

MANNING, BETHEA AND SHEALY SWEEP THE PALMETTO STATE

Dr. J. T. Jeter Elected Supervisor and Joseph Sanders Elected Magistrate of Union Township---Tabulated Vote of Union County.

The second primary passed off in Union and throughout the county as quietly as one could wish. So far as can be learned there was no disorder at any point in the county.

Dr. J. T. Jeter was elected supervisor by a majority of 179 votes. Joseph Sanders was elected magistrate for Union township by a majority of 243 votes. Bishop was elected township commissioner for Jonesville township by a majority of 89 votes. Davis was elected township commissioner for Bogansville township by a majority of 19 votes. Brock was elected magistrate at Black Rock. Quinn was elected magistrate at Buffalo.

The table below gives the votes at the various precincts and we venture the assertion that the official count will differ but little, if any, from the count given below. Manning carried Union county by 179 votes. Bethea carried the county by 1 vote. Shealey carried the county by 1050 votes, his opponent, Fortner, receiving 921 while Shealey's vote was 1971.

In the State at large Manning, Bethea and Shealey were swept into office by overwhelming majorities.

COTTON CONGRESS HELD SATURDAY

NEGRO BURNS TO DEATH AT WILLIAMSTON JAIL

While Attempting to Burn His Way to Freedom Negro Perishes in Flames.

Greenville, Sept. 7.—While attempting to burn his way to freedom, Andy White, colored, was burned to death early yesterday morning in the Williamston jail. This is the verdict of the coroner's jury arrived at though there is no way of knowing whether or not this is the true version of the affair.
About four o'clock yesterday morning the guard house was discovered to be on fire and burning fiercely. There was no way to put the flames out, and when the timbers had all fallen in and only the remains of the timbers and bars lay smoldering upon the ground the body of White, the only prisoner, was taken out and laid under a nearby tree where the coroner and his jury investigated.

White was said to be from Greenville, and was about 20 years of age. It was said that he has spent a great part of the past few years upon the chain-gang. However that may be, he was in jail charged with stealing a pair of trousers.
It is believed that the negro intended burning a hole in the side of the jail and through this gaining his freedom. When the smoke and flames grew thick, it is supposed that he became suffocated and was unable to get out. Only the torso remained, the legs and arms being burned completely off and the body being completely burned to a crisp.—Spartanburg Journal.

WAREHOUSE TO BE LARGER THAN FIRST PLANNED

Will Have Basement—Southern Will Lower Siding at Rear of Building.

The warehouse being constructed by Col. T. C. Duncan will be larger than at first planned. The warehouse will be two stories high, and will have a capacity of 2200 bales stored on end and if piled it will hold more than 4000 bales. The Southern railway will at once lower the siding which runs in the rear of the proposed building so the floor of a car on the siding will be on a level with the floor of the warehouse. The warehouse will be completed in two or three weeks.

"Buy a Bale Movement."

Mr. J. Cohen, who left Tuesday afternoon after voting in the second primary, for Baltimore and the northern markets, urged us to press the slogan "Buy a Bale." Mr. Cohen says he will buy one to four bales at 10 cents, and that there should be enough public spirited citizens to buy and hold one year a thousand bales. The "Buy a Bale" movement is taking strong hold in Atlanta, Columbia and Charleston. We do not know just how much this movement will help the farmer, but it certainly would be better than 7 or 8 cents for cotton, and as far as it goes, would help.

From Spartanburg Journal.

If Editor Rice of The Union Times ever takes a notion to resign, there won't be any difficulty in getting somebody to take his place for almost any newspaper man would be willing to go there after reading one or two clippings from The Times like this: "The editor of The Times has been feasting this week on all sorts of good things. Our friends have kept us supplied with tomatoes, beans, okra and a kind friend brought us two fine, fat chickens. Do you know the editor of a country newspaper has all kinds of luck?"—Union Times.

Betenbaugh-Cunningham.

Miss Maude Cunningham and Mr. Beaty H. Betenbaugh, two popular young people of the South Union community, were married by Rev. L. L. Wagon at his residence in the city of Union, Sunday evening, September 6, at 7 o'clock. Quite a number of friends and relatives were with these young people when they embarked on the sea of life together.

