The News and Herald office is fully equipped for doing your job printing. The increase in the amount of the work it has done so far this year as compared with last year is full evidence of the satisfactory work done.

The Democratic clubs meet Saturday.

This is great weather for gardening.

Mrs. H. A. Gaillard is visiting relatives in Charleston.

Mr. D. G. Ellison of Columbia spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Aiken of Chester spent Sunday in town.

Attend the meeting of your Democratic club Saturday.

The rains of last week were very favorable to the small grain crop.

Miss Ellen Ellison's school at Hop has closed, and she is again at home.

Miss Helen McMaster of Columbia attended the Kennerly-McMaster marriage.

That West Point vacancy should surely be competed for by some Fairfield boy.

Mr. Chairman of Democratic club: see that your club is called to meet Saturday.

A little negro child was burned to death on Mr. J. D. Harden's place last week.

Mr. J. E. Pressly returned to Erskine College Monday after a stay of a few days in town.

Better never to have set your hens than to let the little chicks die for the want of attention.

Hon. Jno. J. McMahan is to make an address at the closing of the Greenbrier graded school.

Col. S. M. Rice and his daughter, Mrs. Perry, are spending awhile in town with relatives.

Mr. George McCants of the South Carolina College spent several days at home last week.

Miss Rachel McMaster of Liberty Hill came home to attend the Kennerly-McMaster wedding.

Winnsboro now has only one barber shop which is at the shop heretofore occupied by Montague.

Mrs. W. R. Doty visited her daughter, Miss Annie, at the Presbyterian College for Women last week.

Mrs. J. E. Reid has returned to Rock Hill. Her mother, Mrs. J. B. Campbell, went with her for a short visit.

Samuel Lindsay, M. D., attended the meeting of the State Medical Association in Spartanburg last week.

That garden of yours is too valuable to be neglected for your cotton, for your corn, or for anything else on the farm.

The pastor of Wayman A. M. E. Church requests the announcement that special services are Kennerly-McMaster.

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Rachel Buchanan McMaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McMaster, was united in marriage to Mr. James Law Kennerly, of Newberry.

The church was beautifully decorated with geraniums, ferns and palms. The masses of green banked up against a background of white made a pretty and pleasing effect.

When the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, skillfully played by Mrs. David Walker, pealed forth, the ushers advanced up the aisles. They were Messrs. E. A. Carlisle and I. H. Hunt, of Newberry, and C. A. Stevenson and G. B. McMaster, of Winnsboro. Next came the bride stylishly attired in a traveling suit of castor, carrying a graceful bunch of yellow jessamine with long drooping ends. With her was her maid of honor, Miss Alice McMaster, in a suit of white pique. She carried a large bunch of lilacs, which contrasted prettily with the other colors.

At the chancel they were met by the groom with his best man, Mr. F. N. Martin, of Newberry, who entered from the vestry. Rev. C. E. McDonald, in a very impressive and appropriate manner, made them man and wife.

The bride has for several years been a successful teacher in the Newberry graded school, and the groom travels for the Carolina Manufacturing Company of the same place.

Friday evening, at the bride's home, the bridal party and a few intimate friends of the family were entertained at an informal and delightful reception.

The many friends of the bride and groom testified their appreciation of them by the number of useful and elegant presents given them.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennerly, amid a shower of rice and good wishes, left immediately after the ceremony for Savannah and Charleston, thence to Newberry their future home.

Lumber—50,000 feet of undressed lumber for sale at close prices. J. O. Boag.

FISH.—A big shipment of fish including fine shad to arrive Saturday morning.

A most appropriate book at this time is Hampton and his Cavalry. McMaster Co. have it; also Paris green for potato bugs.

You Know What You Are Taking When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

Off for Charleston.

This is Mt. Zion week at the Charleston exposition and Winnsboro is well represented. Forty-eight tickets were sold yesterday for the special coach on which the party left. In the party were several from Albion and Flint Hill. Several others were to join them at Rockton.

A Coming Marriage.

In the Presbyterian church on the evening of April the thirtieth, at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Clara Louise Herron will be married to Mr. Arthur Maynard Owens. No cards will be issued in Winnsboro, but the presence of all friends and relatives is desired.

Club Meetings.

The Horeb Democratic club will meet at Haws' old store Saturday, 26th inst., at 3 o'clock p. m. to reorganize and send delegates to county convention. Full attendance requested.

J. W. Clark, President.

The Oakland club will meet at Durham's on the 26th, Saturday, at 12 o'clock to reorganize and elect delegates to county convention.

John Hollis, President.

A Doctor's Bad Plight.

"Two years ago, as a result of a severe cold, I lost my voice," writes Dr. M. L. Scarbrough, of Hebron, Ohio, "then began an obstinate cough. Every remedy known to me as a practicing physician for 35 years, failed, and I daily grew worse. Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have left better than for two years." Positively guaranteed for Throat and Lung troubles by McMaster Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Cash in Advance.

Believing that it will prove mutually advantageous to the publishers and subscribers of The News and Herald, we have decided to adopt the cash-in-advance system for all subscriptions, and we shall partially begin this system June 1.

All subscribers who are still due anything for 1901 are hereby notified that they must pay up the amount due by June 1, or make satisfactory arrangements for the payment of the same. All who fail to comply with this notice are hereby notified that their paper will be stopped June 1, and their accounts placed in the hands of a collection agency.

All subscribers whose subscription is paid up to Jan. 1, 1902, and not up to the present date, are asked to come forward and pay their subscription for this year at least in part and in full if possible.

An Ice and Meat Talk.

We have received our first car of ice to-day and will be pleased to fill orders promptly from a penny's worth to a ton. We have also purchased an elegant meat refrigerator with an ice capacity of two thousand pounds, where we will keep our fresh meats for our customers during the summer season. Having gone to this extra expense for the care of our meat we speak for your patronage both for ice and meat and guarantee satisfaction.

W. D. Tennant & Co.

Saved Many a Time.

Don't neglect coughs and colds even if it is spring. Such cases often result seriously at this season just because people are careless. A dose of One Minute Cough Cure will remove all danger. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, and other throat and lung troubles. "I have used One Minute Cough Cure several years," says Postmaster C. O. Dawson, Barr. Ill. "It is the very best cough medicine on the market. It has saved me many a severe spell of sickness and I warmly recommend it." The children's favorite. McMaster Co.

Married.

Last Thursday evening Mr. Joe Poteet and Miss Rebecca Withers were married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. J. B. Campbell. The next morning on advice from Morganton, N. C., the groom was held by the police. That night an officer came for him, and the next morning he and his bride went to Morganton, where he will answer the charges against him which are not thought to be of a very serious nature.

Sunday Mr. R. L. Beacham of Rion and Miss Maggie Stewart were married by Rev. J. B. Campbell.

All the May magazines for sale at The News and Herald office.

The refrigerator mentioned in the advertisement of W. D. Tennant & Co. has arrived and has been put in place. It is a most complete and up-to-date arrangement for preserving meat and such other things as have to be kept on ice. It is so divided that the meat is kept in an apartment to itself. It is massive in size, being 10 feet high, 5 feet wide, and 7½ feet long. It is a credit to the progress of the firm.

Democratic Club Meeting.

The Democratic clubs of this county will assemble at their places of meeting on Saturday, April 26th, for the purpose of reorganizing and electing delegates to the county convention to be held in Winnsboro on May 5th. The convention will be called to order at 12 o'clock m. and will proceed to elect delegates to the State convention to meet in Columbia on May 21st, 1902, also to elect a county chairman and a member of the State Democratic executive committee.

T. S. Brice, County Chairman.
