Bible School

Daily vacation Bible school is in progress at Goldville Baptist church this week, under the supervision of Rev. James Mitchell, pastor.

Sixty children have already enrolled, with an increase expected.

A special program will be given during the evening worship hour, Sunday, June 20, at 7:30 o'clock.

W. S. C. S. Honors Miss Dobbins

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Goldville Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Dobbins Tuesday, June 8. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Dobbins' daughter, June's, birthday. Miss Dobbins received a lovely gift from the society.

Rev. White led the devotional on faith and prayer. Mrs. Bryce Little led an interesting program on the "Rural Workers" of our churches, with Mrs. Cecil O'Dell and Mrs. Cecil Blakely taking part. A playlet was given by several members, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Jeff O'Dell. The program was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. John Ross, special mention being made of our boys in service.

The president presided over the business hour, after which Mrs. Dobbins and Mrs. Forrest Adair served ice cream and cake. Twenty-five members enjoyed the meeting.

Group Enjoys Picnic

The Youth Fellowship division of Epworth Methodist church and their guests went to Curry's lake Saturday evening for a picnic. This outing was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. "I SAW IT IN THE CHRONICLE." THANK YOU.

J. R. Hall and family, who have moved to Prosperity.

In recognition of her faithful service as counsellor of the organization, Mrs. Hall was presented a gift of crystal by Mrs. Ellen Gardner.

Misses Naomi, Viola, Sara Ruth and Jim Hall were members of the organization.

The social recreation committee is headed by Miss Mary Jo Fulmer and Bobby Boyce.

Candlelight Service

On Sunday evening at 7:45 the Youth Fellowship held a candlelight service in honor of the men in service who have gone out from Epworth church and Sunday school.

The choir loft was appropriately decorated with red, white and blue with Queen Anne's lace at each end and a white cross with lighted candles in the center. Between these were two flags on a red mount. Candles on the altar represented each soldier.

On the rostrum were Bob and Jim Hall in Boy Scout uniforms and Mrs. Homer Jacks dressed as a Red Cross nurse.

The music was under the direction of Mrs. H. G. Murrah, Jr. As the name of a soldier was called a member of the youth department lighted his candle and read a portion of a letter from him.

The program was as follows:

Prelude.

Hymn—The National Anthem.

Prayer—Roy Boyce.

Solo—J. T. Pack.

Offertory—Mrs. Murrah.

Letter from Pvt. Floyd Abrams to Rev. White, read by Miss Mary Brock.

Music, Medley of War Songs—by the youth choir.

Letter Written to Youth Fellowship from H. G. Murrah, Jr., read by Mrs. Ellen Gardner.

Hymn—"Battle Hymn of The Republics."

Taps.

Increase Urged In Milk Production

Clinton Production Credit Association Solidly Behind Drive of Dairy Industry.

Dairy products are among the most important items in the "food for freedom" program, according to Rex Lanford, secretary-treasurer of the Clinton Production Credit association.

At the beginning of the year, the nation had in prospect a production of 122 billion pounds of milk, Mr. Lanford stated. This was estimated to be 7 billion pounds short of the amount we should have to meet our civilian, military and lend-lease needs.

There has been some shifting of dairy herds because of the draft and labor shortage, and unfortunately in the process some dairy cows have gone to slaughter. The War Food administration has been urging farmers, particularly the small operators, to aid in the situation by increasing their milk production. The response has been good, but the world still needs more milk.

The nation's milk supply usually reaches its peak about the middle of June when cows are on full pasture. Farmers should recognize this situation and make plans to combat the usual slump which takes place as pastures dry up and as supplies of supplementary foods decline. Temporary pasture crops, to lengthen the grazing season, and an abundant supply of good hay and silage, will be invaluable to the war effort in holding the milk production in late summer and winter, according to Mr. Lanford.

The War Food administration and the Dairy Industry committee suggest the following 8-point program for dairymen to enable them to meet the war needs of nation:

(1) Provide abundant pastures. Grow temporary crops to lengthen the grazing season.

(2) Provide plenty of good hay—at least 400 to 500 pounds, depending upon the size of the cow.

(3) Provide abundant silage—at least 2½ tons per cow. Trench silos may be used where permanent silos are not available.

(4) Condition cows for freshening.

Eight weeks rest leads to greater milk production. Feed enough to have cows in good flesh at calving time.

(5) Feed good roughage liberally. It's a natural and cheap feed for cows.

(6) Feed balanced rations. Adjust grain ration to production and feed one pound to each 2 or 4 pounds of milk produced.

(7) Feed to avoid summer slump. Cows on dry, short, or tough pastures must be given extra feed, such as temporary pastures, hay, grain and silage.

(8) Raise calves with less milk and send more milk to market.

"The Clinton Production Credit association is solidly behind this drive to meet the milk requirements of the nation and is ready to back it up with the services of the entire organization," Mr. Lanford said.

That Extra Something!

...You can spot it every time

EVEN a general in Africa writes home how much he misses meeting the gang downtown to enjoy a Coca-Cola. Overseas, Coke is a refreshing remembrance of home. Men cherish its taste and refreshment. The newspapers have been full of such incidents.

These men, like yourself, have found in ice-cold Coca-Cola all the difference between something really refreshing and just something to drink. Yes, the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola, itself.

Word that "the Coke's in" packs any canteen these days. Every good soldier wants the drink that adds energy to refreshment.
