PRAYER FOR COURAGE

God make me brave for life,
O braver than this!
Let me straighten after pain
As a tree straightens after rain,
Shining and lovely again.
God make me brave.—Life brings
Such blinding things,
Help me to keep my sight,
Help me to see aright
That out of darkness comes light.
—Grace Noll Crowell.

Presbyterian Circles, Auxiliary To Meet

Milam-Hughes Rites Announced

Mrs. Grady Seawright of Pendleton, announces the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Adair Milam, to Ruthel Marion Hughes on May the twenty-sixth, nineteen hundred and forty-three. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Jordan of Taylors.

Mrs. Hughes is a native of Clinton, and a graduate of the Pendleton high school. At the time of her marriage she was a student nurse at the Mary Black hospital, Spartanburg.

Mr. Hughes, the son of Mrs. Jennie Hughes and the late Mr. Hughes of Taylors, is in naval service stationed in New Orleans, La.

Trousseau Shower Honors Miss Graham, Bride-Elect

Continuing a series of parties honoring Miss Elizabeth Graham, popular bride-elect, Mrs. Albert Ford, Jr., entertained close friends on Friday evening at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shands. The dining table was attractively arranged with a bowl of mixed summer flowers and places were laid for eight, the honoree's being marked with a lovely corsage. Place cards were in the bridal motif. A three-course supper was served. During the evening the hostess presented Miss Graham with a shower of trousseau gifts.

Guests included the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. William B. Wade, Mrs. Keith Fleischmann, Misses Inez Young, Frances Simpson, Mae Dicus, and Evelyn Henry.

Miss Riob Bride Of Sgt. Ramsey

Miss Ruby Riob, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Riob, of Vincennes, Indiana, and Sergeant Augustus Ramsey of the 39th Army Air Force training detachment at Presbyterian college, were married on last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Galloway.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. N. Long before an improvised altar with background of greenery and floor baskets of gladioli.

Miss Marcia Galloway was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, and Sgt. J. W. Wadsworth also of the 39th training detachment, was the groom's best man.

The bride, an attractive blond, wore a light blue jersey dress with a corsage of red roses.

Sgt. Ramsey, a native of Eubank,

Ky., attended business college before entering service. He serves the detachment as sergeant major. Sgt. and Mrs. Ramsey are residing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Addison on Hickory street.

Methodist Circle Meets With Mrs. J. H. Kohler

Mrs. J. H. Kohler and Mrs. Julian Coleman were joint hostesses to the Sara Glenn circle of Broad Street Methodist church on Monday evening at the Kohler home.

The chairman, Mrs. Clyde Lankford, presided, and Mrs. Clifton Adair discussed the topic for the month, "Mission Work in Japan and China." Mrs. Kohler gave the study on "Women of the Bible," sketching Abigail. The program concluded with prayer by Mrs. John G. Barden.

During a social hour the hostesses served ice cream and cake.

Moore-Richey Rites Solemnized Here

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Jewel Moore of Simpsonville, and Glenn Richey of this city and Owens. The ceremony was performed at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. W. N. Long, of this city, Wednesday, July 7.

Prior to entering army service, Mr. Richey held a position at Bell's department store here. He was formerly stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss., and is now on maneuvers with his company near Pilot Knob, Calif.

Mrs. Johnson Entertains At Bridge Tuesday

Complimenting Mrs. Charles Wollet of Griffin, Ga., and Mrs. L. H. Oden, Jr., of Blackshear, Ga., who are visitors in the city, Mrs. R. W. Johnson was hostess at bridge on Tuesday afternoon.

Four tables were arranged for the games amid a pretty setting of summer flowers with gladioli predominating. High score award was given Mrs. R. W. Wade and bingo prize to Mrs. Julian Bolick. Guest prizes were also presented the honorees.

Late in the afternoon a salad course and punch was served. Mrs. V. P. Adair assisted in serving.

Visitors Honored With Bridge Party

Mrs. Davis R. Holland honored her house guest, Mrs. Charles Wollet of Griffin, Ga., and Mrs. L. H. Oden, Jr., of Blackshear, Ga., who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Shealy, with a bridge party on Thursday afternoon.

Guests were invited for two tables and a number of interesting games enjoyed. Mrs. Oden was high score winner and Mrs. Phillips won bingo prize. The hostess remembered Mrs. Wollet and Mrs. Oden with gifts. Delightful refreshments were served after cards. Varied arrangements of summer flowers formed an attractive setting for the occasion.

Billy Horne Celebrates Third Birthday

Billy Horne, son of Lt. and Mrs. W. S. Horne, celebrated his third birthday Friday, July 9, with a party at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Adair.

Twenty-five little friends enjoyed a delightful afternoon of games, after which they were invited into the dining room for refreshments. Red white and blue balloons were showered from the chandelier and the table was centered with the birthday cake holding three lighted candles. The cake was cut and served with ice cream. Guests were remembered with favors of candies, attractively packaged in the red, white and blue color note.

Mrs. Clyde S. Lankford and Mrs. John W. Finney, Jr., assisted Mrs. Horne in entertaining and serving the little folk.

Party Compliments Mrs. Matheson, Bride

Mrs. T. Kohn Barnes and Mrs. Carroll E. Barnes entertained about twenty-five friends at a linen shower in honor of Mrs. Kenneth Matheson, the former Miss Elizabeth Barnes, on last Wednesday evening.

