

The WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY EVENTS, CLUB AND CHURCH NEWS OF INTEREST TELEPHONE 74 OR 258

Presbyterian Auxiliary Has Bible Study Day

On Tuesday members of the Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church met for a day of Bible study, with Rev. C. J. Matthews, of Newberry, teaching the Book of Acts.

At noon luncheon was served in the dining room of the church by the committee on social activities headed by Mrs. G. P. Copeland.

Mrs. Pitts Entertains Sunday School Group

On Thursday afternoon twenty children from the primary Sunday school department of Broad Street Methodist church were entertained with an egg hunt by the teacher, Mrs. C. D. Pitts.

The children gathered at "Shady Nook" park near the home of Mrs. P. M. Pitts and enjoyed games and hunted eggs. For refreshments, lemonade and cookies were served.

Methodist Society Sponsors Programs

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist church, under the leadership of Mrs. J. W. Coleman, secretary of Missionary Education and Bible Study, is sponsoring a series of programs for study and prayer for peace. The first meeting will be held Wednesday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock at the church. The public is invited to attend the services.

Emily Bailey Has Birthday Party

Emily Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Bailey, celebrated her fourth birthday with a pretty Easter party on Friday afternoon.

About thirty little friends were invited for the occasion and enjoyed a number of games, after which delightful refreshments were served. A color note of pink and green was attractively carried out in decorations. Easter baskets were given the little guests as favors.

Methodist Children Have Egg Hunt

The beginners department of the Methodist Sunday school was entertained on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. P. M. Pitts, counsellor.

Games were played and the little folk enjoyed hunting eggs. Later they were invited into the dining room where ice cream and cookies were served. The table was prettily decorated in the Easter motif with rabbits and eggs. Mrs. Pitts was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Davis R. Holland and Mrs. Frank Wilson. As a favor, each child was given an Easter egg bearing his or her name.

Eugene C. King Honored Before Entering Service

Eugene C. King, who left Tuesday to be inducted into the army at Fort Jackson, was honored on Thursday evening when his mother, Mrs. W. G. King, entertained a number of his friends at a spaghetti supper. After supper the guests attended a local movie.

On Friday evening Miss Dorothy Hudgens invited several members of the younger set for supper, with Mr. King as guest of honor.

Miss Juanita Franks was hostess at her home near Clinton on Monday evening for a delightful dinner party jointly honoring Mr. King and her brother, Charles Franks, who also left Tuesday for military service.

Musgrove Club Meets With Mrs. Anderson

The Musgrove Home Demonstration club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. F. Anderson, with the president, Mrs. T. J. Price, presiding.

An interesting and instructive program on "the grading of butter" was given.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Anderson, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Haselden and Mrs. Price, served delicious refreshments.

The following members attended the spring council meeting held at Gray Court-Owings school: Mrs. Price, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Haselden, Mrs. Roy Russ and Mrs. Jesse Reese. The members had the honor of bringing home with them the gavel, which each year is presented to the club having the largest number of members attending from the greatest distance.

Miss Blakely Entertains Providence Teachers

Miss Margaret Blakely was hostess on Tuesday evening to members of the Providence school faculty of which she is principal, for a delightfully informal supper party.

Adorning the rooms of the home were gladioli, snapdragons and other mixed garden flowers in artistic arrangements. A salad and sweet course was served. Miss Alma Whisonant of Goldville, was a special guest for the occasion.

Mrs. Finney, Recent Bride, Complimented With Party

Mrs. McMillan Finney, a recent bride, was complimented when Misses Dorothy Adair, Allene Copeland and Louise McCrary entertained recently with a dinner party in her honor at Hotel Clinton.

Places were laid for twenty-two with bright colored Easter eggs bearing names of the guests cleverly used as place cards. The place of the honor guest was marked with a lovely corsage, and centering the table was a beautiful arrangement of spring flowers in pastel shades, flanked by tall white tapers.

A feature of the party was a show of attractive gifts for Mrs. Finney. Mrs. L. L. Copeland, a bride of recent date, was also remembered by the hostesses with a gift.

Lovely Party Honors Spring Bride-Elect

Among lovely parties of the past week was the one given by Mrs. John W. Little honoring Miss Mary Howze Dillard, spring bride-elect.

Four tables were arranged for bridge in an attractive setting of pastel colored snapdragons and tulips. Miss Dillard's place was marked with a corsage of sweet peas. After several interesting progressions, score prizes were presented Mrs. J. J. Cornwall and Mrs. G. P. Copeland. The honor guest was also remembered with a beautiful gift. A salad and sweet course was served with iced tea.

Miss Nancy Owens, Miss Ella Little McCrary and Miss Lily Yarbrough assisted the hostess in the courtesies of entertaining.

Annual Banquet Given For Thornwell Seniors

The seniors of Thornwell high school were honored with their annual banquet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. Ross Lynn on last Friday evening.

The Dutch theme was carried out and the banquet tables were beautifully decorated with lighted candles and wooden shoes filled with bright-colored tulips. The banquet was served by members of the junior class who were attractively dressed in gay Dutch costumes.

