to replenish the stockpile which has been depleted, and one of them, at nearby Baytown, started production today.

AROUND THE TOWN Incidents, Unusual and Ordinary, Gathered On Our Rounds.

MRS. BYRON M. MYERS and son, KENNETH, of Denver, Colo., have joined Lt. Myers here and are occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Townsend on Walnut street. Lt. Myers is adjutant to Captain C. M. Turner of the 39th Army Air Force Training Detachment of Presbyterian college. Kenneth was graduated this spring from high school, and the Myers also have another older son, Wayne, of the army air corps, who recently graduated from the "E" quintile of Presbyterian college, Hastings, Nebraska.

Brought in too late to make last week's "Chronicle" were several cotton blooms. Although not the first these were among the earlier ones of the season: One grown by Leroy Pace on the Stewart Brown farm back of Presbyterian college, pulled June 24. Another by Joe Alexander, a colored farmer, of Clinton Route 2, pulled June 22.

The following intermediates from the First Presbyterian church are attending Pioneer camp at Riverside this week: ALBERTA BALDWIN, MYRA ADAIR, BARBARA ANDERSON, JOY GODFREY, LILLIAN DILLARD, GRACE YOUNG, ANNE OWENS, and MAE COPELAND. MISS JEAN LAYTON of this city, will act as lifeguard and counselor in addition to the published staff.

An interesting collection of army insignias is on display in the window of James Pitts' Store. These are the property of PIERRE BURDETTE, and among them are ones given him by a number of Clinton men in service as well as his own from the "Rainbow Division" of World War I fame. An invitation is extended to residents of the city to add to the collection on display the insignias of their relatives or friends in army service.

Friends of RUFUS SADLER, JR., who left the past week to enter the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., will be interested to know he has passed the entrance physical examination and was sworn in Monday as a midshipman. Rufus, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sadler, has recently completed his freshman year at the University of South Carolina where he was captive in tennis and other sports.

WATT HENDERSON, who was recently inducted into the army at Fort Jackson, passed through Clinton Saturday night enroute to an undisclosed destination. Being in doubt as to whether he would see any relatives or friends he dropped a note from the train but his father, L. S. Henderson, expecting the transfer, met the train and by coincidence Watt was able to see both his father and mother as well as telling them about the note which they later found. Mother-like, Mrs. Henderson sent home for sandwiches (knowing her son's fondness for thick juicy ones) but alas, the train departed before the food arrived.

Interesting excerpts from a letter written Mrs. J. M. Adair by her son, PFC. DARRELL FRANKS, Co. A, 505th Inf., A. P. O. 469, % Postmaster, New York, N. Y. June 2, North Africa: "Do you remember when I was a little boy and you told me some kind of diseases I would die with if I did not wash my hands and face more often, well I found out you you can't die from being dirty. . . . Today I received The Chronicle of April 22 and surely did enjoy it. . . . Made my first jump in Africa yesterday, it was an exhibition for U. S. generals and some from other countries. The ground was like cement and full of rocks. . . . We were supposed to have ice cream yesterday but it fell through, in fact I don't think they could get enough ice in this country to freeze anything. . . . We have had the day off and went to a beach this morning for a swim, it was very nice but nothing like going to a beach in the good old U. S. A. No ice cream, cokes or pretty girls. It is getting dark and we have no candles. . . . Love to all of you. —Darrell."

Friends of JAMES WILLIAM JOHNSON, son of Mrs. J. B. Johnson, will be interested to know he was graduated yesterday from the army air force school, Seymour, Ind., received his wings and commission as a second lieutenant. His brother, Robert Johnson, and Mrs. Johnson are in Seymour to attend the graduating exercises. Lt. Johnson received his pilot's training at Maxwell Field, Ala., Fletcher Field, Miss., and Walnut Ridge, Ark.

Cooperating with Penney stores throughout the nation, the local J. C. PENNEY CO., is sponsoring a bond sale for the month of July, beginning today. An attractive window display has been arranged, with pictures of local service men to promote interest in the sale. Throughout the store patriotic trims are used, with a special counter decorated with red, white and blue ribbon and gold eagles, being used for the sale of bonds.

Recently an appeal was made for old broomsticks needed by the 39th Training detachment at Presbyterian college. To date, few have been turned in and an urgent request is being made again for housewives to contribute such to the war effort. The handles are used in training the cadets and there is no way to secure them except to depend on those obtained from people who have old brooms. Every housewife is asked to donate hers. Either take them to the Red Cross headquarters, or call 130 and they will be collected.

