FORMER PRESIDENT IS KILLED IN MIAMI

Adam A. Boggs With His 18-Year-Old Daughter Brutally Murdered With An Axe.

Adam A. Boggs, the prominent Florida lawyer, who, with his 18-year-old daughter, Majorie, was murdered with an axe last Wednesday night in his handsome country residence in the suburbs of Miami—the slayer or slayers afterward firing the dwelling to conceal the crime—was a son of the Rev. William Ellison Boggs, D. D., formerly of Columbia. Mr. Boggs was 45 years of age.

The Rev. Dr. Boggs, his father, has been since 1909 secretary of the committee on schools and colleges of the Southern Presbyterian general assembly. Dr. Boggs was born in British India in 1838, the son of the Rev. George W. Boggs, whose wife was before her marriage Isabella W. Ellison. He was sent to America to be educated. He was graduated from South Carolina college in 1859 with the bachelor of arts degree and received from the same institution in 1862 the master of arts degree. He was graduated from the Columbia Theological seminary in 1862. The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him by Southwestern Presbyterian university in 1873 and that of LL. D. by Central University of Kentucky in 1899.

Dr. Boggs was married in 1870 to Miss Marion B. Alexander of Washington, Ga., sister to the late Gen. E. P. Alexander of Savannah and the late Mrs. Alexander Cheves Haskell of Columbia, who died in October, 1912.

Shortly after his ordination in 1862 to the Presbyterian ministry, Dr. Boggs was appointed chaplain to the Sixth South Carolina infantry, Confederate States army, and in that work he continued to the end of the War Between the Sections.

Twice Dr. Boggs was a resident of Columbia, first as pastor of the First Presbyterian church, 1866-71, later, 1882-85, as professor of ecclesiastical history and church government in Columbia seminary. Other pastorates which he held were in Memphis, Atlanta and Jacksonville. He was chancellor of the University of Georgia for ten years, beginning with 1888. He has served several terms as a director of Columbia seminary.

Numbers of Columbians remember the late Adam Boggs, who grew to manhood while his father was a member of the seminary faculty. The family resided at that time in the dwelling at the southwest corner of Main and Senate streets. Thomas Boggs, his brother, is a member of the staff of Johns Hopkins hospital, at Baltimore.—The State.

The Greatest Grain Grown in America

GROW SUDAN GRASS

The most wonderful grass of the age introduced and endorsed by the U. S. Agricultural Dept., tested severely by the farmers in all parts of Texas and strongly recommended by the Farmers' Congress. Will grow anywhere sorghum does from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Makes more and better hay than any other plant known. Under ordinary conditions produces 300 to 600 pounds of grain and 3 to 6 tons of choice hay per acre the same season. Adapted to all sorts of soil and resists drought and stands rain well. Takes 2 to 4 pounds of seed to sow an acre in drills and 16 to 24 pounds broadcast. Quality of hay equals timothy and all kinds of livestock prefer it to alfalfa, while poultry fight for the seed. Last spring the seed sold for $2 to $4 per pound and all who grew it then expect to plant more another year. It is now selling for $1 per pound and will go higher before Spring as the supply is limited and the demand steadily on the increase. We will send prepaid pure Sudan seed for $1 per pound in lots of 50 pounds and under, not less than one pound considered. Larger lots by freight cheaper. Better order now and be sure of getting your seed and save money besides; then make more money next season. Everyone who can should grow Sudan grass. Address: Ellagene Farm, Box 15, Aldine, Harris County, Texas.

JONESVILLE

Jonesville, Dec. 1.—Sunday was one rainy day but the Sunday schools all held their services and Rev. W. S. Porter preached at his church in the morning.

At a regular communication of Prudence Lodge No. 139 A. F. M. held Saturday night the following officers were elected and appointed for the ensuing year: Dr. M. W. Chambers, worshipful master; Dr. G. W. E. Smith, senior warden; J. T. Hodge, junior warden; R. A. Black, treasurer; J. W. Bates, secretary; Dr. H. T. Hames, senior deacon; R. W. Hamilton, junior deacon; J. S. Kendrick, Louis Bucie, steward; Rubin Kirby, teller. The installation will be given at 3 p. m., December 26.

A wire from Rev. J. A. Cook at Sumter Monday morning stated that he would go to Duncan next year and Rev. W. B. Justus would come to Jonesville circuit.

Saturday was a pretty good day with the merchants. Several bales of cotton were put on the market here last week at 7 1/4 cents for the best.

Thanksgiving service was held by the Epworth League Thursday night in the main auditorium of the church. A nice appropriate program was rendered after which the officers of the league marched to the basement of the church where light refreshments were served by a bevy of young ladies with their kitchen aprons on, being the waiters; after which there was a spelling bee by two sides. The words given out were taken from the old blue back spelling book.

Mr. W. A. McWhirter, who has been quite unwell all this year, has been confined to his home for the last week. I spent most of last week down on Brown's creek with Mrs. Banks Harris and I looked over the plantation where I spent my boyhood days.

All over the old plantation I wandered—when I was young. There many days I squandered—many the songs I sung. And "the old oaken bucket still hangs in the well."

Miss Pauline Crawford is on an extended visit to her cousin Miss Milly Littlejohn at Atlanta.

Mr. T. H. Gore returned today from a seven days trip to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wood, Mr. A. P. Eison and Miss Anna Hames attended the Hamilton-Massey wedding last week.

Capt. and Mrs. F. M. Farr, Mrs. Julia Rainey, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Going were among the Unionites attending the Hamilton-Massey wedding on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Banks Harris of Brown Creek, who has been planning to move to Texas, has decided not to go, much to the delight of her many friends.

While in my old neighborhood last week I spent the day with Mr. George Bentley and Mr. Robert Palmer, who joined in a Thanksgiving dinner and such a dinner one does not sit down or up to every day. The table seated a dozen and it was loaded down with so many good things that I will not undertake to enumerate them, but will say that two fat possums, weighing 13 pounds were one of the many tempting dishes. I don't care for many courses when I have possum and taters and good old 'simmon beer.

Mr. T. A. Littlejohn, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis several days ago, has gone to the hospital in Charlotte for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Halter of Frederick City, Md., are the guests of Dr. G. W. B. Smith.

Miss Mary Williamson of Lancaster spent the week-end with her sister Miss Margaret Williamson at Mrs. L. J. Fowler's.

Mrs. John Kendrick of Cherokee county is visiting relatives in Jonesville. Telephone.

New Pardon Record.

The pardon record, for one day, previously held by the governor of South Carolina, has been excelled by Gov. Colquitt of Texas. A dispatch from Austin the day before Thanksgiving announced that the chief executive of the Lone Star State had liberated 158 prisoners. The South Carolina governor's best record is 105 cases in one day. Since assuming office the governor of this State has extended clemency in 1,432 cases.

BACK TO THE PENITENTIARY

Cleve Paul Violated Parole and Must Complete Term.

The governor has written magistrate E. Powers to send Cleve Paul back to the penitentiary to finish serving his term for putting out a woman's eye with a bottle. The sentence was three years and Paul had served a little over a year when the governor gave him a parole on condition that he behave himself and stop drinking.

About Nov. 1, Paul, in a drunken condition, entered the home of W. H. Huckabee, through a window, about 2 a. m., and used abusive, profane and obscene language in the presence of Mrs. Huckabee.

Paul was arraigned before Judge Powers who took the testimony and sent it to the governor, with a request as to what to do with Paul. In the meantime Paul was kept in jail. After waiting about two weeks Judge Powers has received instruction from the governor to send Paul back to the penitentiary, where he has nearly two years to serve.—The Pee Dee Advocate.
