

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS

The new year gives us an opportunity to pause and reflect upon the fine spirit of cooperation given us by our friends and patrons in Clinton and Goldville during the year now closing.

We thank you for your friendship, loyalty and patronage. We wish to say to those we are privileged to serve—that, despite the uncertainties of the coming year we renew our pledge of service and cooperation so far as we are physically able to render it under present circumstances.

We send the best of New Year's wishes for you and your family. May our wishes warm your heart and add to your season's enjoyment and happiness.

A PEEK AT THE FUTURE

The chap who designs Greyhound Super-Coaches recently came up with the above idea. It's not built yet, but it will be as sure as Nippon's "rising sun" will set.

Yes, the bus riders' future is bright. Some day you may even travel by Greyhound helicopter if present plans pan out. So don't judge tomorrow's bus ride by what you're gettin' now, when we are short of buses and long on passengers... doin' our best to serve the Armed Forces, war-workers and other essential travelers.

Here's America's Finest Fountain Drink

Ask for the Big 10-oz. Glass At Clinton Fountains

Watch that "syrup line," folks, and you'll see why Pepsi-Cola tastes so well at fountains, too. Watch the fountainer pour in the exact amount—right to the line. That's important, if you like a drink that is just right... because it's made right!

During Christmas Holidays, Help him get a line to home

About the only time he can get to the telephone is a few short hours in the evening. That's when thousands of other boys in the camps want to use Long Distance, too.

Any time you are not on the lines, there's a better chance for a soldier's call to get through.

So unless it's urgent, we hope you won't be using Long Distance from 7 to 10 o'clock at night. Save those hours for the service-men.

Freedom of CHOICE

WITH ALL THE TALK about Freedoms, what about freedom of choice?

After all, freedom of choice can mean the same thing as all the other freedoms people are talking about—and a few others besides. In large measure, freedom of choice is what this war is about.

Freedom of choice means such ordinary things as trying soy beans in the south field next year, if you think it's the thing to do. It means buying the kind of flour you think gives you the best biscuits. It means you and your boy doing the deciding whether he'll go to college, or learn to be a toolmaker.

Freedom of choice is the soil in which character grows.

This freedom of choice—and its counterpart, a sense of responsibility for the decisions made—has done much to develop the character that is going to win this war—on the battle fronts, on the farm, in industry. And when the victory is won, the kind of America we have fought and worked to preserve must be a country in which every man and woman, and every boy and girl, will have freedom of choice in even greater measure.
