Joint Hostesses Honor Cadet and Mrs. Letsch

Misses Lurlee Shealy and Florence Tripp entertained with a delightful dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crews on last evening honoring Cadet Candidate Richard R. Letsch, and Mrs. Letsch of Greene, Iowa, who were recently married.

Places were laid for ten at the prettily appointed dining table, which was centered with a colorful arrangement of mixed fall flowers. After dinner cards were enjoyed.

Methodist Society Holds September Meeting

The September meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist church was held on Monday afternoon in the ladies parlor.

Mrs. J. V. Edwards, president of the society, presided. Mrs. Billy McMillan conducted a devotional on "Following the Christ Way of Service," with scripture passages impressing the ways of service given by members. A prayer and the response were given by Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. G. W. Hollingsworth.

During a business session plans were made to improve the ladies parlor. An all-day mission study, "We Who are Americans," will be held Thursday, October 7, at the parsonage.

Presbyterians To Hold Loyalty Meeting

The annual church loyalty meeting and family night of the First Presbyterian church will be held on Wednesday evening Sept. 29, at 7:30. Rev. Julian Lake, pastor of the Oakland Avenue Presbyterian church, Rock Hill, will be the guest speaker. The meeting is sponsored jointly by the woman's auxiliary and the men's club and takes the place of the September meetings of the two organizations. Every member of the church families is invited to attend. A picnic supper will be served at 7:30. Special provision is being made for children for supper and during the program.

Mrs. Roy Pitts Hostess To Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Roy Pitts was hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday afternoon, with seventeen members in attendance.

The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag and the preamble, followed by prayer by Mrs. A. S. Rumph. Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. F. M. Stutts, who also gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Raymond Pitts. The president, Mrs. George Watts Copeland, presided over the business session.

Guests were entertained with three musical numbers, "Red Cross Nurse," "Over There," and "God Bless America," sung by Louise Hobson, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James Pitts. Late in the afternoon Russian tea, sandwiches and cookies were served. Assistant hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. P. B. Adair, Mrs. G. W. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Nancy Jones and Mrs. George Watts Copeland.

Century Club Holds First Fall Meeting

The first meeting of the fall of the Century club was held at the home of Mrs. E. H. Hall on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Kenneth N. Baker, presiding.

During a business session minutes were read by Mrs. W. P. Jacobs. Mrs. J. H. Kohler was elected vice-president, succeeding Mrs. W. A. Johnson, who has joined Lt. Col. Johnson at Camp Tyson; Tenn. Mrs. John G. Barden was elected secretary and treasurer, succeeding Mrs. J. William Frey.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. H. Earl Spencer, who gave a review of the book, "The Lost Continent of Mu," by Colonel James Churchward. Mrs. R. E. Wyss was welcomed back to the club, having returned to Clinton to make her home. Mrs. John Bright of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Shockley Hall of Fort Schuyler, N. Y., were guests of the club.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul D. Strong on October 5.

Miss Virginia Dillard Becomes Bride of Lt. Paul Gray Turner

Of wide social interest was the lovely wedding of Miss Virginia Connor Dillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gary Dillard, and Lt. Paul Gray Turner, of Austin, Texas, son of Dr. and Mrs. Herman L. Turner of Decatur, Ga., which took place at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Turner, the bridegroom's father, officiated in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

For the occasion the church was beautifully decorated. Asters and gladioli were effectively used on the altar against a background of palms and ferns, interspersed with candelabra holding lighted candles.

Prior to the ceremony a lovely program of wedding music was given by Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, organist, Miss Annette Moorhead, violinist, and Miss Betty Long of Conway, soprano. Mrs. Jacobs played "Medley of Old Songs," "Liebestraum" and "The Rosary." Miss Moorhead played Schubert's "Serenade" and Miss Long sang "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used.

Thomas Earle Bryant, of Atlanta, brother-in-law of the groom, and Haynie G. Prince of this city, were usher-groomsmen.

The maid of honor, Miss Lillian Salter Dillard, only sister of the bride, wore a teal blue afternoon costume with matching accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of shell pink asters tied with satin ribbon.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Thomas Earle Bryant of Atlanta, sister of the groom, wore gold crepe with brown accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of purple asters and yellow roses tied with gold ribbon.

Lieut. George Frank Heidt, of

Camp Wheeler, Ga., was the best man.

The beautiful bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a caramel suit of cocoa brown imported gabardine with harmonizing accessories. She carried a white satin prayer book showered with purple orchids and tube roses.

Mrs. Dillard, mother of the bride, was gowned in air force blue with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Turner, mother of the groom, wore plum-colored crepe with a corsage of orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a reception at their home on North Broad street. Pink gladioli were used for decoration in the living room and music rooms. The bride's table in the dining room was exquisite, being overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white carnations, tube roses and gladioli, and flanked with tall tapers in silver holders.

During the afternoon the bride and bridegroom left for New Orleans, La., where they will spend a few days before going to Austin, Texas, where Lieut. Turner is stationed at Camp Swift.

The bride is a young woman of unusual charm and attractiveness. She attended Coker college for three years and graduated from Presbyterian college where she received her bachelor's degree. She was president of Alpha Psi Delta sorority. Her mother is the former Miss Lillian Salter, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Salter of Salter.

The groom is the son of Dr. Turner, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian church, Atlanta, and Mrs. Turner, who is the former Miss Ann Hartung, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hartung of Pine Bluff, Ark. He is a graduate of North Fulton high school, Atlanta, and attended Presbyterian college where he graduated in March. He was president of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, vice-president of the student body, and secretary of Blue Key, national honorary leadership fraternity. Lt. Turner received his commission from officers candidate school at Fort Benning, Ga., in July and until recently, when moved to Austin, was stationed at Tyler, Texas.

"APOTHECARY Atmosphere"

There's something about this store. One of our Physician friends terms it an "Apothecary Atmosphere." By that he means that we have a distinct professional attitude toward our work; that we maintain ethical standards which parallel his own. This is emphatically a prescription pharmacy. The compounding of prescriptions is our primary interest—our chief concern. Every prescription is filled precisely as the Physician directs. Yet it costs no more—often less—to have your prescriptions compounded here.
