

Here's one of the best ways to BUILD UP RED BLOOD

To Get More Strength for You Who Lack Blood-Iron!

You girls and women who suffer from simple anemia or who lose so much during monthly periods that you feel tired, weak, "dragged out"—due to low blood-iron—Start at once—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound TABLETS (with added iron). Pinkham's Tablets is one of the greatest blood iron tonics you can buy to help build up red blood to give more strength and energy and to promote a more robust bloodstream—in such cases. Taken as directed—Pinkham's Tablets is one of the very best and quickest home ways to get precious iron into the blood. Just try Pinkham's Tablets for at least 30 days. Then see if you, too, don't remarkably benefit. Follow label directions. Well worth trying!

I'M TELLIN' THE MARINES!

From the halls of Monteruma to the shores of Tripoli there aren't many marines who don't sooner or later ride by Greyhound. The same goes for the Army and Navy, not to mention Wacs, Waves and Red Cross gals.

We're happy to serve you now the best we can. But some day when this war is won we're gonna give you more service, more convenience and more comfort than the present strenuous times permit.

Have a "Coke"—Good winds have blown you here

...a way to say "We are friends" to the Chinese

China knew Coca-Cola before the war. Where Coca-Cola is on hand today, to Chinese and Yank alike, Have a "Coke" are welcome words. Around the globe Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—has become a symbol of good will.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY Greenwood Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

"Coke" is Coca-Cola. It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
