Notice

I wish to publicly thank the Monarch fire company and the Union fire company for their good and faithful work in saving my house and stock of goods this week from destruction by fire.
W. R. Jolly,
Monarch Mill.

"Somebody" was telling me the other day," writes Fred Kelly in The Nation's Business, "about a man in the hairpin business who nearly went bankrupt when the fashion of bobbed hair got under way. Imagine devoting a life to building up a big trade and seeing the structure of years swept away because a bunch of women decide to have their hair cut!"

According to the latest official figures the average wage for male farm labor for the entire United States is $28.97 a month, with board and lodging.

The Names Written Here.

On the list of our savings depositors are the names of many children of the city. And lucky children they are!

For with their names written here these children are given a "running start" on those whose names are omitted. Have your little ones a fair chance in the race?

TINSLEY'S JEWELRY STORE

Only one woman is known to have entered the Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemane, near Bardstown, Ky. The Abbey is the only monastery in the United States belonging to the Trappists, the most austere religious order in the Roman Catholic church. Some years ago the governor of Kentucky and a party of guests visited the Abbey and on that occasion the First Lady of the State was admitted and acquired the distinction of being the first woman to be admitted to the innermost precincts of the celebrated monastery.
