Miss Elizabeth Barnes Bride of Cpl. Matheson In Church Ceremony

At eight-thirty Friday evening, June 4, in St. John's Lutheran church, Miss Frances Elizabeth Barnes, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eric Barnes, became the bride of Corporal Kenneth Matheson of Cheraw, and the army air corps, Kansas City, Mo.

The rites were solemnized by the bride's pastor, the Rev. J. LeGrande Mayer, the impressive double ring ceremony being used.

The chancel of the church was decorated with dwarf palms and vases of white carnations and gladioli.

The candles were lighted by the bride's brother, Jack Kellers Barnes.

Mrs. C. H. Howard of Greenville, pianist, furnished the wedding music. Miss Nell Howard of Greenville, sang, "Because," and "If God Left Only You."

Miss Howard wore a dress of pink net over satin and her flowers were pink carnations.

The bride entered on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, John F. Matheson, of Mooresville, N. C.

The bride was lovely in her wedding dress of white duchess satin, having a sweetheart neckline, long waist, and three quarter sleeves. Her full length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

After the ceremony, Miss Howard sang, "O Perfect Love."

Mrs. Matheson is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes. Her mother was before marriage Maree Kohn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kohn of Prosperity. The bride is a graduate of Clinton high school and Presbyterian college, where she was on the Pac-Sac annual staff, member of the Alpha Psi Delta sorority, the Y Cabinet, girls' basketball team and an educational assistant. During the past summer she held a position at Shaw field, Sumter, and was a member of the Camden high school faculty for the session just closed.

Cpl. Matheson is the son of Mrs. Donald Stuart Matheson and the late Mr. Matheson of Cheraw. His mother is the former Esten Jennings of Lynchburg, Va. The groom was graduated from Cheraw high school and attended Clemson college and Presbyterian college where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is now stationed at Kansas City, Mo., with the United States army air corps.

Due to the recent death of the groom's father, only the immediate families were present. Those attending from out-of-town were Mrs. B. C. Bohannon of Charlotte, N. C., John F. Matheson of Mooresville, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Kohn Barnes of Greenville, and Edward Patterson of Camden.

Little-Willis Marriage In Greenwood Wednesday Of Interest Here

Miss Margaret Little became the bride of Emmett Glenn Willis of Aiken and Monetta at a beautiful ceremony which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Little, in Greenwood, June 2 at 5 o'clock. Dr. R. C. Long was the officiating minister. Only relatives and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom entered the living room together and took their places before a mirrored mantel where an improvised altar of palms, ferns and gladioli had been arranged.

The lovely bride wore a white marquisette dress trimmed with lace, and having a tight fitting bodice and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip veil was caught in her hair with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with gardenias and showered with white satin ribbon and tiny white flowers. Miss Elma Blake, friend of the bride, attended her during the ceremony.

The guests on arriving were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Little of this city. After the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at an informal reception. Receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Little, Mrs. Emmett Willis of Monetta, mother of the groom, and the bride and groom.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a triple-tiered wedding cake and white tapers in crystal candle holders. Gladioli were used throughout the living room.

Those assisting in entertaining were: Mrs. J. H. Donnan and Miss Ella Little McCrary of this city, Mrs. Sam Reynolds and Mrs. Walter Aull of Pendleton, and Mrs. Frank Dusenberry of Ninety-Six.

Friends serving in the dining room included Mrs. Louis Beaudrot, Mrs. Howard Mundy, Miss Vera Nickles, Miss "Bit" Willis of Monetta.

Miss Louise Fridy and Miss Marcee Taggart were in charge of the bride's book.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis left during the evening for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Aiken.

For traveling Mrs. Willis wore an original two-piece model in red, white and blue. Her hat was white felt and off-the-face. She wore other white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bride is a graduate of Lander college and has been teaching at Langley-Bath since finishing school. Mr. Willis received his education
