LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Wednesday, May 7 - - - 1902

The News and Herald office is fully equipped for doing your job printing. The increase in the amount of the work it has done so far this year as compared with last year is full evidence of the satisfactory work done.

Saturday is Memorial Day.

Dr. T. A. Quattlebaum, of Batesburg, spent Friday in town.

Mr. James and Miss Clara Beatty took in the Catawba Falls picnic.

W. Boykin Lyles has returned from Richmond Medical College.

Mrs. J. B. Campbell has returned from a visit to her daughter at Rock Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. and Mr. Bratton Davis went down to the exposition last week.

Sheriff R. E. Ellison has returned from Dallas where he went to attend the reunion.

Dr. B. J. Quattlebaum has returned from a short business trip in the lower part of the State.

Supervisor Hood requests us to say that he is now ready to deliver the new road law to all overseers.

Miss Nannie Jordan has returned from Pineville where she has been spending quite a while with friends.

Mrs. C. A. Douglass and little Miss Margaret, of Washington, are spending a while with relatives in town.

Miss Kate Mellichamp who came to attend the Owens-Herron marriage has returned to her home in Longtown.

Some one broke into Mr. S. S. Gibson's kitchen Saturday night and helped himself to a few things before departing.

Just one more week in which to pay town taxes without penalty. Executions will be issued against all delinquents after the 15th.

Judge Jno. H. Miller, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. A. G. Brice, of Chester, will visit at Mr. W. H. Flenniken's this week.

Misses Tizah Ketchin and Maggie Gladden attended the Catawba Falls picnic and remained over with friends in that section.

At the last meeting of the town council the present policemen were re-elected and Robert Bankhead was re-elected lamp-lighter.

Rev. J. H. Yarborough was in town Monday on his way to his old home at Jenkinsville. He is much pleased with his work at Fert Lawn.

Treasurer Hugh S. Wylie and Supervisor A. D. Hood announce themselves to-day for re-election to their respective offices. D. A. Broom announces himself for election to the office of Judge of Probate.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Rawls, after a visit of several days to friends and relatives in the Water-ree section, have returned to their home in Watertown, Fla.

—Clerk of Court Lyles requests the announcement that all magistrates call and get a copy of the new acts which he is now ready to deliver. He hopes to receive the pension money this week.

—Dr. J. J. Robertson, of Little Rock, Ark., is on an extended visit to relatives in the county for the first time after an absence of forty years. He is receiving a hearty welcome at his old home.

—Capt. T. J. Cureton went to Rock Hill Sunday to attend the funeral of his nephew, Cadet Stevens of the Kings Mountain Military Institute at Yorkville, who on Saturday while in bathing was drowned. Cadets Lindsay and Nichols of Yorkville were also drowned.

—At the meeting of Mt. Zion Society Monday, J. A. Brice was elected trustee to succeed J. E. McDonald, who declined re-election. A resolution was passed placing the property of the society under police regulation. The same day J. F. McMaster was re-elected trustee for district 14 by the voters of the district.

—Puss in Boots, one of the most popular entertainments going, will be put on here at the Thesbian Hall May 15th by local talent. Mr. M. J. Lee, who has the exclusive use of this taking entertainment, is here in charge. At Rock Hill, Union, Greenwood, Anderson and many other places in the State "Puss in Boots" has proven a crowd drawer.

—Don't let that old gag of "May chickens won't live" keep you from giving your chickens a plenty of attention during the coming month. There is no month in the year when they do better, provided the proper attention is given them. Have such temporary nests as can be destroyed by fire if insects invade them, keep the hens well dusted with insect powders, use plenty of whitewash, keep the little chickens off the wet grass—watch these points and your May chickens will be all O. K.

—According to the roll which has recently been made up there are 7,688 Confederate pensioners on the roll this year against 6,503 last year, an increase of 18 per cent. In Fairfield county we have on the roll 124 against 110 last year, an increase of 13 per cent. In Chesterfield the increase over last year 52 per cent., and in Oconee county 59 per cent. The largest number on the roll in any county is Spartanburg, 655. The next highest is Anderson with 442. Then comes Greenville with 393 and Colleton with 332. The smallest number is from Georgetown with only 42.

Notice to Firemen.

The fire company drill will be held this afternoon at 5.30 o'clock and the regular monthly meeting at 8.30 o'clock.

Geo. B. McMaster,
Secretary.

School Closing.

We are requested to announce that the Mossy Dale school taught by Miss Carlos Padgett will close Friday night, May 9th, with an ice-cream festival on the "lawn" in front of the school. The proceeds will be used in adding to the school library.

All friends of the school are cordially invited to attend.

WANTED: A good man to buy scrap iron. Write for particulars. Address J. B. Garfunkel, Columbia, S. C.

Found in the River.

A few weeks ago in the Feasterville section Wade Estes, colored, shot his wife at the home of her father, the wound necessitating the amputation of an arm. A few days later Wade was missing. He was tracked to the river, and as it was known that he could not swim the river was dragged with the result that his body was found. Some seem to think that he was drowned, while others contend foul play.

Takes His Life.

A clipping from a Memphis paper gives a full account of how E. L. Jackson, a cabinet maker of that city, and long a citizen of Fairfield county ended his life Tuesday of last week. A heavy loss in cotton futures was the prime cause of his taking this fatal step. While he and his family were at the table, he excused himself, went out into an outhouse in the yard, and there placed a pistol to his mouth, fired and fell dead instantly. This step was fully premeditated and every precaution to prevent it had been taken by his family, who were apprehensive of his ending his life. He was 51 years old. He leaves a wife who it is feared will not recover from the shock.

