Quits a crowd was attracted to the show window o the Southern Public Utilities compuny, yessedyay afternoon by the very ciever mechanical demonstration of the young girl troning with an electric tron.

The model of this mechanical dummy is said to be the daughter of the treatient of the General Electric company.

The sirl standing and froning with a very pleased expression on har face conveys the idea that it is much cooler and pleasanter to Iron with an electric tron than with any other.

FEMALE MINSTRELS AT THE PALMETTO

Bon Ton Musical Comedy Co. Making a Decided Hit This Week.

"The Bon Ton Female Minstrels" as played yesterday afternoon at the Palmetto by the Crawford & Homphreys Bon Ton Musical Comedy Co., was the best female minstrel shown in Anderson this season. It was clean and clever throughout.

The two blackfaced comedians, Mel Melyin, who is quite a back and wing danger, and Jack Williams, who has parts in big league style. Dances by Melvin in Imitation of a young man calling on his sweetheart was very clever indeed, while the parady on "That Old Cirl of Mine," as sung by Melvin in Imitation of Mine," as sung by Jack Williams

"That Oid Girl of Mine," as sung by Jack Williams was one of the hits of the show.

The White Oak Quartette rendered soural selections, bringing down the house with each number. Their rendition of "Silver Threads Among the Oold," "Trid Rose Rag", and "Chattanooga" was simply fine, and they were very liberal in their responses to excress

Miss Humphrey sung "Tipperary" with a typical Irish brogue. This proved a popular number as usual "My Plano Man," written by Mr. Mel Melvin, and sung by Miss Melvin, made a decided hit with the audience.

Taking all in all—from curtain to certain—jokes, singing, and dancing, this Female Ministrel as presented yesterday at the Falmette, will be hard to beat at any price.
Manager Pinkston is to be commended for bringing such a clever tab show to Anderson.
