UNION, S. C., NOV. 2, 1906.

Hearst occupies a singular position: he is wealthy and is fighting wealth.

The recent addition in our news service is but another step to serve the people of Union county. Tell your friends about it, ask them to subscribe and help us to give you an excellent paper.

Now comes along the Southern Express Company and aids in the violation of our prohibition law. The officials are doing their utmost to make Union a dry county, and they have tigers, lawyers and unprincipled employees—all to fight. Let this express company come in for a just share in the penalties of law.

THE BAPTIST PRESS is a religious journal for the Baptist denomination in the state. It has a large circulation which is growing rapidly every day; and with a representative, in the person of Rev. V. I. Masters, always in the field, it will continue to grow.

OWNERS A. J. BROWN, JR. and two broken down job type, and two broken down job presses. Now the shop presents a miniature of a New York press room. There's something doing 'round here.

Welcome to Rev. V. I. Masters, city, and the coming of a family like his is to be hailed with delight by any community.

The removal of THE BAPTIST PRESS to Union is a gain for our city. It increases the business of the city, it brings some valuable people here, and makes Union the distributing center for a religious newspaper that goes to every nook and corner of South Carolina.

Think about it friend! THE UNION TIMES has equipped itself with a linotype and paper folder; these in addition to the several thousand dollars worth of machinery installed some months ago. What does it mean? Simply, that we are getting down to business and will issue a county paper, the peer of anyone, anywhere.

The day of Thanksgiving for this year is November the twenty-ninth. What have the people of this state, this county, and this town, for which they should render thanks to God? Let us take stock, and see where we stand. If we have been unfortunate, the blame is for us: God and nature have done their part. If we are prosperous and have escaped calamity, then God is to be thanked; for His was the hand that directed and His the arm that shielded.

Baptist Executive Board.

The Executive Board of Union County Association, which is composed of the following members: J. C. Lawson, J. R. Funderburk, L. M. Rice, S. Crosby, G. C. Greer and R. G. A. Jeter, will meet at the First Baptist church of Union on Monday Nov. 5, at 1 o'clock p. m. Important business will be transacted and it is urged that every member be present.

J. C. Lawson, Chairman.

Fire at Monarch.

Two 6-room operative houses at Monarch were destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The fire broke out in the house occupied by Mr. J. H. Willford and from that caught the one occupied by Mr. F. A. Sanders and destroyed it. Mr. Willford and family were attending church and the house was burning throughout the interior before discovered. He lost everything in the house, among other things $100 in money and a check for a bale of cotton recently sold to Monarch Mills. This latter will be duplicated by the mill authorities, but the money and household furniture, clothing and all else in the house is a total loss. The wind was high, and this fact made it hard to fight the fire. The Company carries insurance on all its buildings and their loss will, therefore, be only one-fourth of the value of the buildings.

Fire in Poverty Flat.

Beginning in the kitchen of Gilbert's restaurant, a fire broke out in "poverty flat" Thursday morning at about 3 o'clock. It spread and destroyed a negro barber and shoe shop, the Innman street and another small tin store. The fire company was early on the scene and prevented more extensive damage. There was insurance on some of the stands destroyed.

The Greatest School of Telegraphy in the World, and Why.

The Tyler Commercial College, of Tyler, Texas is one of the four famous Byrne Business Colleges which are located as follows: Atlanta Commercial College, 24 1-2 Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga., Memphis Commercial College, 48 N. Second St., Memphis Tenn., Capital City Business College, Guthrie, Okla., and Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

The Departments of Telegraphy of these different schools have all been consolidated into one great school of Telegraphy in the Tyler Commercial College, which was already the leading school of telegraphy in the United States. It is impossible to teach practical telegraphy and station work unless there is a large number of students in daily attendance, so that the work may be systematically graded and all the practical features of the work fully carried out.

$60 MINIMUM SALARY TO EVERY STUDENT THAT GRADUATES FROM OUR SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY.

The Cotton Belt Railway System, recognizing the merit of our work, has agreed to use every graduate we can turn out, at a minimum salary of $60 per month, with 20c per hour for all extra time. Their Vice-President and General Manager informs us that there is not a station on their line today paying less than $60 per month, including over time, while some pay as high as $100 per month.

This company has gone to the extent of extending their train order system through our building, giving our advanced students the opportunity of receiving every train order that passes over the Cotton Belt line. They also furnish us with all their telegraph and station blanks to be used while our students are learning.

As we are the only telegraphy school in America, enjoying such a great privilege, many will wonder how we obtained. The answer is, our work has been so thorough and satisfactory, that the Cotton Belt, as well as other roads, recognized our ability to turn practical operators and station men, in a thing never before accomplished in an American school of telegraphy.

Average time for completing course is four months. Life scholarship, $45.00. Write the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Tex. for full particulars.
