LOOPED LOOP TO TOSS GERMAN TO HIS DEATH

Captured Franch Aviator Easily Got Rid of Foe In His Machine.

No stranger tale of escape from captivity has perhaps ever been told in the annals of any war than that parrated by Major de 7., a French aviator, who was recently captured behind German lines when a dense fog caused him to lose his beatings. Captured by the entied to his seat in his own aeroplane and ordered by a German aviator offi-cer, who climbed in behind him, to fly low over the French lines and not to descend or to signal to his fellows under penalty of instant death from a bullet from the German's revolver.

By the simple process of looping the loop Major V. rid himself of his unwelcome passenger captive, who had not taken the precaution to secure himself to his seat. This maneuver, accomplished after a sudden swift flight to a higher attitude, was executed so unex pectedly that the German officer failed to guess his enemy's purpose and plunged from the machine to his death,

SEEK RICHES IN OCEAN.

Millionaires May Try to Raise Lusi-tania and Other Vessels.

Most plausible adventurers have gone within years even recent into the doubting atmosphere of Wall street to spin their tales of pirate gold waiting on the bottom of the sea in roiting hulks for the men of initiative and some cash. The tales and schemes of such have gone stale, but the young blood of Wall street has its longing for fair profit to be galued from honest risk and skillful planning!

German officers and soldiers home or eave or because of wounds are adopt ing the card system of heading off would be interviewers and inquisitive friends who want to know all about the war, according to a report from a small town in northern Germany print-ed in a recent issue of the Frankfurier Zeitung. The correspondent tells how he met a friend who was an army officer and how, after greetings had been exchanged, the officer remarked, "Read this before you ask any questions," and banded him a card reading as fol-

"I am wearing the uniform of the th cavalry regiment. "I have come unwounded from the front at N.

"I am on leave until -"I do not believe there will be further great advance in the east. "I cannot tell, and even Hindenburg knows no more on this point than I do, when peace will be problemed."

Whiskers Coming I.: Again. Whiskers are coming into style again More important, the cost of losing 'em-is going up. The reason? The war has raised the cost of soap, tay rum and the other articles used in bather shops about 20 per cent.

Fast Game Goes To Orr

Riverside Downed by Leaders Afternoon 4 to 2-Good Game Next Saturday

One of the most theilling and best played games of baseball witnessed on the will league lots this season was staged at Riverside yesterday af-ternoon, that club being downed by the Orr aggregation by a count of to 2. A large and enthusiastic to 2. A large and enthus crowd of fans witnessed the

In addition to pitching 3 high class game, McAlister, the Orr mill slabster, drove in one of the runs made by his club, when he clouted the pill for three bases in the first of the second inning. The Orr club has won both games played this season, and it now looks as if they would make a strong bid for the pennant.

Next Saturday afternoon Orr clashes with Equinox on their own lot and as these clubs have won both games played this season, predictions are made for the hottest battle of the season.