Through this column, PVT. MARION HILL, of the army air base, Greenville, Miss., writes he was able to locate Cadet John L. Sloan, another Clinton boy recently sent there, and since that time they have seen each other frequently. He also states, "I am certainly glad that as a member of the 'ground crew' I can help 'keep 'em flying' for an old friend who is qualified to fly them."

The following item will be of interest to Clinton friends of CAPTAIN CHARLES B. MACDONALD, a graduate of Presbyterian college:

Little Rock, June 28.—1st Lt. Charles B. MacDonald, of Little Rock and Camp Blanding, Fla., who last November might well have claimed to be the U. S. Infantry's youngest company commander, can lay claim to a new distinction.

He was promoted this week to the rank of captain, and at 20 years he may well be the Infantry's youngest.

It should be no novelty for Capt. MacDonald, however, for at 19 he was promoted from second to first lieutenant and two weeks later, following his 20th birthday, assumed command of Company "C," 390th Infantry, at Camp Breckinridge, Ky. At 15 he entered Presbyterian college, at 18 was editor-in-chief of the college newspaper, and at 19 was graduated from Presbyterian with second lieutenant's bars and a Gold "P," the college's highest stamp of approval for extra-curricular activity.

He is now commanding Company "C," 254th Infantry, at Camp Blanding, confesses he never reveals his age to his company, hides a burning ambition to be dubbed "the old man," army slang for the company commander.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. MacDonald, of Little Rock.

'E' GRADUATION THIS MORNING FOR CADET CLASS

Graduating exercises for Class E, of the 39th College Training Detachment at Presbyterian college, will be held this morning (Thursday) at 9:30 a.m. The class is composed of 80 cadets headed as leader by Edwin E. Pike, commander of group two. The public is cordially invited.

The exercises will be presided over by Capt. Carl M. Turner, commanding officer. The speaker for the occasion will be C. C. Giles, operations manager of Barksdale field, between Clinton and Laurens, where the cadets take their flying training.

The "wing" will be formed in special graduation review, after which the officers and guidons will come forward. A ribbon for the best squadron of the month will be presented to Squadron "B." The graduating class will then watch the rest of the detachment pass in review for the last time.

The detachment will sing three songs in leaving the field, "Hail the Boys From Thirty-Nine," "The Army Air Corps Song," and "We Are Shoving Right Off."

The highlight of the festivities will come in the evening when a dance will be given at the armory for the graduating class.

Committees Named To Raise Funds For Bible Course

The campaign to raise funds for the teaching of Bible in Clinton high school will begin Tuesday, July 6, R. L. Plaxico, chairman, announced yesterday. A canvass of the town will be made to secure $1,500, the estimated amount needed for paying an instructor, supplies and incidental expense in connection with the work for the coming year.

The following committees which have been appointed from the city churches, will meet on Monday evening, July 5, at 8:30 at the First Baptist church to complete final plans for the canvass:

S. W. Sumerel, chairman, C. E. Galloway, F. F. Fowler, Harry League, Mrs. John T. Little, Mrs. Alex Henry, S. G. Dillard, and Lynn Cooper.

R. W. Boland, chairman, J. H. Baxter, L. W. Rawl, T. M. Sease, and J. W. Frey.

W. H. Simpson, chairman, L. W. Bullock, Mrs. W. R. Pitts, Mrs. B. H. Henry, Mrs. Billy McMillan, Mrs. Hubert Pitts and Mrs. Roy Gasque.

Mrs. R. L. Plaxico, chairman, Mrs. J. Hubert Todd, Mrs. A. B. Blakely, Jr., and Mrs. E. B. Sloan.

H. L. Eichelberger, chairman, J. Leland Young, C. W. Anderson, L. B. Dillard, Mrs. Gary Dillard, Mrs. W. M. Walker and Mrs. C. M. Bailey.

Junior Order Gives Outing At Lake

Clinton Council No. 87, Junior Order United American Mechanics, entertained its members and guests with a fish fry on Lake Greenwood Monday night. The event took the place of a regular meeting of the lodge.

Talks were made by several members, the speech of the evening being delivered by Boyd Owings, counselor of the lodge. Spirituals and folk songs were rendered by members.

The program was arranged by W. O. Derrick and W. C. Baldwin, Jr.
