

Men Wanted To Join The Navy

It is announced by Chief P. L. Jones, who is in charge of navy recruiting in this district, that the following men from Clinton have recently enlisted in the navy: Charles William Harvey, 418 Main street, Lydia Mill; Carl Spurgeon Todd, 7 Parker street, Lydia Mills; Thomas Elliott Hall, P. O. Box 171.

Chief Jones states that a representative of the navy recruiting service will be at the post office here each Thursday for the purpose of interviewing and taking applications of men of 17 and 38 to 50 for the navy and naval reserve, and women between the ages of 20 and 36 for the WAVES and SPARS. He also states that men who are experienced in construction and wish to get in the Seabees must come in through voluntary enlistment and cannot get in this branch of service if they wait until called for induction.

DO YOU have a husband, son, brother or friend in the army, navy, air or marine corps? If so, send him a box of Military Stationery with the insignia of his branch of service. In gift boxes. $1.00. Chronicle Publishing Co. Phone 74.
