JONESVILLE DOTS.

New Superintendent for Mills.

Jonesville, Sept. 12.—We had a quiet and orderly election here Tuesday and a good vote was polled which shows an interest in the primary. I am proud of the good vote we gave Ansel and Lyon.

The rains are not so frequent but we still have showers.

The oil mill and the gins are getting ready to handle the new crop of cotton and seed, and the buyers are ready to take the cotton but the price don't quite come up to the price fixed, but whether it will be forced up by holding is a question yet to be decided. Ten cents is a pretty price for cotton and easy counted. You may have to add an 0.

The new store house of Mr. J. L. McWhirter's estate, is being finished and goods are being put up in the dry goods department and it is certainly one of the neatest store rooms in the up country. Our other merchants are getting in new goods and are ready for the fall trade.

Our boys and girls are leaving for the different colleges, and our graded school will open up next Monday.

Prof. H. A. Wise returned last Saturday from his home in Virginia where he spent his vacation.

Mrs. W. W. Wood is spending a while with her parents in Virginia.

Miss Lilla Herndon has returned from a month's visit to her former home in Yorkville.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Gore are visiting relatives about Cross Keys.

Mr. John T. F. Gault has been quite feeble for some time, but he is so improved as to be able to visit his children here in Jonesville.

The 4th quarterly conference for the Jonesville charge will be held here next Saturday evening.

Mr. Hugh Little, of Spartanburg, has been visiting the family of Mr. J. E. Lindsey for some days where his wife has been for some time.

Mr. Karl Palmer, the new superintendent who will relieve Mr. A. L. Bassett at the Knitting mill, will take charge about the 15th October.

Mrs. Addie B. Hames, John H. Pickens and Geo. M. Fowler are attending the Sunday school convention at Padgett creek this week.

THE TIMES is to be congratulated in the quick and complete returns sent out about the primary election, it was equal to the dailies reports.

Democratic National Committee Convention at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept.—Governor Blanchard, democratic national committeeman from Louisiana, is sanguine that the next convention of the committee may be held in New Orleans. At a meeting of the committee in New York just prior to the Bryan reception he read to his associates a telegram from President Albert Godchaux of the New Orleans Progressive Union inviting the committee to meet here in 1908 to nominate the Democratic candidate for president. This was the first city to make formal offer to secure the convention though several have since followed. Mr. Bryan's daughter lives here, and as he may be the nominee despite his tentative proposal government ownership of trunk railroads, unusual efforts are being made to have New Orleans named for the Convention. It is pointed out that the metropolis of the South, the gateway to Panama and eventually to the Orient, is entitled to special consideration, particularly as its many years experience in handling immense carnival crowds, naturally fits the city for easily taking care of tens of thousands of visitors.

Obituary.

Departed this life on the twenty-seventh day of August, 1906, in the seventy-fifth year of her age, sister Martha F. Jeter. She has been a consistent member of Beulah church since its organization, being one of the nineteen members bearing letters from Fair View to organize Beulah church. She was always ready to contribute to missions, pastor's salary and expenses of the church. In her last days, while she was not able to attend the services of the church, she would never forget to send her contribution.

Resolved therefore,
1. That while we yield submissively to the will of our Heavenly Father, Beulah church has lost one of her best and most liberal members.

2. That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, THE UNION TIMES, Baptist Courier, and Baptist Press for publication. And that they be inscribed in our minute book.

S. L. CROSBY,
Church Clerk.

FROM SANTUC.

Mrs. Mattie Sims and Mrs. Sudie Edwards, of Union, visited the family of their brother, Mr. J. K. Thomas, last week.

The Clemson boys, i. e., Paul and Wilson Gee, Parham Jeter, and Aubrey Gilmore will leave this week, to be present at the opening of the coming session of that college.

Mr. Reannold Owen, who has been attending school at Cokesbury the past two years, will enter Clemson College this session.

Rev. W. H. Yarbrough, an evangelist, preached at the Methodist church here Sunday morning last. He was on his way to assist Rev. T. B. Owen in a meeting at the Knitting Mill at Union.

The "traveling saw mill" is getting to be "the thing" of late. The saws are going to the woods. Mr. Will Sartor is launching out in the business. And Saturday a fine 11 h. p. engine was set off here for Mr. J. C. Mobley, from over Tyger river.

Toss up you hats, boys: we are to have some new bagging. I saw it unloaded last week. We have not been able to get any the past few years, only old delapidated stuff. The people had to patch and scrimage, and then, often, it would not cover the cotton, and the whole bale would nearly fall through, making a bad appearance. That old stuff, I guess, has rotted so badly that it has disintegrated. I guess, though, that the sellers could make a good thing out of that bagging, even of the 3rd and 4th generation. But why won't the Southern farmers all be of one mind and use cotton covering, letting jute go for something else, thereby increasing the demand for their staple.

That "cool spell in August was so delayed this year, or run out by the heat, that it never reached here until last week, September. The weather was so pleasant, barring the two days of cloudy threatening weather, "that one felt like getting a move on himself."

HEY DENVER.

Editor of UNION TIMES—The primaries are now over, and you will please allow me space in your valuable paper to thank the people of Union county for their support in my race. The people have spoken, right or wrong, and I am satisfied. Let us forget ourselves and hold no ill will against any one. Let us pull together, for the upbuilding of Union county. Hold up the hands of the newly elected officers and encourage them to do better by the people than has been done.

Editor TIMES.—Please allow me space to express my sincere and profound gratitude to my friends who stood by me, and worked so hard for me in this the hardest fought political campaign that I have ever passed through. To those who fought me on the right plane, I cherish no ill feelings, and to those who said so many unkind things of me and treated me wrongfully, I stand ready to forgive. I desire to say also, that I shall do my best to improve on the past and give to Union county the best service of my life.

Respectfully,
