knitted articles for the year beginning in September are still far from being filled. Following is a list of garments the local chapter has been asked to make, and the number of each completed to date.

178 v-neck sweaters for the army, 116 completed.

175 mufflers for the army, 101 completed.

100 pairs wristlets for the army, 34 pairs completed.

44 turtle-neck sweaters for the navy, 9 completed.

40 helmets for the navy, 18 completed.

50 watch caps for the navy, 2 completed.

Those in charge of production pointed out that knitting should continue through the summer, for if it is not done then the men in service will be cold next winter. This is a small way in which those at home can show their appreciation to the fighting forces. They are not failing in their task and those at home should not fail them, officers of the chapter state in making the appeal for workers.

Red Cross Needs Workers

If all women in the United States were like the majority of women in Clinton, there wouldn't be the slightest doubt as to who would lose this war.

It is a shameful fact that most of the women of this community have time to do anything they wish except give a little time and work to the Red Cross chapter that might prove the means of saving the life of a service man, or at least relieve his suffering.

This statement may be distasteful, but nevertheless, very true.

MRS. J. B. TOWNSEND,
Home Service Chairman,
Clinton Branch Red Cross.

Easter, 1943

Because Americans believe in the essential goodness in the world we live in and that the cause of Right shall triumph over the forces of evil, Easter, this year, carries a special significance to us all. Those of us who are not permitted to serve our country directly, none the less face a deep moral responsibility. We must do all that we humanly can, in every way that we can, to keep alive in our nation the consciousness that our faith and hope are more than justified in the ultimate Victory for which we strive. Among the greatest of the blessings which have been ours and the one which we must perpetuate, is the American Way of Life. With this thought in mind, we shall cheerfully meet every demand made upon us to help our country win the war and yet retain the unselfishness which springs from the knowledge that Right will prevail and the things for which we fought will be maintained throughout the world for the years to come.

May we cooperate with you in making this a more beautiful Easter for some loved one? Please come and see us or phone. We shall be happy indeed to serve you.
