THIS IS NO GREAT SALE

But a bona fide cutting and smashing of prices on several lines and lots of goods and a few odds and ends and broken lots that we positively will slash, smash and slaughter the prices until they are completely closed out. They are what are left of the bankrupt stock purchase we made some time ago.

SHAPIRO'S, INC., Union, S. C.

Santuc

There have already been a goodly amount of oats sown around here to date and farmers are not yet finished this work. Some rye has also been sown. The extreme dry weather up to the middle of October made oat sowing really later than farmers wanted to begin. Now wheat sowing has begun. Despite the fact that wheat was almost a failure—if not that, very unsatisfactory—the farmers are going to try again. Well, anyway, it will not have to be cultivated, and we just have to reduce cotton acreage, or make a worse failure than with wheat this season. One can then sow wheat land in peas for improvement. I do not believe one—a poor one, at least—can afford to try to raise cotton to buy flour with.

Sunday afternoon, at 3 p. m., the Chester Evangelist club of Chester was here at the Presbyterian church, as was announced in The Times, and quite a goodly audience heard them, and was well pleased with the exercises. There were six men who made addresses, and also an organist and a quartet. There were some find addresses, and the singing was just fine, especially that by the quartet. The members of the club were: A. M. Aiken, leader, S. C. Carter, R. M. Bickett, R. W. Hardin, Mr. McDaniel and Lyles Glenn, Jr. H. W. Sanderson was organist and the quartet was composed of Mayor G. W. Byars, J. R. Watson, C. A. Rollins and W. P. Stroud. They said they were well pleased with the visit here, and the people here were very glad to have them. Mr. Carter has attended church services here often and has many acquaintances here and we were glad, especially, to see him.

When I was a small chap I heard a child's song about "Robin Bedbreast," and in it was, "When the cold wind comes, what will robin do then, poor thing?' I have figuratively been sitting back and viewing the landscape, and thought that when the boll weevils become more numerous, and it is already that, what will the negro do then—some sort of thing. They have depended to a large extent, or all together, on cotton, and just about had their way, hoeing and picking it, and made some good money. They did not try to hoe as you wanted it, but in a sense said, "I know how you want it done, but you have to take it my way. If I cut it too thin, or leave it too thick, break it, skin, leave it down and leave the grass, you will have to accept it." If you kicked on it, they would say, "If I can't please you, you can hoe it, and I will go elsewhere." The same holds with the picking, etc. The cotton acreage will have to be reduced, that source of revenue cut off, and maybe a farmer can hold them to better work on the little they have to do.

I am glad to say that Dr. J. T. Jeter is steadily improving. This forced inactivity is a burden to him, in itself.

Mrs. Maud McCrady of Spartanburg spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Davis.

Mr. Sims Fridy of Spartanburg was in our town on a short visit Sunday.

Miss Belle Jeter and her friend, Miss Johnson, of the G. W. C., of Greenville, and Miss Louise Jeter of Limestone College spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jeter, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Moss of Irvin, Tenn., spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moss. Mr. Moss complimented the Baptist Sunday school on its good average attendance; that while at his home school, a large one to this here, the average attendance was not near so good.

The leaders of the Santuc union prayermeeting have been working the idea of getting a special night at the Gipsy Smith meeting, for the members of this prayer meeting to attend in a body. The arrangements now is for Thursday night of this week, with reserved seats, and it is desired that all interested, directly or indirectly, and that includes about everybody here, will get away, double-up and make room for all to go, and let there be no disappointments.

About that potato digging I told you were in. It took us three days to dig and bank—we ought to have a house—and we have a fine lot of fine ones, if we can but keep them. That, and two days loading cotton and hauling to the gin at Union, that awful long trip for such work, knocked our every chance for hearing Gipsy Smith last week, and I wanted to go, too.

Hey Denver.

Another hard thing to understand is why, when everybody yearns for peace, anybody keeps on fighting.

It isn't hard to love your neighbor unless he greets your best jokes with puzzled and unhappy silence.

Harding Begins Custom

President Harding has begun a custom which he hopes will become a tradition. He visited the grave of the unknown soldier at Arlington on Armistice Day, accompanied by the secretaries of war and navy, and military escort, and left a simple wreath to let it be known to all the world that this country honors her dead, known and unknown, who laid down their lives at their country's call. At the same time the postoffice put on sale a new 50 cent postage stamp, which has a picture of the Arlington amphitheater upon it, with the tomb of he unknown soldier in the foreground.

The cost of dying will be lower next year, it is predicted, which should be encouraging news to bargain hunters

Skin Ablaze with Eczema

Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together,—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

Buffalo Dots

Last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. E. Minton the Baptist R. A.'s entertained the G. A.'s. A large number was present and all reported a good time. Games were played until a late hour then delicious refreshments were served by Misses Ethel West, Gladys Minton and Mrs. J. E. Minton. After the refreshments were served all the young people adjourned with happy hearts.

Henry Earle Strahley has accepted a position with the Buffalo Mills Co., as timekeeper for the weave shop.

Albert Smith has accepted a position with the company store.

On last Friday evening Miss Emma Arrington became the bride of Charlie Parker. We are sending out our congratulations to these young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawley Cash spent last week end with their relatives in Gaffney.

Little Delilah Mae Keith entertained a large number of her friends Saturday afternoon at her home on Cedar street. This little lady was five years old. After several kinds of games were played she blew out the candles on her cake and then she and her friends were served with delicious refreshments by her mother. Then the prize games were played. Several of the children won prizes. This little lady says she wished she could have a party every time she wanted some one to play with her.

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Osawatomie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there chanced to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better female medicine for women than Cardui."

Greenville Man Dies As Result of Hurts

Greenville, Nov. 19.—Ambrus Clifton Brown, aged 41, was fatally injured in front of his home this morning when losing control of the automobile which he was coasting down the incline in an effort to start its motor, he was hurled into a fence and was pinned by the rushing machine. His chest was crushed and his head badly injured. He died two hours later at his home.

These nippy mornings make the empty basement householder think about something else than golf.
