

RATIONING BOARD BULLETIN (OPA)

(Compiled to date for information of The Chronicle's readers.)

COFFEE—Stamp No. 24 in war ration book one for one pound of coffee will continue good through June 30.

FOODS—The blue stamps in war ration book two are used to ration processed foods—commercially canned, bottled and frozen fruits and vegetables, and including juices, all soups, dehydrated soup mixtures, dried fruits, dried beans and lentils. Dried peas are not rationed.

The only blue stamps now good for processed foods purchases are K, L, and M, which will continue good until midnight July 7. Stamps G, H, and J expired June 7.

RED STAMPS—The red stamps in war ration book two are used to ration meat, fats, oils, cheeses and canned fish. Poultry, game and fresh fish are not rationed.

Five red stamps which may be used during June for purchases of meats, fats, oils, etc., are:

Validity	Expiration
Date	Date
J..... May 23.....	June 30
K..... May 30.....	June 30
L..... June 6.....	June 30
M..... June 13.....	June 30
N..... June 20.....	June 30

GASOLINE—Coupon No. 5 in "A" book good for three gallons but must last through July 21—four months instead of two, as was formerly the case.

SHOES—Stamp 18 in war ration book one became valid June 16 for one pair of shoes and will be good through October 31. Some types of shoes are not rationed.

SUGAR—Stamp 13 in war ration book 1 good for five pounds of sugar, became valid June 1 and will be good until August 15. Stamps 15 and 16 in war ration book 1 also may be used to obtain sugar for canning. They are good for five pounds of sugar each and will remain valid until October 31. Persons needing more sugar for canning should apply to their local war price and rationing boards. The maximum allowed for canning is 25 pounds for one person.

TIRES—Owners of passenger cars and commercial vehicles using tires smaller than 7.50 by 20 may get their casings recapped with reclaimed rubber camelback without applying to their local war price and rationing boards for certificates. A driver with a mileage ration of more than 240 miles monthly is entitled, beginning May 1, to new Grade I casings when he needs replacements. Certificates for tires and tubes may be used at any time convenient to the holder.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS—Pink or blue. With genuine steel die engraving. Envelopes to match. Chronicle Pub. Co. Call 74.