Moonlight Picnic.

A moonlight picnic was given Friday evening at the "Forest" in compliment to Miss Louise Parsons, of Unaka Springs, Tenn., the house guest of Miss Mary Jones. A delicious supper was served and the occasion was most enjoyable. The young people were chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. Paul K. Switzer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Easterling.

Of Interest Here.

Friends in Union have received cards announcing the approaching marriage of Miss May Elizabeth Blackwelder to Rev. W. Warren Lipscomb, which event will be celebrated on Wednesday evening, September 23, at 6:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church in Greenville. Mr. Lipscomb is well known to numbers of people in Union and they are unanimous in wishing for him a long life full of happiness.

Plans Discussed for Holding Present Crop Off Market Unless Price Goes to 12½ Cents Pound—Asked to Reduce Acreage for 1915.

A meeting of the Union branch of the South Carolina division of the Southern Cotton congress was held in the opera house at eleven o'clock Saturday morning. There were about 150 farmers, merchants and bankers present at the meeting.
Plans were discussed for holding the present crop off the market and for a reduction of cotton acreage for next year's crop. The producers of cotton will be asked to sign pledges to withhold at least one-third of this year's crop from the market for a period of twelve months, unless that cotton so held will sell for 12 cents per pound. And to reduce their cotton acreage for 1915 crop to 50 per cent of this 1914 crop as recommended by the State Cotton congress.

The township committees composed of three men from each township are to make this canvass for the retirement of one-third of this year's crop and for acreage reduction for next year as soon as the regular pledge blanks are made ready by the State Cotton congress.
Mr. Emslie Nicholson told the congress that he had made an agreement with the Union-Buffer Mills to use enough of their warehouse to store 2,500 to 3,000 bales until February 1, 1915. Mr. Nicholson said he would secure the use of the warehouse for a longer period of time if possible. He could give no statement as to the cost of the storage of cotton in the warehouse, but said it would be as reasonable as possible as he was not operating it as a money making scheme.

Mr. T. C. Duncan told the congress that he was erecting a warehouse 1,500 to 2,000 capacity which will be ready for storage of cotton in a few weeks. This warehouse will be in charge of a reliable custodian who will be bonded. Charges for storage will be 25 cents per bale per month and insurance charges will be additional.

Those who wish to hold cotton were assured by the bankers here that everything consistent with good sound business principles would be done to aid them.

Thirty-three men handed their names to the secretary with the membership fee of one dollar which made them members in good standing and entitled them to an official badge of the congress. As soon as these badges come to the secretary of the State Cotton congress they will be sent to the county secretary, who will give them out to the members.

It is very gratifying to those who wish to hold cotton to see these gentlemen, Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Duncan, providing proper and adequate warehouse facilities. Everyone interested in the price of cotton is urged to pay his dollar to the secretary and receive a badge.

F. M. FARR, President.
A. G. KENNEDY, Secretary.

Stacy-Wilburn Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Ara Louise Stacy and Mr. Hiram C. Wilburn was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Nannie Stacy Moore on Buford street. Only a few friends and the immediate family of the bride witnessed the ceremony which was said by Dr. J. S. Dill of the First Baptist church. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Ruth Sarratt and ferns and cut flowers made a lovely decoration for the happy occasion.

The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of blue cloth and her chic fall hat with gloves to match completed a most becoming toilet.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn left for Washington where they will spend two weeks, going later to Union to make their home.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Stacy and belongs to one of the oldest and most prominent families in the county. She is a graduate of the Presbyterian college of North Carolina and has been teaching for the past two years in South Carolina and Florida. She possesses an unusually attractive personality and it is with sincere regret her friends give her up to make her home in another city.

Mr. Wilburn is a popular young business man of Union, who held a responsible government position with the State for several years. He graduated at Clemson with the class of 1908.—Gaffney Ledger.

House Burned.

Riley Whitmire, a colored man living on Mr. B. G. Wilburn's plantation had the misfortune to lose his house and all the contents by fire Tuesday. Two bales of cotton stored in the house were lost.

"Some" Cotton Picker.

Tom Weeks, on route 3, is "some" cotton picker. On last Friday, September 4th, between 10 and 11 o'clock he picked 435 pounds and lost two hours in the meantime.
