"Style is the man himself"—and his clothes prove it—

CLOTHES DO NOT MAKE THE MAN—
—They Reveal Him—

Therefore clothes either correctly represent you or misrepresent you. If right they are a big help. If wrong they clash and subtract from your style and personality.

Styleplus Clothes $17

"The same price the world over"

are made in such a wide range of styles and in so many different kinds of fabrics that you can pick out a stylish suit that matches your style.

Do you know that there are many suits sold for $20 and $25 that are not hand tailored in the vital parts, that are not designed by a fashion artist, that are not guaranteed?

Yet for $17 the makers of STYLEPLUS have been able to produce all of these qualities, including guaranteed satisfaction, because they specialize on one suit.

Try a STYLEPLUS this Fall, either in a suit or an overcoat. Make sure that your clothes are a help instead of a handicap.

WINTHROP COLLEGE NOTES.

Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., October 12, 1914.—To the Editor of The Times: The purpose of the correspondence club is to keep the people of South Carolina in touch with the Winthrop students.

There are 891 students in college here this year. This is the largest number that has ever attended Winthrop.

President Johnson has been asked by the Panama-Pacific exposition authorities to send an exhibit of the Winthrop Farm school next year.

The first number of our lyceum course is to be given Monday night, October 12, in the college auditorium.

The course, as a whole, seems to be the best we have ever had. Reed Miller, a native of South Carolina, who is a noted tenor singer is one of the performers tonight. The price of our Star-course tickets is very cheap. Students and college officers may obtain season tickets for $1.25. This amounts to about twelve and one-half cents for each number.

Dr. Henry F. Cope, secretary of the Religious Education association, gave four helpful and interesting lectures to the student body last week.

The Young Woman's Christian association, with a membership of over 600, is the largest and most influential organization at Winthrop college. The work for the year has been definitely and systematically planned. A canvas is now being made by members of the association in its various branches. Part of this money goes to pay the salary of a Y. W. C. A. secretary in Madras, India and part will go toward the building of the Winthrop-Clemson cottage at Black Mt., N. C. Winthrop Notes.

PAINT OR NOT.

Is a horse worth more or less after feed?

Hay and oats are high today; shall I wait today and feed him tomorrow? That's how men do about painting their houses and barns and fences. Paint has been high for several years; and so they have waited. Some are still waiting.

Their property drops a trifle a year and the next job of paint creeps-up creeps-up; it'll take more paint by a gallon a year; they don't save a cent, and the property goes on suffering.

A DEFINITE PURPOSE.

To be successful in saving one should have a definite purpose. Merely saving at random will not bring the greatest success. Endeavor to save a certain amount by a certain time, lay away a certain sum each week or month. In this way saving becomes a fascinating pleasure. Deposits of $1.00 or more bear 4 per cent compound interest in this bank.
