INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By O. E. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 19

DEFEAT THROUGH DRUNKENNESS.

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 20:10-21. GOLDEN TEXT—Wine and new wine take away the understanding. Hos. 4:11 R. V.

We feel somewhat like questioning the title of this lesson. It can be used as a temperance lesson no doubt, but to attribute Ben-hadad's defeat entirely to drunkenness is not quite true to the facts. Jehovah's jealousy of his name (v. 13) and the enemies' contempt for Jehovah (vv. 23, 28) are the fundamental causes of the defeat of the Syrians though, of course, drunkenness, as an exhibition of self-indulgence and therefore of weakness, was a natural accompaniment of that contempt for God.

I. Ahab's Predicament, vv. 10-12. The Syrian king's contemptuous treatment of Ahab (vv. 1-7) at last became so great that in sheer desperation the people refused to listen to his demands (v. 8). His forces far overwhelmed the little army of Israel (v. 1, 10, 27), but one was on Ahab's side who had not yet withdrawn his mercy from Israel and with whom Ben-hadad could not cope (v. 13; Rom. 8:31; Phil. 4:13). Ben-hadad was the most powerful monarch of his time of those nations bordering upon the Mediterranean. The march of his army was like "a tempest of hail, an overwhelming scourge" with unrestrained power. The effect was worse than the plagues of Egypt. But Ben-hadad was a drunkard, a habitual one (vv. 12-16). Samaria was rich and this king wanted it even as intertempers always lusts after the wealth of youth and the gold of a nation (vv. 3, 12). Drink always makes a fool of its victim and dooms to ultimate defeat all who yield to its power (ch. 16:9; II Sam. 13:28; Prov. 31:4-5; Luke 21:24; Eph. 5:18).

II. God's Prophet, vv. 13-15. It was indeed dark for Ahab. He saw (v. 13) the host confronting him but he also heard the word of Jehovah. As contrasted with Jehovah that multitude was but as a handful of dust. God is on the side of temperance. All of God's laws favor temperance. Our ever-living glorified leader and the energizing power of the holy spirit are the ones who are the source of our victories over all principalities and powers of evil. Ahab's predicament is answered by God's "I will deliver" (v. 13) and so today we have his sure promise of victory (Eph. 6:10-12). God has today set forth his prophets (I Cor. 12:28) to proclaim his message of salvation and power to overcome intemperance. This is not a "necessary evil." Experts and scientists have clearly demonstrated its being unnecessary and a drag upon society, and God has taught us how to overcome it. Ahab's unfortunate character appears at its best in this story, but alas he and his successors soon forgot the lesson.

III. Victorious Princes, vv. 16-21. To Ahab's question "by whom" is this deliverance to be wrought, God answers, "by the young men of the princes of the provinces" (v. 14). These choice young fellows are mustered in, 232 of them, as leaders of an army of 7,000, all who could be found in the capital. God delights to work through young men (I John 2:13, 14) and the pages of history are strewn with the victorious achievements of youth.

Two-thirds of Lincoln's army were under twenty-one years of age at their enlistment; the Union was preserved by an army of boys.

Ahab himself is the leader (v. 14) and they began at once by carrying the battle into the enemies' territory. Ben-hadad and his drinking companions never dreamed of being attacked at that hour. Like Gideon and his army these young men smote the Syrian host in overwhelming defeat. Israel's enemies had incapacitated themselves. A drunken mob is no match for even a handful of organized and sober men. These thirty-three kings courted their own defeat (Prov. 23:29-32; Eccl. 11:10; Hos. 4:11). Ben-hadad's kings "who helped him" (v. 15) proved to be a load for all the strength and support they rendered him in the moment of his need.

It was the young men who went first, S. S. struck the first blow. Ben-hadad's self-confidence and boasting (v. 13) is but another illustration of that "pride which goes before destruction" (Prov. 16:18; Luke 14:14).

The army of Israel was small (v. 15) but it did not hesitate to attack the superior force and that sort of faith will always induce others which will "follow them" (v. 15).

Every man "blew his man," each did his part—played the game and played it fair—and the result was a host in full flight and the handful of Israelites in pursuit (v. 20).

God saved Israel that day for the use of young men. Teachers, do you realize your opportunity? It is ours to arouse in youth a realization of its capacities, advantages, opportunities and responsibilities; to inspire them with a determination to be of service; to instruct them in God's plan of campaign and to link them with the Young Man of Nazareth, "the Captain of Salvation."

BIG ALLIGATOR KILLED BY TRAIN

Seven Foot 'Gator Struck While Investigating Wreck on Atlantic Coast Line.

During the time that the wrecked train was busy at the scene of the ill-fated freight that was wrecked a few miles this side of Savannah about a week ago, an unusual accident occurred. An alligator seems to have made his way out of the dark jungles to the railroad to see what the trouble was, and unfortunately, he was the victim of the railway train. It is said that the reptile evidently became blinded by the glare of the headlights and was unable to get off the track. He was struck by the train and while not instantly killed, he received a severe wound on the tail and then fell into the hands of the conductors, the train crew, who used axes and other heavy instruments to put him out of commission. He was seven feet long and was a pretty saucy looking old fellow.—Florence Times.

BIG FAMILIES IN GERMANY

(Berlin Dispatch.)
The Prussian statistical office has just issued its last year book, containing details of the last Prussian general census taken on December 1, 1910. According to this there were then in Prussia 7,809,320 married widowed and divorced women, of whom only 575,519 had no children. As indicating the distribution of children a family, it may be mentioned that 82,921 women had 12 children; 42,625 had 15; 27,964 had 14; 14,624 had 15, and 17,337 16 children or more each. As many as 789 women had more than 30 children. Altogether the 7,250,000 Prussian mothers had given birth to 23,312,898 children, or an average of four children each.

Newspaper Man Recommends It.
R. R. Wentworth of the St. James (Mo.) News, writes: "Two months ago I took a severe cold which settled in my lungs and I had such pains in my lungs I feared pneumonia. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it straightened me up immediately. I can recommend it to be a genuine cough and lung medicine." Many mothers write this reliable medicine cured their children of cough. May fever and asthma sufferers say it gives quick relief. Sold everywhere.
