

SECRET ORDERS AT EXPOSITION.

Many Important Conclaves Scheduled for Ter-Centennial.

By Mark O. Waters.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 27.—Not only will the Jamestown ter-centennial exposition, which opens on the shores of Hampton Roads, Va., April 25th, be the occasion of a grand "home-coming" for the people of Virginia, but of the nation, in celebration of the anniversary of the founding of the first permanent English settlement in America, but it will be the occasion for a large number of conclaves, conventions, conferences and assemblies. Altogether there will be over two hundred of these events and among them many secret order gatherings, and the pass word and the grip will be much in evidence in these fraternal conferences.

The first event of this kind scheduled is the Odd Fellows Grand Lodge of Virginia, which meets May 14-17, and during part of this time the Improved Order of Red Men will assemble. This latter order will represent the landing of Captain John Smith. Three ships will be built to represent the Godspeed, the Susan Constant and the Discovery and, both palaces and red skins will be represented in appropriate costume. They will have a log house or building in which will be displayed all relics of the aborigines and everything of historical nature that relates to the first American, the Indian. The great council of Red Men will occur at the exposition September 9-16.

On May 21st, the Virginia branch of the Junior Order of United Americans will meet and the State council of the same order on October 13-14. June 5th the National Order of Heptasophs, or Seven Wise Men, will meet, and June 16th the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. August 6th, the Knights of Columbus, and August 11th the National Haymakers' association.

The Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias will encamp by brigades on the military camp ground of the exposition, and it is expected that several thousand knights will be in attendance. The Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, Tennessee and Georgia brigades will be in camp from July 29th to August 3rd, inclusive, and the Ohio brigades from August 3rd to August 10th, inclusive. Brigades from other States will be assigned dates later, but their encampments will be held in July. Major B. E. Rice, senior major of the First Virginia regiment, has charge of the K. of P. features of the exposition.

August 11-17 the national encampment of the Knights of the Macabees will be held at the exposition and it is expected that at least 30,000 from the United States and Canada will attend. August 18-24 is given to the Woodmen of the World, and September 2-7 to the Fraternal Order of Eagles. At this latter meeting it is expected that there will be 50,000 members of the order present. September 25th is given to the convention of the Society of Colonial Wars. September 26-27 the national association of veterans of the Mexican war; October 7-9, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia; October 10-11, the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Virginia; October 11, the Daughters of the Revolution; October 11-12, Sons of the Revolution; October 15-17, Ancient and Illustrious Knights of Malta; November 11-13, American Federation of Labor; November 13-14, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Many of these conventions will be held in the vast convention hall of the administration building, which has a seating capacity of five thousand.

Ask for the Genuine

And see that you get what you ask for

The largely increased demand for Sun Cured tobacco, created and sustained by the distinctive quality of the original Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco, has encouraged other manufacturers to place on the market imitation brands and tags which are made to look so near like the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured that unsuspecting chewers and dealers receive the imitations under the belief that they are getting the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco.

Look close and see that the letters on the tag R-e-y-n-o-l-d-s' Sun Cured, and you cannot be in getting what you ask for and want, from the genuine Sun Cured tobacco, grown where the best sun-cured tobacco grows.

ASK FOR "REYNOLDS" and see that you get the original and genuine Sun Cured tobacco.

It's like you formerly got, before Reynolds' Sun Cured was offered to the trade, costing from 60c to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 50c per pound in 5c cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.
