LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Wednesday, June 11 - 1892

The News and Herald office is fully equipped for doing your job printing. The increase in the amount of the work it has done so far this year as compared with last year is full evidence of the satisfactory work done.

Miss Lela Aiken is visiting friends in Chester.

Miss Alice Neal of Davidson is visiting the Misses McMaster.

There was a delightful German at the armory Friday night.

Miss Susie Ketchin is on a visit to her sister at Newark, N. J.

Miss Rachel McMaster is at home from her school at Liberty Hill.

Mr. E. P. Davis, of Durham, N. C., is at home on a weeks vacation.

Rev. R. F. Kirkpatrick preached at Seion church Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Campbell has returned from an extended visit to Beaufort.

The Columbia District Conference will convene with the Winnsboro church July 9-13.

Miss Louise Dwight has accepted a position as stenographer in the attorney-general's office.

Miss Mamie Huey who has been teaching in the Lancaster graded schools has returned home.

The shouts of the children on the streets Friday told that Mt. Zion had ended another session.

Miss Annie Davis has gone to Philadelphia where she will remain for several weeks with Mrs. Hayward.

The Union Charity Society is requested to meet tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at Mrs. W. A. Beaty's at 6 o'clock.

Mr. J. E. Brakefield of Orangeburg spent yesterday with his friend Mr. T. M. Lyles. They taught in the same school last year.

It has been definitely decided that the state reunion of Confederate veterans will be held the 7th and 8th of August at Greenville.

Hon. W. B. Wilson and Dr. T. J. Strait have been in town for several days looking after their candidacy to represent this district.

The kind of farmers needed at this season of the year are pea farmers—farmers who plant peas in their corn and on their stubble lands.

Mrs. J. A. and Miss Mamie Brice and Mrs. W. H. Fleniken are attending the commencement of their alma mater, Due West Female College.

The trustees of the Chester graded schools have decided to erect another school building to accommodate the large attendance.—Chester Reporter.

The work of the competent and diligent teachers, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dye, is highly appreciated by the people of Lowryville.—Chester Reporter.

Mr. E. H. Hall went to his father's home, at Mitford, Tuesday afternoon to spend several days. He will shortly join Mrs. Hall at Spartanburg.—Chester Lantern.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dye, since the close of school at Lowryville, are in town, and will spend most of the summer at their residence on Columbia street.—Chester Lantern.

As high as is the price of peas every farmer should plant as many as possible and give them such cultivation as will enable him to have peas for another year.

Mr. Clement F. Davis has our thanks for an invitation to the commencement of the South Carolina College. Mr. Davis enjoys the coveted honor of being the chief marshal.

Mrs. Ella Gooding and her daughter Miss Isabel went to Columbia yesterday to witness the graduating exercises of the South Carolina College. Mr. Henry Gooding is a member of the graduating class.

The editor of the News and Herald is indebted to President D. B. Johnson of Winthrop College for an invitation to the commencement exercises June 15-18.

Miss Dayis Brockington is a member of the graduating class.

The music for the candidates on their visit here should be furnished by the new Bavarian Harp Band which has just been organized with forty-seven instruments, all right new. The members are in daily practice.

Mr. W. C. Zeigler, of Blackville, spent two days in town last week in reorganizing a lyceum course. The lyceum was reorganized. A good list of attractions is promised for the coming season, which will begin about October 1st.

A party from Ridgeway, consisting of Mr. Charlton Thomas, Misses May and Jennie Thomas, and Mr. W. H. Ruff, came up last Thursday and engaged in a tennis tournament. After the rackets were laid aside a most pleasant reception was tendered the visitors by Miss Bessie McMaster.

The salary of the postmaster at Winnsboro has been reduced from $1,500 to $1,400. As the salary is based on the sale of stamps, this would indicate that the sale of stamps for the last postoffice year was less than of the previous year, though had the sale been only a little more there would have been no decrease.

Mr. J. P. Quarles left Saturday for his home in Abbeville. For two years he has been assistant principal of Mt. Zion and it is a matter of general regret on the part of patrons and pupils that he has decided to leave the school room for other business. Mr. Quarles has won many friends in Winnsboro who extend to him their best wishes in whatever work he engages in.

—Mr. J. L. Minnaugh, of Columbia, spent yesterday in town.

—Miss Lula Hinnant, who has been teaching at Stevenson, returned to her home at Ridgeway Saturday.

—The entire last year's cotton crop, consisting of 26 bales, produced on the county farm, was sold a few days ago. S. M. Jones & Co. purchased it, and paid 94 cents per pound for 25 bales and 9 for 1. The total weight of the 26 bales amounted to 11,136 pounds, and $1,055.76 was turned into the county treasury as a result of the sale. These 26 bales were raised from 30 acres of land planted. Mr. Alex. Carter is the efficient manager of the farm.—Chester Lantern.

—Our college boys and girls are now returning home and we gladly welcome them back. The following are already in: Miss Mamie Brice, the Woman's College, Baltimore; Miss Janie Ketchin from Converse; Misses Marie McCants, Anna Beaty, Annie Doty, Gussie DesPortes, and Alice Walker from Presbyterian College, Columbia; Messrs. T. K. Elliott, Jr., and O. R. Brown, from Clemson College. Within the next two weeks about all the others will come in.

