Will Be Deficit In The County's Funds

OF ABOUT $13,000 AFTER ALL TAXES HAVE BEEN PAID

THE GRAND JURY'S PRESENTMENT MADE

Books of County in Good Condition—Several Recommendations are Included.

Yesterday afternoon the general presentment of the grand jury in the September term of court of general sessions' court was read and is as follows:

To Honorable Ernest Moore, Presiding Judge of the Court of General Sessions at Anderson, South Carolina.

The grand jury of Anderson county hereby submits the following general presentment:

"We have passed upon all bills of indictment that have been handed us at this term.

In several of the indictments handed to us the witnesses examined by us did not support the charge alleged therein, and we desire to suggest to the magistrates of the county that they be cautious in sending cases up to the court of general sessions, unless a prima facie case is made before them, as it entails considerable expense to the county in the way of witness fees, and takes up unnecessary time of the officers of the court.

Since the last term of the court of general sessions the books of all the county officers have been examined by an assistant to the state bank examiner, who has reported that he found the books to be correct, as a whole, and well kept by the custodians thereof. This examination was made, upon the request of the grand jury, under the provisions of a recent statute, and without cost to the county, except the sum of fifty dollars paid to an assistant to said auditor account in the examination.

"The supervisor of the county reports to the grand jury that the county, at this time, owes about one hundred and ten thousand dollars.

"The taxes due and to be paid this fall and winter will amount to about ninety-seven thousand dollars. The grand jury hope, before their next report to devise and recommend some plan to pay this deficit and place the county on a cash basis.

"The court house is greatly in need of a water closet for ladies, and we have requested the county supervisor to have one installed as soon as practical in some convenient place therein.

"The committee appointed to examine the books of the county report that only a few of the magistrates have presented their books for examination, which they have found to be satisfactory, they desire to call to the attention of those magistrates who have not heretofore had their books examined to do so at once, and insist that they do so before the November term of court of general sessions, as we desire to make a complete report thereon at that time.

"The committee on roads and bridges report that they find the roads and bridges of the county in good condition.

"The committee on schools report that they found the condition of the schools of the county satisfactory. The buildings are good and well equipped, throughout the county, and the relation of faith and confidence existing between the trustees, patrons, teachers and pupils in the various school districts.

"The county superintendent of education reports that the deficit in the school fund has been reduced now to about twelve hundred dollars, and this is due by a few of the weaker districts in the county. He also states that, owing to the readjustment of the valuation of real property in the county, the taxes for school purposes will not be so large this year as they were last.

"The committee on the county home report that they have inspected same and find everything there in good condition, the inmates are well taken care of by competent and kind attendants, that the crops growing on the land indicate a large yield for the ensuing year. They also report that the supervisor has completed the erection of a new dining room and kitchen, which was requested by the grand jury in their last report.

"The committee on the chain gang report that they have visited all the convict camps and they found the prisoners properly cared for, well guarded and comfortably quartered and the miles of the county in good condition.

"We desire to express our thanks to the His Honor, as well as the Solicitor and all the officers of the court say shown us at this term.

"Respectfully,
"Jas. R. Anderson,
"Foreman."

ORDERED A MISTRIAL IN THE LABOONE CASE

JURY COULD NOT REACH VERDICT AFTER SIX HOURS

BILLS RETURNED

No Jury Cases to Be Heard Today—Second Week Jurors and Witnesses Monday Morning.

Judge Ernest Moore yesterday afternoon ordered a mistrial in the case of the state against Walter and Will Laboone, charged with murder at 6 o'clock when the jury reported for the second time during the afternoon that they could not reach a verdict. This case occupied the attention of the court nearly all of Thursday and yesterday until 12:30. The jury was tied up about six hours.

The following bills were returned by the grand jury yesterday: Shortly after the dinner recess yesterday the grand jury reported that they had passed on all indictments handed them. The judge then ordered them to prepare the general presentment which was made a short time afterwards.

All witnesses were excused yesterday afternoon for this week. The attention of the court will be occupied today in hearing appeals and motions for new trials. The second week jurors and witnesses are asked to be present Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Was Charge and He Was Arrested Thursday By Sheriff Ashley After Complaint Was Made.

The case of Robert McGee, arrested Thursday after complaint had been made by a magistrate at 10 to the grand jury, was given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Geiger yesterday morning and resulted in the defendant being turned loose.

The story of the arrest and the complaint of Magistrate McAllister appeared in The Intelligencer of Friday morning. The evidence as brought out in the preliminary yesterday was not enough to warrant the holding of McGee.
