GREECE NEAR BANKRUPTCY

Venizelos Declares Army is Not Fit to Take the Field.
(Athens Dispatch to New York Sun.)
Former Premier Venizelos has contributed an article to The Athens Herald in which he points out what he considers the mistakes made by the Greek government.
He condemns the "blustering methods" of Premier Skoufoudis and states that the army, which he says has worn out uniforms and boots as well as part of the equipment furnished at the mobilization, could not take the field within less than two months and then only if the entente powers underlook to furnish the necessary equipment. The task of feeding the army, he says, is becoming daily more problematical. The former premier hints that Greece is on the verge of bankruptcy and says: "While there is only one road to salvation, it is precisely that which we will not follow."
The article makes a strong bid for closer relations between Greece and the allies "before it is too late."
