Local News Notes

Miss Ida Clement is spending a few days in Spartanburg.

The infant son of Mr. James Farr, of Adamsburg, died Sunday, Jan. 3.

Miss Ora Fant is visiting her friend, Miss Eloise Connor, of Eutawville.

Mrs. Amelia Wicker is visiting relatives and friends in Newberry county.

Mrs. M. L. Simms, of Clinton, has decided to locate in Union and will practice osteopathy.

Mr. Geo. K. Hutchinson, of Newberry, is visiting his brother, Mr. R. W. Hutchinson.

Rev. J. R. Funderburk filled his appointments at Putnam and West Springs on last Sunday.

Mr. W. J. Ringer, of Pomaria, spent several days this week at the home of Mr. G. B. Sligh, on Church street.

Mrs. Jane Jones, an aged lady, died at the home of Mr. W. T. Farr, near Adamsburg, Feb. 3, 1907.

There was a wreck on the Southern just this side of Spartanburg, Tuesday. Eight freight cars were wrecked. The passenger train from Spartanburg due here at 10:30 was sent around to Columbia another way.

There will be preaching at Lower Fair Forest Baptist church the third Sunday and Saturday in this month instead of the fourth Sunday and Saturday, as regularly appointed.

Rev. J. R. Funderburk, of Buffalo, was in Union Wednesday. Mr. Funderburk is getting the work among the Baptist people at Buffalo in good shape. Kind words are also being spoken of Rev. Mr. Elkin, the new Methodist pastor at that place.

Mr. J. Roy Fant returned this week from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he took a full business course. Mr. Fant graduated last year from the South Carolina university, and is a young man of fine promise. His many friends will be glad to see him back in Union.

The W. O. W. at the Excelsior knitting mill, will give an oyster supper Saturday night at the school building. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the local organization. The public is cordially invited to attend. There will be several brief speeches made and a good time is anticipated.

Capt. J. R. Reid, formerly in charge of the yard train in Union, now with a concern that manufactures concrete blocks for building purposes, was in Union Wednesday. His headquarters will be Columbia, and from that point he will carry on the manufacture of the concrete blocks.

The Kingston Earthquake.

News of the terrible earthquake in Jamaica has been read by everyone. The story of the governor of Kingston refusing the voluntary aid of American warships, marines, surgeons and hospital supplies, has also been widely published. That act probably stands alone in the history of great calamities. In private life such ingratitude is not unfrequently displayed; and even in national life has there been a few cases of such conduct. But in such time of widespread disaster, for the chief official to rudely refuse the proffered aid of a squadron from a friendly foreign nation, permitting the wounded to go uncared for and the hungry to go unfed, and the homeless to go without shelter and naked, while the friendly visitors and sympathizers were requested to embark and leave the place, is unparalleled in the annals of men. Governor Swettenham is a culpable ingrate of the basest sort; words fail to describe the heartlessness of his act. No doubt men and women, maybe helpless children, died as a result of his wanton ingratitude and selfish pride; and if a single death occurred as a result of his conduct, he is no less a murderer than the man who knowingly slays his fellow.

Everyone's soul revolts at the conduct of Governor Swettenham. The government of Great Britain, under which he was serving, hastened to disown any sympathy with him, and without waiting to hear from him offered an apology to the people of the United States, whose aid he rejected. The wanton cruelty of his conduct is beyond the comprehension of the average man.

This is worth Saving.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to relieve any form of Rheumatism or backache, also cleanse and strengthen the kidneys and bladder, overcoming all urinary disorders, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime. A well-known authority states that these ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction, and harmless to use, and can be obtained at small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder or Rheumatism, should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for some people.

Important Trade Mark Decision.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 4th, 1907.—A decision of importance to all manufacturers of trade mark goods has been awarded by Judge Pritchard in the United States Circuit Court of this district.

The question involved was whether the Allen Brothers Tobacco Co., of Lynchburg, Va., has the legal right to use on its "Traveler" brand of plug tobacco a tag similar in size, shape, color, and slant of lettering, but different as to wording, from that used by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., of Winston-Salem, N. C., on its "Schnapps" Plug Tobacco.

In the argument, on motion of the plaintiff, the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., that a restraining order be issued forbidding the defendant company from further imitating its tag, many affidavits were submitted tending to show that owing to the similarity of the tags, the "Traveler" tobacco, purchased by dealers at a lower price, was sold to uneducated chewers for "Schnapps."

In a decree signed by Judge Pritchard, the Allen Brothers Tobacco Company is enjoined from manufacturing, putting up, advertising, selling, or offering for sale plug tobacco bearing a tag identical with or like the said tag of the complainant, known as the "Schnapps" tag.

According to this decision, no manufacturer can imitate even in color, shape, or style of lettering, the trade mark of another manufacturer, even though the wording be entirely different.

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchitis, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in procuring perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glycerine extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable. A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