The Southern Railway wishes to mail you their Summer Resort Folder, which contains much valuable information for pleasure and health-seekers. Address R. W. Hunt, Charleston, S. C.

Rural Route.

An effort is on foot to establish a free rural delivery route from Ridgeway. The proposed route will include Longtown, Bryant, Centreville, Myrtle and Smallwood. It is to be hoped that the route will be established.

County Summer School.

The attention of all the teachers of the county and all those expecting to teach next year is called to the summer school that meets Monday, June 17. A competent corps of teachers will be in charge. Prof. Johnson will teach English grammar and English literature and Miss Habenicht mathematics and manual training. Some very interesting work will be done, and every teacher should try to be on hand. Attendance upon the summer school will greatly facilitate the securing of a teacher's certificate and is made a condition for the renewal of certificates.

W. B. Jackson Killed.

The people here were greatly shocked last Thursday afternoon when the news came that Mr. W. B. Jackson had been killed that morning at Batesburg. Mr. Jackson met his death while sharpening a tool on a grindstone, which was fixed to a pulley and which flew to pieces, one piece striking him in the face and causing death in about an hour. His remains were brought that afternoon to Winnsboro and interred in the cemetery of the Methodist church Friday morning. Revs. J. L. Freeman and J. B. Campbell officiating.

Mr. Jackson was a contractor and for several months had been at work at Batesburg, where his wife, who was Miss Mamie Hinnant, and two little children went to join him only a short while ago. His mother and brothers also live here, and all have the sympathy of the entire community in the bereavement that has befallen them.

The Work of the Firmaments.

Saturday and Sunday afternoons there were good rains throughout the county. In several sections there was considerable hail, wind, and lightning. The greatest damage was in the Stevenson section, and Mr. Jno. Turner suffered most. His gin house was blown down and his residence was also considerably damaged. His crops and those adjoining him were very much damaged by the hail.

In the Greenbrier section the negro Methodist church was badly damaged by a stroke of lightning. In town the A. R. P. manse was struck by lightning, but little damage was done.

Court Proceedings.

The court of General Sessions met Monday morning with his Honor Judge Buchanan on the bench. Solicitor Henry and Stenographer McCaw were in their respective places.

The following jurors were excused: R. C. Dove, T. W. Shedd, and L. L. Langford.

The court was occupied all of Monday with the trial of Jane Adger for the stealing of live stock. The jury found not guilty.

Tuesday morning the case against Chas. Paulding for burglary and larceny was taken up and the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Jack Nelson was found guilty of housebreaking and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

In the case of the State vs. Thos. Crawford for housebreaking and larceny, the jury found him guilty on the second count, and the sentence of the court was thirty days on the public works.

John Young and Chas. Haigler plead guilty to housebreaking and larceny. Each was given a year in the penitentiary or on the chain gang.

On account of the indisposition of Solicitor Henry yesterday, Mr. McDonald represented the State.

The court of General Sessions adjourned yesterday afternoon. The court of Common Pleas will be in session to-day.

Presentment of Grand Jury.

To His Honor Judge O. W. Buchanan:

We, the grand jury of Fairfield County, ask leave to submit this our report and presentment. We have nothing to present officially.

We have acted on all the bills submitted to us and returned the same to the court.

We recommend that two good mules be furnished by the proper authorities to the chain gang, to be used instead of the ones now on hand.

We the grand jury heartily endorse the action had at the late Democratic county convention in reference to the enlargement and improvement of the court house.

We have appointed the usual committees to examine public offices, books and records of public officers, etc., and instructed them to report at the next term of this court. With thanks to your Honor for your kindness and consideration,

Respectfully submitted,
M. D. C. Colvin,
Foreman.

Letter to Mr. M. W. Doty,
Winnsboro, S. C.

Dear Sir: We have on file testimonials from men who have had L. & M. Paint wear 14 years on their houses without repainting. Most people get tired of a color before that time. The extreme durability of L. & M. coupled with its great economy due to the fact that you add much oil to each gallon of paint has enabled us to keep up our enormous sales. No thinking house-owner will buy a thin paint when he can get his paint and oil separately at proper price for each and then mix them together. Kindly obtain our color cards and prices from MCMASTER CO. Very truly,
LONGMAN & MARTINEZ,
Paint Makers.

After a lengthy session the Virginia constitutional convention has adopted its constitution by a vote of 90 to 10. A recess will be taken till June 25th so that the work of engrossing may be completed.

One Minute Cough Cure
For Coughs, Colds and Croup.

Next Tuesday the political ball will be set in motion in earnest. The senatorial candidates will begin at Columbia, and the State candidates at Sumter. The candidates for the senate will be Geo. Johnstone of Newberry, Wm. Elliott of Beaufort, D. S. Henderson of Aiken, A. C. Latimer of Anderson, and Jno. J. Hemphill of Chester. For governor there will be W. H. Timmerman of Edgefield, M. F. Ansel of Greenville, W. J. Talbert of Edgefield, D. C. Heyward of Colleton, James H. Tillman of Edgefield.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special election will be held in the town of Winnsboro on the SECOND TUESDAY IN JULY, 1902, to determine whether the said town shall issue Ten Thousand Dollars of bonds for the purpose of establishing an Electric Light Plant by said town.
