Miss Sadie Robinson, 4 Rand street,

"Peruna was recommended to me about a year ago as an excellent remedy ! troubles peculiar to our sex, and as I found that all that was said of this medicine was true. I am pleased to endorse it.

"I be an to use it about seven months ago for weakness and nerrousness, caused from overwork and sleeplessness, and found that in a few days I began to grow strong, my appetite increased and I began to sleep better, consequently my nerv-ousness passed away and the weakness in the petric organs soon disappeared and I have been well and strong ever since."

Vast increase in Immigration. Immigration into the United States will rise this year to astonishing proportions if the record for the first quarter of the current year be maintained to its close. Over 11,000 foreigners arrived in New York in two days in March, an unprecedented showing. The number of arrivals during the first quarter of 1905 has never been exceeded during a like period in former years. It is probable that the immigration this year will be double that of 1904. Extraordinary efforts are being made to furnish transportation. Ships hitherto engaged in other service are in dema- i for the transportation of the coning hosts from Europe and steerage accommodations are booked ahead for several months, -Philadelphia Ledger.

THE PULPIT. AN ELOQUENT SUNDAY SERMON BY

THE REV. C. E. JEFFERSON.

Subject: Wanted: A New Vision of God. New York City. - In the famous Broadway Tabernacle the pastor, the Rev. Charles Edward Jefferson, D. D., on Sunday preached the following sermon entitled, "Wanted: A New Vision of God:"

The great word on the lips of the coming preacher will be "God." The sigh that Peter presents Him to His name which is above every name has been too much neglected in these recent years, even by the men anointed to proclaim it.

There have been reasons for this neg-The evolutionary philosophy awakened a new and thrilling interest in man. Whence he came, how he started, what have been the processes of his climbing, these are the questions which have bewitched and absorbed us all. The phenomenal achievements of the last half century have worked toward the same result. Never has man been so wonderful as now, never has he done such mighty deeds. He is a of a fresh revelation. "Ye shall know miracle worker who says each evening. "I will do greater things to-morrow." His prowess, cunning and mastery are astounding, and to chant his praises has been our pastime and delight.

The miseries of man have also conspired to fix our attention on him. He has come from the country to the city and he is in trouble. He has become the victim of all sorts of economic and social forces, which have left him lying bleeding and half dead by the side of the road along which the strong have driven furiously to wealth and power. To lift the man who is down and place him on our beast and get him into the nearest inn is a problem of vast dimensions, and has taken a deal of our thought and time.

We have been caught in the complex of secondary causes, and have litminds God's presence has become dim, His personality vague and doubtful. His holiness has been by many quite forgotten. In admiring or pitying the creature we have gotten our eyes off the Creator. Our first duty is the step of the prodigal, "I will arise and go back to my father."

The prophet of the coming days is going to say in the words of one of old. "I have yet somewhat to say on emphasis upon the authority and sac-God's behalf." Man's cause has been raments of the Church. To-day it is the earth always ends in Babel, beginning at the throne of God leads to Pentecost.

We are coming back to the old evanwent his message was, "We pray you in Christ's steal, be ye reconciled to has not yet spent itself. God." Simon Peter met the uproar in the streets of Jerusalem on the Day of Pentecost with a great dec aration of God-"I will pour out of My spirit upon all flesh": and from first to last it was upon what God had done in Christ that he based his passionate exhortation to repentance.

All deep-eyed men are seeing with increasing clearness that it is not by ecclesiattical might or political power, but by the spirit of Jehovah that the mountains of iniquity are to be leveled and the rough places made smooth. The evangelism of the coming days will begin wi.h God. Three doctrines will be counted car-

the sovereignity of God. If the Puritan passion has died out of our blood it is because the Puritan conception of God has faded out of our hearts. let him return unto the Lord, and He What we need to see to-day is a throne with God on it. Democracy has made | God, for He will abundantly havoc with our ideas of authority, and the result is a flabbiness of responsibility and a laxness of conduct, which unless counteracted, will lead to our ruin. The pessimism and hopelessness so prevalent to-day, even among professing Christains are the direct result of a failure to grasp the fundamental doctrine of God's omnipotence. Along with the doctrine of God's sovereignity will go the doctrine of His immanence. It is an old doctrine | conviction that the struggle which couched in fresh phraseology and with new light shot through it by modern | blessings. It teaches us that, alscience. The doctrine is written large across the pages of Scripture, and in every land and time the saints have known that God dwells in the hearts of men. In Him we live and move and have our being, as the apostle long ago declared. And centuries be- increase the power God has given me fore Paul's day a Hebrew poet thrilled by the thought of God's omn-potence wrote the 139th Psalm. That God is above all and through all, and in all, and that of Him and through Him and to Him are all things is one of the commonplaces of the Bible; and whether we use the old phrase, "the indwelling God," or the phrase now most popular, "the imma-nent God," the thought needs to be emphasized and wrought into the consciousness of the Christians of our day that God is in His world and dwells in special fulness in the hearts of those who love and serve Him. Nor will the holiness of God he forgotten. The decadence of the sense of sin has been caused by the blurring of the doctrine of God's holiness. Holy Father was the title by which Jesus knew God, and it is thus that we must know Him if it is to be well with our souls. The forms in which retribution was often preached in preceding generations were so grotesque and arbitrary that some of us have been ashamed to say it right out clear and strong, that God punishes men for .heir sins. In the coming day we are going to believe again that whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap, that without holiness no man can see the Lord, that there is no peace unto the wicked, that the soul that sinneth dies in the act of its sinning, and and men should welcome the duty that God is calling upon men everywhere to repent.