Summer cut flowers with fern decorated the receiving rooms. In the dining room the table was overlaid with a lace cloth and had for a centerpiece the punch bowl, around which was arranged pink and blue baby breath, carnations and fern with tall white tapers burning in crystal holders.

Several games were enjoyed during the evening with Miss Elizabeth Nelson and Mrs. Keith Fleischmann winning prizes.

Ice cream and individual cakes were served by the hostesses carrying out a white and green color note which was observed in the party appointments. Favors of rice bags tied to miniature aeroplanes were given each guest. The bride was presented a host of lovely linen gifts.

Miss Henry Hostess For Bride, Bride-Elect

On Thursday evening Mrs. Kenneth Matheson and Miss Elizabeth Graham were entertained with a lovely party at the home of Miss Evelyn Henry.

Tiger lilies and roses decorated the living room and reception hall where the guests enjoyed bridge and rummy. High score prize for bridge was presented to Miss Mae Dicus and rummy award to Mrs. F. M. Boland, Jr. The bride and bride-elect were remembered with gifts of crystal.

Covers were laid for a tempting salad course, after which the guests were invited into the dining room for dessert. On the buffet were a bride and groom surrounded by a pretty floral arrangement. The table was centered with a bowl of white gladioli and at each end stood two tired miniature cakes, beautifully decorated in green and white, and bearing the names "Lib-Ken," and "Lib-Gene." The cakes were cut by the honorees and served with ice cream.

Other guests were: Mrs. William B. Wade, Mrs. Albert Ford, Jr., Mrs. Keith Fleischmann, Mrs. Robert Oxley, Mrs. Marion Brown, Misses Josephine Copeland, Carolyn Henry and Inez Young.

Miss LeBlanc Weds Cadet C. A. Folkenroth

Miss Margery LeBlanc, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. LeBlanc, of New Orleans, La., became the bride of Charles A. Folkenroth, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Folkenroth of York, Pa., at seven o'clock Saturday evening in the chapel of Presbyterian college. The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Daily.

The bride was attended by Miss Marie Folkenroth, a sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor. The bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, Paul Folkenroth of York. Members of the immediate families and close friends attend the rites.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in a brown suit with matching accessories and wore an orchid in her hair. Miss Folkenroth wore a blue tailored dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was given at the home of Mrs. Ansel B. Godfrey.

Mrs. Folkenroth is a graduate of New Orleans high school and Louisiana State university. She is a member of the faculty of the McDonough high school as girls physical education instructor. She will remain here with her husband until she resumes her teaching duties in the fall.

Mr. Folkenroth is an air cadet candidate of the 39th training detachment. He enlisted in December and following basic training at Miami Beach, Fla., was transferred here. He is a graduate of the West York high school and the Aero Industrial Technical institute, Glendale, Cal. Prior to entering the air corps he was employed under civil service by the government.

Miss Elizabeth Graham Bride of Lt. McCaskill In Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Fleming Graham and Lieutenant H. Eugene McCaskill took place at half past five o'clock Monday afternoon, July 12, at the home of the bride's parents, Professor and Mrs. Bothwell Graham, on North Broad street.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. John K. Roberts, D.D., in the presence of a small group of intimate friends and relatives. Rev. D. J. Woods, D.D., who baptized the bride, offered the prayer.

Miss Sybil Burdette, pianist, played the wedding music and Mrs. R. W. Wade sang "Promise" and "I Love You Truly." As the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" sounded, Miss Lillian Dillard, wearing a sky blue picture frock, lighted the candles. A lovely setting for the marriage had been arranged at the end of the library with festooned ivy, seven-branched candelabra, crystal candlesticks, bowls and baskets of white gladioli interspersed with ferns and palms.

The groom and his best man, Lieutenant Robert E. McCormick of Decatur, Ga., entered from the rear and awaited the bride.

Mrs. William B. Wade, lovely in a filmy gown of pink lace and marquisette, preceded her sister down the stairway. She carried an armful of pink asters.

The bride was beautiful in white marquisette and lace, with a fingertip length veil and carried a bouquet of white and red roses. She was escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. S. Bean, was attractively gowned in black marquisette with a corsage of lavender and white sweet peas. The bride's mother wore navy, embroidered marquisette with a corsage of shaded pink gladioli. The groom's mother was unable to attend because of illness.

Delicious ice cream, cake and mints were served from a beautifully decorated lace-covered table in the dining room. Mrs. John Spratt presided over the table and was assisted in serving by Misses Frances Simpson, Virginia Dillard, Lillian Dillard, Mae Dicus and Evelyn Henry.

The young couple left after the reception for an undisclosed destination. For traveling the bride wore a brown and white suit with matching accessories and a corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride, the younger daughter of Professor and Mrs. Graham, is a popular member of Clinton's younger set. She was graduated from the University of South Carolina where she majored in art and was prominent in campus activities. For the past year she has held a government position in Augusta, Ga.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Bessie J. McCaskill and the late Mr. McCaskill of Conway. He is a graduate of Presbyterian college, where he was an outstanding student and athlete, being a member of the football and basketball teams. He received his commission July 10 at Fort Benning, Ga., and will report there for a class in communications at the end of a short furlough.

Among out-of-town guests attending the rites were Mr. and Mrs. L. McD. Kennedy and Miss Fronda Kennedy of Spartanburg, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. A. Neville of Newberry, Misses Virginia and Cornelia Graham of Clemson, and Mrs. Joseph Guess of Greenville.
