

Our Greatest Offer

A YEAR'S READING FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

MADE FOR YOU

The Progressive Farmer is made to cover conditions as they are in the South. Yes, sir—made for you—and if you will read and heed its teachings you will raise more cotton per acre, more corn per acre, more and better livestock, and make a money producing factory out of your farm.

MADE FOR YOUR WIFE

The Progressive Farmer has the strongest, most practical household department of any agricultural paper in the South. Its many features make a special appeal to our women readers and help them as it does the men.

MADE FOR YOUR CHILDREN

The Progressive Farmer has a regular department for farm boys and girls, and a serial story for both young and old. In fact it is a paper for every member of the family.

The Best Two for All the Family—Both Leaders in Their Line

THE HOUSEWIFE

We are happy indeed to introduce and to be able to make a clubbing arrangement that will enable our readers to have The Housewife the coming year.

The stories are high-class in every way—stories that will appeal to and please you, many with gripping excitement and interest—holding qualities.

Particular attention is given by The Housewife to seasonal, sensible cooking, household hints, and matters of particular interest to mother and child.

The Housewife is a large, well printed magazine; subscription price, 50 cents per year. It is only because the publishers are anxious to develop their subscription list in the South that we have been able to secure a rate on these subscriptions that enable us to include it in this year's clubbing offer with The Progressive Farmer. We know you will be highly pleased if you decide to take the club, including The Housewife.

This great combination of farm sense, farm help, fiction, fashion, fancy work and good cheer for the entire family at

Good-by, Old Year!

GOOD-BY, Old Year! With words of grace, Leave us with him who takes your place, And say, Old Year, unto the New, "Kindly, carefully, carry them through, For much, I ween, they have yet to do."

—John Godfrey Saxe.

THE COMMUNITY TREE

For all we know the idea originated in New York—cold unfeeling New York City! They call it the "Tree of Light," this beautiful fir all illuminated with myriad of lights, around which thousands of rich and poor gather on Christmas day, while beautiful voices sing of peace on earth, and bands play, so that none is too poor to enter into the joys of Christmas time.

This tree, set up in Madison Square some four Christmases ago has shed its cheery rays over the entire country so that this year reports are published from every section of the United States telling of the inauguration of similar trees by cities and towns.

Whatever else Chesterfield does, she ought next Christmas to have a community tree—one tree for everybody who will come, without distinction of creed or faith.

One tree, around which the whole community could gather in lovely democratic unity would do wonders in uniting us all in that spirit of brotherly love, about which we sing and theorize, but seldom practice.

This tree also would afford an excellent opportunity for the generous hearted to see that Santa Claus visited every poor little girl or boy in the community, and this without any show of charity.

A new spirit is awakening in Chesterfield, the spirit of community interest. This awakening is evidenced by the fact that certain citizens of the town have risked the expense of bringing a Chautauqua here. Let these same citizens, endorsed by the ladies, put on the program for next year a community tree for Chesterfield.

THE PRESIDENT'S MARRIAGE

The entire press of the country North and South, has had the kindest expressions of good will for the President upon his marriage. But of all the kind words referring to the event none seem more appropriate or more appreciative than this simple tribute from the St. Louis Republic:

"For almost a year and a half the American Ship of State has been among the breakers. Issues of incalculable moment hang upon the wheel. No other man in the nation has such need as has the President of hope and cheer, of that firm confidence in facing the world which is so greatly strengthened by the loving ministrations of home. The congratulations and affectionate good wishes of one hundred millions of people will follow Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson as they depart upon their wedding journey."

The Democratic National Convention will be held in St. Louis in June and the Republican convention will be held one week earlier in Chicago.

Before adjourning for the holidays Congress passed the act extending the emergency revenue tax for a year. It is thought the tax will produce $82,000,000 during the year.

Employees of railroads to the number of 400,000 will vote on the eighth hour day. Nearly 500 railroads will be affected by the action of the men if they vote for the demand. Sixty days will be allowed for the vote.

A letter mailed in Illinois in 1860 has just now reached the person to whom it was addressed in Los Angeles, California. As the letter was started in the days of stage coaches it must have gone by easy stages.

A new plant is being erected at Kingsport Tennessee by the Federal Chemical and Dye Stuff company that will employ several thousand men. Thus does the South go marching on to prosperity.

The Congressional Record, that fine old daily, has started up again. It only lacks Mutt and Jeff or Charlie Chaplin to make it lively. But Uncle Joe Cannon is in Congress now; maybe he will supply the fun.

The planters of Harris county, Georgia, are going into wheat raising on a large scale. In one section of the county preparations are being made for ten thousand bushels. Let our South Carolina farmers get busy and beat our sister state "good and plenty."

Now that the time has been fixed for the two great National Conventions of both parties the presidential bee is buzzing in the bonnet of several Republican leaders. Kentucky Republicans have formally endorsed ex-Vice President Fairbank's and there are others looking longingly at the White House. But its no use. Woodrow Wilson and his new wife will occupy the White House next four years.

Master's sale.

State of South Carolina, Chesterfield County.

Pursuant to a decree heretofore granted in the case of John K. Pegues, Plaintiff vs Mary Black, Defendant, I will offer for sale before the court house door in Chesterfield, S. C., on the first Monday in January, 1916 (the same being the third day of said month,) between the legal hours of sale, to the highest bidder described real estate, to wit:

All that certain tract of land in Chesterfield County, State aforesaid, containing approximately fifty acres, and being the extreme Southern portion of that tract of land conveyed to Mary Black by Frank Thomas by deed dated April 16, 1910 and recorded in Deed Book No. 30 at page 139, in office of Clerk of Court for Chesterfield County. This tract of fifty acres is more fully described as commencing at a stake where Robert Allen's and William Powe's land corner on this tract of land, running due East from said corner in a line to Spring Branch; thence following said branch South to a corner—dead pine on corner of this land and Lem Little's; thence West to a stake where this land connects with land of Lem Little and William Powe; thence North to the starting point, to wit: a stake.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts upon the blood and the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