No man a quainted with the teaching of the latest science need be ashamed or afraid to preach the most rigorous doctrine of retribution. "You preachers do not tell men often enough that every sin brings its inevitable punishment," is a sentence spoken to me years ago by a physician. Behold the goodness and severity of God! This is the completing statement of the apostle, and the prophets who are redeem the twentieth century will let the sentence stand without abridgment. With cities rotting at our doors and the wail of the damned ringing in our ears, and with an ancient empire crumbfing to pieces before our eyes. it is not hard to believe that while God is ready always to forgive the penitent He will by no means spare the guilty.

Behold your God! will be the stirring note of the coming message, and the only God who will stir the hearts of the people will be the God who is revealed in Jesus Carist. Christ is God manifest in the flesh. He is the express image of His father. Through Him the revelation of the Infinite heart has come. In seeing Him we see Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., the Father, and we come to the Father proprietors. For sale by all druggists, only through Him. We do not see Christ as de is unless we see in Him the majesty and authority of a king. We have too much followed the idea of Goethe and Carlyle, that Christianity is a religion of sorrow, and that its chief end is that of consolation. This leads men like Mr. John Morley to call the gospel a "sovereign legend of pity." and to long for a wider Gospel of justice and progress. Christianity is more than a legend of pity, it is a bugle blast calling men to battle. Jesus is more than the consoler of people in trouble. He is the anointed King of men. He announces His Kingship again and again in His discourses, and it is as Lord and Mescountrymen on the Day of Pentecost. To submit to Him unconditionally is man's wisdom and peace. It is not the picture of the earthly Jesus with His hand upon a leper that this age needs most of all to see. We need to see the Son of God as John, the apostle. saw Him, with many crowns upon His head, the universal Sovereign of the kingdoms of life. God's condescension will also be seen afresh in Christ. The great words spoken in the upper chamber will be restudied, and upon many hearts they will fall with the emancipating charm that I am in My Father, and ye in Me and I in you." "If a man love Me he will keep My words, and My Father will love him, and we will come unto him and make Our abode with him." We do not know God as He is until we have seen Him not only high and lifted up, sitting on a throne, but also as the apostle saw Him, standing as a suppliant, saying."Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear My voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me."

In Christ also we see God's indignation against sin. He is the holy Christ. Though merciful, He says to workers of iniquity-I never knew you. Though gracious. He says to transgressors of God's will-depart from Me ye cursed. Tender above all tenderness known to mortals. He paints pictures of loss and pain and doom so terrible that they have burned themselves into the retinas of men's eyes and into the gray matter of their brains forever. Wherever His Gospel is preached men cannot go to the judgment saying, I did not know the heinousness nor the awful penalties of wrong-doing.

With the Tractarian method of seventy years ago there began a fresh raments of the Church. To-day it is pleaded eloquently and long, and the the Church which is still uppermost time has arrived for the forthputting in many minds, and its worship, its of the claims of God. Beginning at unity and its government are counted all-important themes.

With Maurice and Kingsley there began a new interest in the social aspect of Christianity, and men began to lagelism of the apostles. Wherever Paul | bor for the establishment of what was called Christian Socialism. This force

But neither High Churchmen with their sacraments, nor social settlement workers with their philanthropies are equal to the crisis which is now upon

It is not a loftier conception of the Church, nor a wider diffusion of culture and social cheer which is most urgently demanded by our times. What is needed is a fresh vision of God, a new baptism of spiritual life, a lifting of the heart to higher levels of aspiration and devotion. The world groans and travails in pain, waiting for the appearance of a new race of prophets-men of insight and of courage, who endowned with the Holy dinal. In the forefront will be placed Ghost shall say to our generation in tones which burn with fervent heat: "Le the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and will have mercy upon him; and to our - Congregationalist and Christian World.

> Happiness in Spite of Deprivations. If I am so happy in spite of my deprivations, if my happiness is so deep that it is a faith, so thoughtful that it becomes a philosophy of life, my testimony to the creed of optimism is worth hearing. My optimism does not rest on the absence of evil. I can say with evil necessitates is one of the greatest though the world is full of suffering, it is full also of the overcoming of it. My optimism rests on a glad belief in the preponderance of good and a willing effort always to co-operate with the good that it may prevail. I try to to see the best in everything and every one, and make that best a part of my life. To what is good I open the doors of my being, and jealously shut them against what is bad.-Helen Keller.

A Good Man's Humility.

An appeal was made one Sabbath evening in a church for volunteers to work for Christ. No sooner was the appeal made than a Mr. Ketchum, a wealthy New York merchant, rose up and offered his services to the pastor. The minister said, "In what way, Mr. Ketchum?" and the reply was, "As a hod carrier." What he meant was that he was willing to serve in any humble capacity in which he could be most useful. How often have I thought of that good man's humility. And God blessed him as afterwards he went from house to house asking parents to send their children to the Sabbath-school that was connected with his church.

Present Obedience Necessary. If you are truly aroused to seek heavenly comfort, you will soon discover that this is only to be found in the path of present obedience.-Chimes.

You Are Wanted. Men are wanted to do the hard work of pushing the car of salvation along; every day in the week.

Organ Grinder's "Human Monkey." On complaint of a number of citizens an Italian organ grinder was arrested in Richmond, Va., because of carrying a "numan monkey" around with him. The so-called monkey was a man, who had been the victim of an accident, having been caught in some machinery, resulting in twisted limbs, a crooked neck and altogether a grotesque resemblance to a monkey. His injuries healed, leaving him in this unfortunate shape. The Italian resisted arrest, saying that the man belonged to him, having made a bargain resigning his liberty in return for support. and that he proposed to exhibit him as long as he chose.

He was taken to the police station by force, but was subsequently released on his promise to leave town, taking his human monkey with him.