Before the dinner the entire group sang "America." Dr. Lynn acted as toastmaster and B. S. Pinson, principal of the school, gave a toast to the class on their motto, "To live well, love much, and laugh often." Throughout the meal toasts were given by Clyde Brady, Florence Ginn and Joe Frank Price.

Dr. J. W. Frey, the guest speaker for the occasion, gave an interesting talk on the Dutch and played the piano selection, "In A Little Dutch Garden." The class song was rendered by members of the class and in closing the group sang "God Bless Our Soldier Boys."

Guests of the class were: Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Frey, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Pinson, Rev and Mrs. C. E. Piephoff, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris, Mrs. Phil Price, Mrs. A. M. Copeland, Mrs. Ansel Smith and Mrs. Varenna Betsill.

Methodist Society Pays Tribute To Young People

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist church was held on Monday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. W. H. Simpson, leader of the afternoon's program, paid a beautiful tribute to the young people of the church who, under the leadership of Mrs. Raymond Pitts, are doing a splendid work. She especially commended them for the impressive holy week service. Mrs. Dave W. Copeland, in leading the devotional, gave a scripture reading and an appropriate and timely tribute to the youth of the nation, reading a number of incidents from clippings showing that youth, particularly those in uniform, are deeply interested in spiritual things. Mrs. Julian Coleman rendered a solo, "This Is My Father's World." During the business session reports of officers and chairmen were given, showing increased interest in missions and local church activities. The society voted to continue circle meetings in the homes through the summer months and the membership was urged to continue Red Cross work. Plans are being made to entertain the cadets in training at Presbyterian college on Mother's day. The meeting was closed with prayer by the president, Mrs. J. V. Edwards.

Mrs. C. C. Giles Heads Eastern Star Chapter

At a meeting of the James B. Parrott chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic building on Friday evening, the following officers, previously elected and appointed, were installed for the year:

Mrs. C. C. Giles, worthy matron.
R. L. Plaxico, worthy patron.
Mrs. Selma B. Adair, associate matron.
L. E. Cason, associate patron.
Mrs. R. P. Chapman, secretary.
F. M. Boland, treasurer.
Mrs. Roy Benjamin, conductress.
Mrs. Grady Arnold, associate conductress.

Mrs. George R. Holland, marshal.
Mrs. Wallace Franks, chaplain.
Mrs. L. E. Cason, organist.
Mrs. John D. Davis, Adah.
Miss Elizabeth Copeland, Ruth.
Mrs. Dennis Sowers, Esther.
Mrs. J. P. Terry, Martha.
Mrs. J. Will Leake, Electa.
Mrs. R. A. Steer, warder.
Mrs. Clifton Adair, sentinel.
Mrs. Selma B. Adair was appointed to head the kitchen committee.

The installing officer was Mrs. J. H. Powell, of Waterloo, associate grand matron of South Carolina. Mrs. N. Richardson acted as grand marshal and Mrs. Cecil Blakely of Goldville, served as grand chaplain. Acting as grand organist was Mrs. E. G. Kay of Goldville.

Following the installation services, refreshments were served.

AROUND THE TOWN Incidents, Unusual and Ordinary, Gathered On Our Rounds.

FRANK E. MILLER, of this city, whose birthday falls on April 20, the same as Adolf Hitler, says that the first thing he heard on last Tuesday morning was not a very pleasant birthday greeting. As he turned the radio on, the announcer said, "This is the birthday of the most notorious liar in the world."

FRANK KELLERS, son of Frank Kellers, Sr., of this city, has been promoted to the rank of captain at Camp Crowder, Mo. Captain Kellers entered service more than a year ago as a second lieutenant. He is a graduate of Clemson, being one of the few graduates who finished with degrees in both mechanical and electrical engineering. Captain Kellers has many friends here who will be glad to hear of his promotion.

As a special Easter feature, The Spartanburg Herald-Journal in its Sunday edition carried a picture of thirty little boys and girls. Included in the group was attractive little JINNIE WALKER, one and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Walker, of this city.

Friends of THOMAS BALDWIN, of the army air corps, will be interested to know that upon completing a course at the gunnery school, Wendover Field, Utah, he has been promoted to the rank of sergeant and received his gunner's wings. Sgt. Baldwin has been sent to Ephrata, Wash., for further training. When this is completed he will be a turret gunner on a flying fortress. Thomas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Baldwin, writes home, "It will be a happy day in my life when I go into action."

Friends of MISS ETHEL WRIGHT, formerly of this city, daughter of Mrs. W. B. Wright, of Lanford, will be interested to know she has enlisted in the Woman's Army Auxiliary corps and left this week for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. Miss Wright is a sister of Mrs. W. O. Holland and Mrs. P. D. Chaney of this city.