STRAYED—From Hilliard Wylie's place a red heifer calf about 5 months old. $5 reward for return of same. R. E. Ellison.

Against the Guineas.

Mr. Editor: On behalf of many of our citizens who desire, and are entitled to rest and quiet at their homes, we petition the town council to pass an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of the discordant, noisy and never-sleeping Guinea fowl within the corporate limits of the town.

Sufferers.

Our Millinery Must Go.

Our entire stock of Millinery must be sold during the month of May. It will be to your interest to call before purchasing. Respectfully,
A. L. McCarley.

FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.

Editor News and Herald:

The office of railroad commissioner is one of great responsibility and it is highly important that it be filled with the right man. A railroad commissioner should be possessed of a broad and liberal mind, trained in business grooves, whetted and sharpened by friction with every day business transactions. He should be a man of sufficient moral courage to enforce his views in the interest of public safety as well as public welfare, and at the same time not ignore the just interests of railroad corporations. He should have had a measure of success in the conduct of his own business before entering on the heavy duties connected with this office. A man who meets all these requirements is Hon. Jno. G. Welling, whose candidacy for railroad commissioner we most heartily endorse. Mr. Welling is now in the prime of life. He is one of the county's largest and most successful farmers. He is a public-spirited man, as is shown by his great interest in the school of his community, the session of which has often been extended by his contributions. He is deservedly popular in his own community, having received 149 out of the 150 votes cast at his home box in 1900. He is also very popular in the county, having twice headed the ticket for the house of representatives. Then, too, Mr. Welling has had seven years' experience in practical railroading, having been a machinist by trade, serving in the capacity of a locomotive engineer.

In asking you to support him, we feel sure that wherever he may be he will be found to be a man of the highest type of Christian character, whose reputation is unsullied, whose ability is unquestioned, and whose peculiar fitness for the office he seeks is recognized by many, many citizens of Fairfield County.

OWENS-HERRON.

An Impressive Marriage Ceremony Performed in the Presence of Many Many Friends.

A most beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony was performed Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church at 8.30 o'clock. The attendance was probably the largest that ever gathered in Winnsboro to witness a similar event, so old yet ever new and beautiful. The decorations were superb, the spacious pulpit being a solid mass of rarest orchids and pot plants, which silently yet beautifully and eloquently spoke of the grandeur and solemnity of the occasion.

Promptly at the appointed hour the organ's peals proclaimed the arrival of the wedding party, and Lohengren, that grand old march, rendered yet grander by the touch of such an artist as Miss Annie Aiken, filled the church with luscious melody and concord of sweetest sounds. The couples entered in the following order: Mr. W. C. Boyd preceded the attendants in the left aisle, and opposite him in the right aisle Miss Allie Kerr, of Greenwood, (once a resident of Winnsboro). Her native grace and beauty with her calm demeanor made her an ideal participant in such an event—this couple opened the gates through which the remaining attendants were to usher the bride. The couples first entering were Mr. T. C. Davis with Miss Kats Mellichamp down the right aisle and Dr. Saml. Lindsay with Miss Bessie Bookter down the left, then Mr. L. E. Owens on the right and Miss Bessie Lyles on the left. Following came Mr. J. W. Cathcart with Miss Mary Matthews, and Mr. E. W. Hagan with Miss Bessie Quattlebaum, all entering the gates and forming a semi-circle ready to receive the groom Mr. Arthur Maynard Owens and his regal bride Miss Clara Louise Herron, whose usual beauty was but augmented by her sweet responsibility. They were led to the altar with characteristic ease and grace by Mr. Jno. F. Davis as best man and Miss Elizabeth Cureton as maid of honor, who was typical of the name—an honor to herself, bride and friends. She was petit and blonde and perfect in the role she assumed. After the ceremony, feelingly expressed by their pastor, Dr. D. E. Jordan, the bridal party enjoyed a reception given at the home of the groom. During the evening the "prophetic" cake, containing the ring and button, was cut. The button, mildly suggestive of bachelorhood, fell to the lot of Mr. J. W. Cathcart, and the ring, intimating an early occurrence of a similar auspicious occasion, was won by Mr. L. E. Owens.

After a delightful supper the time coursed swiftly by and too soon the hour of departure arrived. Thus ended the events of a happy occasion. If the best wishes of a host of friends and the manifestation of interest by all, together with lovely weather are auspicious omens, then the future of this young couple will be but a brilliant reflection of their joyous past.

The News and Herald extends its best wishes to this happy young couple.

Mt. Zion at the Exposition.

Delftware.

A whole train load of school children from Winnsboro, accompanied by their teachers and a number of others, went to the exposition for several days last week. Winnsboro is said to be unprogressive, Winnsboro people ultra-conservative, but one very noticeable and commendable thing about Winnsboro is that she never does things by halves, when she decides to do anything at all. Especially is this true as regards educational matters and enterprises. This party from Winnsboro is the largest and most representative school party, outside of the college parties, that has visited the exposition. Mr. Witherow, Mr. J. Perrin Quarles, first assistant; Miss Bessie McMaster, Miss Phinney, Miss Bacot and Miss O'bear, teachers in Mt. Zion accompanied the children.—The Educational.