Friends here of SGT. J. D. OWENS will be interested to know he will leave Camp Stewart, Hinesville, Ga., Friday for Starkville, Miss., where he will enter officer's candidate school at Mississippi State college. Upon successful completion of the course in traffic and transportation management, he will be commissioned and assigned to this work for the army. Sgt. and Mrs. Owens were guests several days last week of the former's sister, Mrs. Olin Sheely, Jr., and Mr. Sheely.

Several generous cadets in training at Presbyterian college gave money for eggs for an Easter egg hunt for children at the outpost Sunday schools of the First Presbyterian church. One of the cadets became interested in the event and he and his room-mates offered the contribution to buy the supplies for an Easter party. The Junior Christian Endeavor group entertained the children at the "baby" cottage of Thornwell orphanage with an egg hunt Saturday.

MARSHALL T. PACK, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pack of this city, a radio technician third class, graduated this week from a "refresher" course in radio technology at the naval armory at Great Lakes, Ill. He will immediately be assigned to a primary radio school for advanced instruction. The course just completed included instruction in mathematics, fundamentals of electricity and general naval procedure. Marshall eventually will be assigned to active duty at sea or a naval shore station.

Friends of EUGENE B. PINSON, JR., of this city will be glad to know of his advancement to corporal. Cpl. Pinson is stationed with the 172nd Infantry at Camp Roberts, Cal.

DR. J. K. ROBERTS has returned from Vass, N. C., where he delivered the commencement sermon on Sunday evening to members of the graduating class of the consolidated school there. Unusual interest centers in Dr. Roberts' invitation to address the class since his father, Dr. John K. Roberts of Carthage, N. C., started the first outpost Sunday school at Vass which later grew into a church. Mr. Roberts and sons accompanied him on the trip and they visited Dr. Roberts' mother in Carthage several days.

A former Clintonian, now a resident of Orlando, Fla., who saw the appeal of the local Red Cross sewing room for knitters in The Chronicle, has written Mrs. J. B. Townsend that since the Orlando chapter is ahead of its quota, she will be glad to help the Clinton branch and has offered to knit several sweaters. Wool is being mailed her this week.

BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES NOTED

The Chronicle Extends Greetings To Those Whose Birthdays and Anniversaries Occur This Week.

Delle Wilder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wilder, was one year old yesterday.

Pvt. and Mrs. I. D. Stone have a wedding anniversary today.

D. C. Heustess observes a birthday May 3.

Captain B. F. Wingard of this city and Camp Davis, N. C., has a birthday Sunday, May 2.

Mrs. F. M. Stutts will have a birthday Sunday.

Lt. and Mrs. George Cody have a wedding anniversary May 5.

Gerald Woodruff, son of Mr. and ENGRAVED Calling Cards for army and navy officers. An ideal, useful gift for father, husband, brother or friend. Ask to see samples. Chronicle Publishing Co. Phone 74.

INSURANCE

Fire - Tornado - Automobile - Surety Bonds - All Forms of Property Insurance.

SOUND PROTECTION AT LOWEST COST. REAL ESTATE

B. H. BOYD
Clinton, S. C.

Mrs. O. C. Woodruff, is two years old today.

Mell Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wilson, will be four years old May 4.

Jack Dockstader of Columbia, formerly of this city, was nine years old Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Rumph observed their 23rd wedding anniversary yesterday.

Mrs. J. K. Hatton celebrated a birthday April 27.

Barbara Sanford is nine years old today.

Birth Announcement

FREEMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Julian Freeman, of Atlanta, announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Bruce, April 25. Mr. Freeman is a son of M. M. Freeman, of this city.

MUSIC CLUB TO MEET
The Music club will meet Wednesday, May 5, at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. O. Rhame, Jr. This will be the final meeting of the current year.

Fur Coat Storage

Protect your coat and other furs from moths during the summer months. We are again collecting furs for storage with ARCTIC FUR CO., of Columbia. Your coat will be insured against fire and theft.

BRING IT TO

Chaney's Dress Shoppe

The Perfect Dessert or Food...

DIXIMAI DICE CREAM

(Trade Mark Registered)

Clinton residents are loyal, hard-working Americans all—and they all have sweet teeth.

DiximaiD Ice Cream is the local answer to the problem of providing tasty nourishing desserts that at the same time are wonderful time and money savers. It's a saving in every way—just open and place directly in the serving dishes.

Children, grown-ups, the entire family will be pleased to have DiximaiD Ice Cream for dessert or between meals.

Call For DiximaiD Ice Cream from your favorite dealer in Clinton and Goldville

GREENWOOD CREAMERY CO.

Special Post Cards

...for...

The Service Men

25 for 10c

Just what the son, brother, nephew or friend in the service needs and will appreciate. The Cards have place for a "Quick Note Home" on one side, and place for his address on other side. They make it easy for the loved one in the service to write a brief message home daily.

SEND HIM SEVERAL PACKAGES IF YOU WANT MORE MAIL.

POSTAGE-FREE FOR SERVICE MEN

Chronicle Publishing Company

Stationery Department

PAINTING and REPAIRING BICYCLES

SALES and SERVICE

L. L. COOPER

49 N. Adair St.

Phone 210-M